

BRYAN AND THE CONFEDERATE SOLDIER.

Recently Hon. Thos. E. Watson, charged that Mr. Bryan, when a member of Congress voted against Crisp for speaker and gave as his reason that he was a Confederate soldier. Mr. Bryan indignantly denied the charge.

In a letter to the editor of The People's Paper, of Charlotte, Mr Watson renews his charge against Mr. Bryan, as follows:

"My Dear Mr. Sossaman:

"There is no doubt whatever that Bryan made the remark about his called, but that they failed to get reluctance to vote for an ex-Confedissue. He did vote for Crisp, but that was after the caucus nomination had made it imperative that he should do so.

To this, Mr. Bryan has made no reply, and as Watson says, we don't think he will, because he can't.

North Carolina."

The stray ones coming to the Re publican party this year will be legion. The job they are after is to in the column of the party of progress and prosperity. And this will frighten the Republican patronage machine as much as it will the Democratic organization, both of whom equally fear Republican success in this State.

BRYAN AND THE SOUTHERN VOTE.

Southern Democrats' who have conthe negro problem will have a battle with their conscience if they vote for Bryan and Kern this fall. Bryan is making a play for the negro vote and trying to have them organize Democratic clubs in the North and while Kern, the candidate for Vice President, is standing attorney for the Brewers' trust of Indiana.

A prominent citizen of Raleigh told some friends a few days ago that he thought a new State office should be created. Upon being ask ed what other office was needed he replied that we needed a Public Speaker, so that the other State officials could stay in their offices and attend to the State's business.

And this is a-plenty.

We have just noticed in the News and Observer that it denies that fried chicken was served to the negro delegation that called upon Mr. Bryan at his home some days ago. The Observer says that the negroes erate soldier. We were in High Point a few days ago and while there in conversation with a prominent busines man we were told that many men around that progressive city were going to vote the Republican ticket this year who had never voted it before. The gentleman with whom we were discussing the matter volunteered the statement that he had always voted the Democratic ticket but this year he expected to vote for Taft and against Kitchin. All this goes to show there is a great revolution now going on in victions on the liquor question and the minds of the intelligent business men of this State. To the Republicans of Cumberland County:- I wish to call your attention to the name of Dr. E. D. Snead as a suitable man for the Republicans to put on their county ticket this fail. You remember four years ago when he canvassed the county and how ably he defended the great principles of the Republican party. He has been with us about ten years.
