WAKE COUNTY NEWS.

Adolphus Nipper, a Confederate oldier, died at the Soldiers' Home a Raleigh Friday. He was a native Wake County and was a member of Company A, 11th North Carolina State Troops.

Mr. Charlie S. Allen died at his subject. home in Raleigh early Friday morn-He had been in poor health for ame months, but his death was very unexpected. Mr. Allen was freight agent of the Seaboaad Air for about forty years.

The Raleigh Chamber of Commerce is making preparations for a big celebration and barbecue in Raleigh next Monday, July 1st. The ecasion will be to celebrate Greater Raleigh, as on that date the exten--ion of the city limits will go into effect, which will give Raleigh an increase of about five thousand population.

Elvira Powell, an old colored woman, was arrested Sunday, May 12, on suspicion of being connected in the murder of the babe of Rosa Johnson on the night of May 7th and was sent to Wake County jail Friday on the charge of murdering the child.

Rosa Johnson, a young white wothe child it was dead. The baby on the excursion. was found, it will be recalled, in a vacant lot near the intersection of Blount and Davie streets. Rosa was sent to jail by the coroner for the murder of this child.

Big Day in Police Court.

There was a large amount of business before his honor, the Police Justice of Raleigh, Monday.

John Person, a negro, was given four months on the roads for carrying a concealed weapon and assaulting his father.

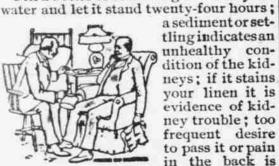

Walter Hollings, a low, chunky negro, loaded his stomach with dis pensary whiskey and his pocket with a gun and went out Saturday night looking for trouble, which he soon found. He insulted another negro, William McKnight, who splintered a fence rail over Hollings' head. Hollings ran and turned occasionally to shoot at McKnight. However, McKnight was not afraid of pistol balls, so he chased Hollings, took his gun away from him and turned him over to the police. Hollings was given six months on the roads.

Redding Perry, a white man, came to Raleigh Saturday to celebrate his 60th anniversary, and he celebrated it "gloriously" off dispensary corn. It cost him $7.25 in the police court. Chas. Horton, who delivers milk in the city, was fined $7.35 for leaving his horse unhitched.
