BUFFALO MCKINLEY MONUMENT

To De Dedicated During "Old-Home Weck," September 5.

The beautiful white marble shaft erected by the State of New York in Ningara Square, Buffalo, N. Y., to the memory of President McKinley, is to be formally dedicated Thursday, Reptember 5, and the event will be the central feature of Buffalo's O'd-Home Week, September 1 to 7. Firmer residents of Buffalo and the public at large are cordially invited to assend the dedication and the gay carnival that will run all the week.

The Mckinley monument was planned and executed under the direction of a commission of prominent men at a cost of over $150,000.

Buffalo's Old-Home Week will be a succession of civic and military pageantry, carnival, sports and games, and the electric city will be ablaze with twinkling lights and patriotic decorations. Former residents of Buffalo are asked to send their names and addresses to James W. Greene, chairman Old-Home Week Committee, Buffalo, N. Y. A beautiful souvenir invitation will be mailed to each. The railroads will offer excarsion rates to and returning from

SOAKED IN COFFEE Until Too Stiff to Bend Over.

"When I drank coffee I often had sick headaches, nervousness and biliousness much of the time, but when I went to visit a friend I got in the habit of drinking Postum. "I gave up coffee entirely, and the result has been that I have been entirely relieved of all my stomach and nervous trouble. "My mother was just the same way. We all drink Postum now and, without coffee in the house for 2 years, we are all well. "A neighbor of mine, a great coffee drinker, was troubled with pains in her side for years and was an invalid. She was not able to do her work and could not even mend clothes or do anything at all where she would have to bend forward. If she tried to do a little hard work she would get such pains that she would have to lie down for the rest of the day. "At last I persuaded her to stop drinking coffee and try Postum Food Coffee and she did so, and has used Postum ever since; the result has been that she can now do her work, can sit for a whole day and mend and can sew on the machine and she never feels the least bit of pain in her side, in fact, she has got well, and it shows coffee was the cause of the whole trouble. "I could also tell you about several other neighbors who have been cured by quitting coffee and using Postum in its place." "There's a Reason." Look in pkg. for the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville."

Standard Oil Company Must Pay $29,000,000

JUDGE LANDIS STANDING FIRM

Standard Oil Company Given Largest Fine Ever Imposed in History of American Jurisprudence More Than 131 Times Amount Received Through Rebating Operations.

Chicago, Special. - Judge Kenesaw M. Landis Saturday in the United States District Court fined the Standard Oil Company of Indiana $29, 240,000 for violations of the law against accepting rebates from railroads. The fine is the largest ever assessed against any individuals or any corporation in the history of people. American criminal jurisprudence, and is slightly more than 131 times, as great as the amount received by the company through its rebating operations. The case will be carried to the highere courts by the defending com-

Te penalty imposed upon the company is the maximum permitted under the law, and it was announced at the end of a long opinion in which the no thods and practices of the Standard Oil Company were mercilessly scored. The judge, in fact, declared in his opinion that the officials of the Standard Oil Company who were resposible for the practices of which the corporation was found guilty, were no better than countergeiters and thieves, his exact language being: "We may as well look at this sitnation squarely. The men who thus deliberately violate this law wound counterfeits the coin, or steals letters from the mail." Judge Landis commenced reading his decision at 10 o'clock and occupied about one hour in its delivery. He reviewed the facts in the care took up the arguments of the attornevs for the defense and answered them, and then passed judgment upon the company, which he declared violated the law for the sole purpose of swelling its dividends.

society more deeply than does he who

The court held that the railroads have no more right to make a secret rate for a shipper than a board of assessors have to make a seaoncebant assessors would have to make a secret assessment of any particular piece of property. The court expressed regret that the law failed to provide a more serious punishment than a fine, but insisted that the penalty should be sufficiently large to act as a deterent and not of such a size as to encourage the defender to persist in lawlessness.

At the conclusion of his opinion and after announcing the amount of the fine, Judge Landis directed that a special grand jury be called for the purpose of inquiring into the acts of the Chicago & Alton Railroad Company, it having ben proved in the ease just closed that the oil company accepted rebates from that corporation. This july is summoned for August 14th.

The decision of Judge Landis aroused almost as much public interest as did the presence of John D. Rockefeller and other officials of the Standard Oil Company in the court room on July 6th. The crush was so great that a large force of deputy thought it is apt to be an unlimited | marshals had much difficulty in controlling the crowd that was enxious to force its way into the court room. The government was represented in the court room by United States District Attorney Sims and Assistant District Attorney Wilkerson. The attorneys who tried the case for the Standard Oil Company, John S. Miller. Mertz Rosenthal and Alfred D. THE HORSE TO BREED The breeder ought to have a certain and distinct type of horse in mind before starting to breed, and his constant aim should be to produce only the very best of its kind. Unless his aim and ambition be high the probability is that he will never produce anything valuable. He should select the breed or breeds that be thinks are best adapted to his conditions and circumstances, and that when raised and marketed will net him the most money. Assuming that he decides to raise draft horses-and they are much the safest for the average farmer-he ought to aim at producing horses that will weigh at maturity not less than 1,500 or 1,700 pounds.
