BRYAN DROPS TO A LOWER PLANE.

Mr. Bryan, in his recent speech at the Jamestown Exposition, took oc casion to question the sincerity of President Rocsevelt in his fight to regulate freight rates, stop rebates, and thus break up the great underlying cause that has produced the gigantic industrial trusts, by charging that the rate bill had not, up to to date, produced any material benefits of reduced rates, etc.

We regret to see Mr. Bryan dropping to the level of using an argulike Mr. Bryan's usually broad and fairminded statements with reference to public men and affairs. It is the argument of cheap politics and is not worthy of Mr. Bryan.

Mr. Bryan should have noted, in this connection, that the Governor public utilities bill, providing for a railway commission with more into the capitalization, gross and net passenger and freight rate. Having provided the machinery for in vestigating the whole question, and have vetoed the bill passed immediately upon the heels of the utilities bill provided for taking very pronounced action in reducing rates in advance of the investigation just officially authorized by the Legisla-

It seems to be clear that the railroads felt sure that the Courts would not uphold the two cent rate bill, and for that reason they wanted it passed, and also it is plain that they did not want an official investigation made so that the Legislature could act intelligently on the information thereby secured.

Hughes did, and all brave men can be trusted in reform fights, while men who are afraid of popular clamor, as a rule, can not be trusted.

The CAUCASIAN had noticed that he Raleigh News and Observer, and other political papers of its stamp, has also taken the same low view of the President's course and Governor Hughes' course. No better was to be expected of them, but we are indeed surprised that Mr. Bryan should have felt it necessaay to take such a

The CAUCASIAN has always admired Mr. Bryan as a man, even when we could not fully agree with him, but we must say that we are more disappointed at him in this instance than ever before.

EDITOR CAUCASIAN :- I have read carefully the two attacks which Judge Adams has made upon former Senator Butler and the Senator's two replies thereto, and have been think ing about the same. I regret very much that Mr. Adams made these attacks, for I cannot see any just cause that he had for doing so. His attacks sound to me just like the abuse which the Democratic politicians have been heaping on Mr. Butler. The Democrats have cause for they are afraid that his efforts will weaken the Democratic party and build up the Republican party. But why does Adams attack him ! I think he will not do it any more for he has no doubt gotten more than he expected.

Mr. Adams says the Senator is a "dead as a door nail" That sound exactly like it came from Josephus Daniels or some frightened Democratic politician. It is only things of this kind and personal abuse that Butler, because they dare not make any charges against him by stating facts, because they cannot prove them to be true. One thing is certain, that if the Democrats thought Mr. Butler was so dead they would not continue t show that they are so much afraid of him, and another thing is true, and Mr. Butler was so dead he would not have been so anxious for his support at the last State Convention If he had published an attack on Mr. Butler before that Convention, as he has done since, I think I know vote of Sampson County, and I think there are a good many other
