JUDGE PRITCHARD FOR GOVERNOR.

A subscriber writes to ask what we think of Judge Pritchard for Governor, and if we thought he would make the sacrifice to resign a life position on the bench to run for Governor. In reply we want to say that the suggestion is a capital one. Besides we believe that Pritchard would be elected, and that he would not be making any sacrifice, because he can be Governor, and then United States Senator again, or go into Taft's Cabinet, or on the Supreme Court bench.

If the Republicans will nominate a man for Governor who will tower over Kitchin as Taft towers over Bryan for President, the old North State will line up in the great progressive party of progress and prosperity. And Pritchard is one of several men who will fill the bill.

DOWN AND OUT GOES THE SIMMONS MACHINE.

The nomination of Kitchin means the death knell of the Simmons machine. It means the retirement of Simmons at the end of his term as Senator, and that Kitchin will succeed him, if the Democratic party should still control the State. Kitchin will, no doubt, build up just as heartless and worthless a machine of his own.

Aycock is badly crippled on account of his connection with the Simmons-Craig combination. His chances for the Senate are also gone. But Kitchin is not elected Governor yet, so the State may never suffer from his machine. The State is beginning to do some thinking. A life-long Democrat said the other day that he had come to the conclusion that it would be best for the State and the country to have Taft for President rather than Bryan.

JUDGE PARKER WAS A CANDIDATE OF THE TRUSTS AND RAILROADS.

During the campaign of 1904 Judge Parker, the Democratic nominee for President, charged that the Republicans had bled the trusts for their campaign funds. And he made much ado about it. He thought it perfectly awful, and any party that would do it should be defeated—and it seems that the party that did do it was defeated. Mr. Parker was a former judge and he should have remembered that "murder will out" after awhile. And in his case it took just four years. All might have gone well and the public might yet have been in ignorance of the fact, had it not been that Col. Henry Waterson, the leading Democrat in Kentucky got news of the fact that Judge Parker was going to Denver with a resolution on former President Cleveland's death. Col. Waterson says that this resolution was intended to create a division and cause trouble at the Convention, and terms it an act of "shameless hypocrites." He says: "The sole aim of the Murphy-Conners crowd (Tammany ring leaders), aided by Judge Parker is the perpetuation of the ascendancy of the Belmont-Ryan combination, to which Democracy owes its last ignominious and well-deserved defeat. It was Belmont-Ryan money that financed Judge Parker's campaign for the nomination in 1904. It was Belmont-Ryan money that nominated him; and it was the Belmont-Ryan tag that made an anti-trust government under such a band absurd and impossible."

And so Judge Parker, the great exponent of Democratic principles in 1904, was nominated by railroad and trust money, and we suppose it was their money that sent that "gold telegram" to the convention immediately following his nomination. Col. Waterson must have been very angry or he would not have let the cat out of the bag as he did. The Democrats should never again accuse the Republicans of bleeding the trusts since the nomination of their last candidate was bought by the trusts and railroad money. They have no justification of their statements, but we have high authority that Judge Parker's nomination was bought. The people of the United States should return thanks that President Roosevelt was elected four years ago instead of the Sage of Esopus.

OPINIONS IN A NUTSHELL.

There will be seven Presidential tickets in the field asking for your votes this fall. The Republican, the Democrat-Bryan, the Democrat-Hears, the Populist-Watson, the Prohibition and the Socialist party.—Times Mercury.

Take your medicine, gentlemen, the East has only used on you the methods which they, with your knowledge and consent, have used on the Republicans for years. The dose may be bitter, but take it like men.—Shelby Aurora.

That must have been a humiliating scene to Senator F. M. Simmons to see his name call forth a storm of indignation from a Democratic Convention, and yet he has no one to blame for it except himself.—Catawba County News (Democratic).

It is said Judge Webb adjourned court in Greensboro to give place to two Democratic conventions. If the above be true, soon business, religion and everything will have to suspend business when the politicians come together to fight over pie.—Hickory Mercury.

If a hundredth part of what the Horne and Craig forces have said about Kitchin during the campaign for the nomination be true, he is no more fit to be Governor of North Carolina than Simmons was for a delegate to the Democratic National Convention.—State Dispatch.

the law, the trusts have been hauled into court and fined for violating the law, and some of them have been abolished altogether. Labor and capital have been given a square deal, and the business of the country is now on the best foundation it has been in many years. If Judge Parker had been elected, then Ryan and Belmont would have been the power behind the throne and would have dictated policies whereby the trusts and Wall Street would have fattened at the expense of the balance of the country.

THE OLD SOLDIER IGNORED.

We made mention last week of the bad treatment the Confederate soldier received at the hands of the Democratic State Convention. The Confederate soldiers were put up by their friends only to be knocked down one after another to make room for a professional politician. The following is a part of the speech delivered by Gen. W. P. Roberts before the Convention after he had been defeated for nomination for Secretary of State:

"I said to myself and to my wife and daughter, 'I am getting old. My friend (the gentleman who has just been nominated) has had the office for two terms. I, being a soldier, will go to my old mother and ask her to give me a mite to take care of me in my declining years.'" I have asked for it because I needed it. I needed it for a living. Yet you have refused it. I bear no malice toward you, and never shall. You shall never hear from me. You shall never hear any complaint from me."

"You young men ought to think more before you act. Take Virginia, the grand old State of Virginia. She has five men in Congress who carried her flag during the war for civil liberty. Both her Senators are Confederate soldiers, three members of the House are Confederate soldiers. How many has North Carolina in the Congress at Washington who followed Lee through these great campaigns? Tell me, my friends, if there is one? Virginia takes care of the men who bore her flag to the front. North Carolina turns down the men who carried her flag farther than any other flag was carried in the War Between the States. Robert Lee, 'Old Marston Robert,' as we called him, said when I was made a brigadier general at the age of twenty-three years, having started from the bottom rail and gotten on top—pardon me for telling you this gentleman—Lee was asked: 'Why is it you appointed that boy a brigadier general?' 'Because,' was the reply, 'he is the best colonel of cavalry in the army of Northern Virginia, and has never been stampeded on the field of battle.'"

"Some of those boys told me this morning, 'We will stampede you,' and I replied, 'If you do, you will do more than any Union brigade was ever able to do.'"

Another Confederate soldier who was turned down by the Convention said that he had thought that the fact that a man was a Confederate soldier would help him to get the nomination, but that he now believed it operated against him. The Democratic politicians have shown that they have no special love for the old soldier, and as his ranks are thinning out they are being ignored more than ever.

We are indebted to the many friends of The Caucasian who have sent us numbers of subscribers since we made our special campaign offer. Those who have not tried it don't know how easy it is to get up a club. Hear what a friend at Greensboro, who sent us a club Monday, has to say: "I have taken a subscription from nearly every one I mentioned the matter to. This is the third time I have changed this list; will send what I have; the people want the paper."

Young Men's Republican Club Organized at Four Oaks.

Mr. Editor:—The Young Men's Republican Club at Four Oaks, N. C., was organized here with eighty-three members, 20 per cent of which were formerly Democrats. The officers are: President, J. T. Cole; secretary, J. E. Barbour; treasurer, E. R. Temple. The next meeting of the club will be on Saturday, July 25, 1908, at 4 o'clock p. m., when we hope to have one or more good speakers. Just keep your eye on old Johnston till November.

Want True Men on Republican Ticket.

Editor Caucasian:—Permit me to say this once that the Democrats are becoming scared on account of their prohibition campaign. I see that Mr. Bailey is advising the Democratic conventions against nominating any Democrat who voted against prohibition. Prohibition is a Democrat platform. It was once "nigger," after that the 21-cent rate on railroad and now it is "prohibition." If prohibition was intended for a moral reform it would have some face, but not so. The Democratic leaders say their sink-hole, so they began to hold for the church and every preacher and woman to come to their rescue.

The devil has transformed himself as an angel of light to deceive the very elect of the Lord. If possible, by preaching prohibition in place of the blood of a suffering Christ on the cross.

Man cannot be saved from his sins by politics or any other temporal measures, but by the sacrifice of an atoning, bleeding Christ. Politics is a very trivial thing for man to resort to to save him from his bad practice. Let every true man come to the ballot box and throw overboard such hypocrisy. We want true men on the Republican ticket—men who know the difference between Democratic prohibition for the saving of man from the blood of a crucified Christ.

We organized a Republican Club at Wilton Academy Wednesday with thirty-two members. We date on one hundred names at this place.

A Letter From Chatham.

Mr. Editors:—I have noticed from recent issues of your paper that the same old tricks are being tried to be worked between Wake and Johnston. In this congressional district in the nomination of a candidate for Congress, a regular you tickle me, Johnston, and I'll tickle you, Wake, as they did in the last district convention in sending delegates to the National Convention: Briggs, of Wake, and Stancel from Johnston, and as for Chatham, Vance, Franklin, etc., they are shown no consideration. But Chatham is going to be heard as well as the other counties in the district or there will be something doing that will cause some regrets. This district has already had some sad experience from Federal officeholders trying to throw down the throats of Republican voters a candidate of their making and dictation, and while we all want unity and harmony, we do not propose to have it at the sacrifice of principle under boss rule in the interest of a few. Johnson and Wake had the delegates to the National Convention, now let some of the other counties be recognized—Chatham, Franklin and Nash from parts of two Senatorial Districts which might possibly help to elect four Senators to the next Legislature, which is more probable than electing a member to Congress, and a good live candidate for Congress, free from the taint of Federal dictation, would very materially help to organize and carry these counties for Senators. Republicans in Chatham won't stand for a candidate who wants to get a Federal seat in his month before he turns loose another he is already sucking, and Chatham has several gentlemen who would make good candidates for Congress who are free from the taint, and most prominent among them is Hon. J. M. Jenkins, a business man and banker at Siler City. I don't know whether Mr. Jenkins wants it or not, or even would have it, but if he will, after the treatment he received at the last district convention, it should be offered to him. He is a clean, upright gentleman and a representative of the business interest of the country and best interest of our party, and I believe he would come nearer, at this time, of defeating Mr. Pou than any man of our party in the district. Now what do you say, Franklin, Nash, and Vance? Let us hear from you.

There is another very important matter, Mr. Editor, that I wish to call the attention of Republicans of this district to, and it is this: Judge Adams, our State chairman, has very properly ordered new conventions to be called in every county in the State to send new delegates to the next State Convention, and the same rule applies and must be done as to the delegates, to the next Congressional Convention of this district and we hope our district chairman, Mr. Stancel will do this so as to prevent further friction in the district, so that no complaints and criticism can be made. These delegates can be named at the same time the delegates to the next State Convention are elected. I hope every county in the district will do it that this is done.

 VOX POPULI.
 Moncure, N. C., July 3, 1908.

Renounces the Democratic Party.

Mr. Editor:—Not having seen anything from this section of the county, I decided to pen a few items on the political situation in this vicinity. Well, the great Prohibition-Democratic Convention is over, Mr. Kitchin nominated for Governor and Mr. Pou for Congress in this district. Now is the time for the Republicans in North Carolina to make a deal in that, if they will nominate a good ticket there is nothing to hinder them from carrying the State by an overwhelming majority. The candidates thus far nominated by the so-called Prohibition Democrats cannot win. If this section of the county is a fair sample of sentiment in North Carolina. The Democrats of North Carolina commenced eight years ago by first eliminating the negro from voting and was going to educate him up to the standard of citizenship, and everybody else. Then they jumped on the railroad to reduce the rates, and did nothing against this line but pass a law against local self-government in North Carolina. This together with numerous other things have called a halt. We who have been supporting the Democratic party in North Carolina in the thought that it constituted democracy have got to the forks of the roads and are ready to yell out, Farewell to ye, Democracy; you contain none of the principles which you claim constitute original democracy, and this sentiment is apparent with a great many men who have been supporting the Democratic party and have severed their connection with the party which they so long supported.

Now in conclusion, let me urge the Republican Convention, now to be held, to nominate their best men, who are opposed to the present prohibition law, and I am certain the Republicans can carry every nook and corner of North Carolina in the coming election.

I am speaking the sentiments, I think, of a great many voters in this section, and I think I am voicing the sentiments of a majority of the voters of North Carolina, and especially this county. Let the common people come together and vote out the "Prohibition" Democracy. We need none of this kind of Democracy in this country; they are weighed in the balance and found wanting, therefore we must set them aside, for this time, with nothing to remember but unfaithfulness, and with contempt for the party which so long has held sway in North Carolina.

Woman in Jail for Poisoning Husband and Two Stepsons.

Danville, Va., July 3.—Mrs. Alexander T. Clark, wife of a farmer residing near Ingram's, this county, is in jail at Chatham, awaiting action by the grand jury on the charge of having made three attempts to poison her husband and two stepsons, both of whom are grown men.

It may not be known that the last Democratic Legislature endeavored to fix it so that Solicitors for the several Judicial Districts should be elected by the whole State, thus adding more political hypocrisy to their professed local self-government advocacy.—Union Republican.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood. It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle Home of Swamp-Root, by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. The fire followed an explosion of fireworks on display in the store.

Young Men's Republican Club Organized at Oxford.

Oxford, N. C., July 2.—The Young Men's Republican Club of Oxford was organized here the night of June 22nd, with fully forty members, not over 10 per cent of whom had formerly voted the Republican ticket. The officers elected are D. A. Moore, president; J. R. Moore, vice-president, and S. L. Wilson, secretary and treasurer. One former Democrat rode horse-back eight or ten miles in the rain in order to be present and participate in the club's initial proceedings, so great was his enthusiasm, which could not be dampened even by the elements, for downing of the Democrats.

So far as I kin see, things air sort-er quiet in pollytiks at the present writin'. But we will let in just in time ter do the votin' an' the shoutin' an' pay the taxes an' sich.
