

The Caucasian AND RALEIGH ENTERPRISE. PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY BY CAUCASIAN PUBLISHING COMPANY. SUBSCRIPTION RATES: ONE YEAR, $1 00; SIX MONTHS, 50c; THREE MONTHS, 25c.

The Bryan campaign fund in Georgia is a goose egg. A Southern Democrat in New York sending out negro literature. Doesn't that jar you? The intelligent negroes cannot be purchased by a spread of fried chicken and "fair promises."

The Democrats are getting very uneasy about Virginia and have been busy trying to mend their fences since Secretary Taft left the State. It has been announced that Senator Simmons will enter the campaign this fall. But it is very doubtful whether he will boost his annihilator, Mr. Kitchin.

Even the Democratic papers made no mention of free liquor at the Republican Convention at Charlotte. What a difference when the Democratic Convention was held there a few weeks before.

There was no fried chicken incident at Hot Springs while Secretary Taft was there, but on the other hand, he was presented with a handsome loving cup from the Virginians as a token of their friendship.

The Democrats claim that the tariff is the paramount issue in this campaign and yet some of the Democratic papers admit that Bryan could not have the tariff revised even if he were elected.

Democratic "white supremacy" has gone into its hole and has pulled its hole in behind it. Bryan in Nebraska, his leaders in Chicago, and Henry Watterson in New York are busy day and night trying to capture the negro vote.

Democratic State Chairman Eller says the Republicans could not have named a better State ticket from a Democratic view point. Are we to judge from his statement that the Democrats really want to see the State go Republican this fall.

The following is from Sunday's issue of the Wilmington Star: "Even if you do not admire Bryan personally you should vote for him unless you want to have the State go for Taft."

It appears that even the Star places North Carolina in the doubtful column this year. Maj. J. T. Gardner, a prominent Democrat in Western North Carolina, is reported to have made the charge that Congressman W. W. Kitchin, now Democratic candidate for Governor, only answered to six roll calls during the last session of Congress. This is a poor recommendation for the Democratic candidate for Governor when the people are demanding a business man who will stay in his office and attend to his duties.

The following is from the Asheville Courier, of August 6th: "While there are many good men who for one reason or another have allied themselves with the Republican party, yet that party has never been able to give good government in any county or State south of the Potomac river. This is a broad assertion but it is the truth so far as we have been able to obtain information. Take our own State for instance and such a saturnalia of crime and corruption was never heard or dreamed of, as existed in the period from 1894 to 1899. No such conditions existed except during the Republican rule immediately following the Civil War."

The editor of the Courier should keep better posted on current history or if he is posted he should not try to fool his readers in any such manner. It is a well known fact that it has taken more money to run our State and County governments under Democratic rule than it did under Republican and Populist. It is a well known fact that crimes in this State have been on the increase since Aycock was inaugurated governor, and practically all of the crimes that were committed just prior to Aycock's election was done by drunken red shirts in the name of Democracy. Our statements can be substantiated by the record of crimes in this State, and the editor of the Courier should post himself before further discussion of the subject.

Get up a club of subscribers for The Caucasian at 20 cents each from now until Nov. 15th.

A WINNING TICKET. We call attention to the report of the proceedings of the Republican State Convention at Charlotte which is published on the first page of this issue. It was a magnificent convention and its work was splendidly done.

The Republican party stands for industrial development and for general progress and prosperity, and Hon. J. Elwood Cox, himself one of the most potent leaders in the up-building and development of the State, is a fitting candidate for Governor to lead such a party to victory. The election of Mr. Cox would mean much to North Carolina's progress. Mr. Cox will appeal to the progressive people of the State as Judge Taft appeals to the progressive forces of the nation. A large number of delegates wanted Hon. Cyrus Thompson nominated for Governor, and he would have made a most brilliant campaign and an able and high-class Governor. But in the interest of harmony a compromise was effected by which he was unanimously nominated for Secretary of State. It is generally admitted, and not denied by any one, that when he held this position under fusion rule that he made the best Secretary of State that ever filled that important office. In short, the whole ticket is of a very high order. It can not be charged that Mr. Cox or any of his colleagues on the ticket have taken these nominations because they are candidates for a federal job. This alone will gain for them thousands of votes. It is a winning ticket and can be elected, and the Caucasian will do its part. Now, altogether for victory!

DEMOCRATS STILL PLAYING FOR NEGRO VOTES. The Associated Press sent out the following dispatch from New York Sunday night: "Henry Watterson, of Kentucky, editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, to-day gave out at the Democratic National headquarters in this city an advance copy of an address which is to be issued by Bishop Alexander Walters, of the African Methodist Episcopal Church to the colored people of the country."

The dispatch further states that the address attacks President Roosevelt and Secretary Taft, and advises the negroes to vote for Bryan. Think of it! An exponent of Southern Democracy in New York busy sending out negro literature appealing to the prejudice of the race in order to get them to vote the Democratic ticket this fall. The negroes have been given to understand that they shall have office and shall be given recognition if they will only vote for Bryan. It would seem that the Northern negroes would see that they are only being used as a cat's-paw to pull the chestnuts out of the fire for Mr. Bryan and his camp followers. The surprising part of it is that the Southern Democrats who have always cursed the negro are now in the North cheek by jowl with the negro, telling him they are his friends and insisting that he vote the Democratic ticket this fall.

BRYAN AND THE TARIFF. The following is from the Wilmington Star: "If the Republicans win they won't reduce the tariff and if the Democrats are successful they can't—with the Senate against them for at least four years. There's your chance of tariff reform as consequence of the next national election."

The Star admits that even if Bryan is elected that the tariff will not be revised. As the tariff is the paramount issue with the Democrats then why shouldn't they vote for Taft who can and will have the proper changes made in the tariff law? Whether you believe the Republicans will raise the tariff to suit you or not isn't it better even from a Democratic standpoint, to vote for Taft and take your chance than it would be to vote for Bryan knowing there was no chance of having the tariff revised, even if he is elected?

A Prophecy. Hickory Mercury. Saul was elected leader or ruler of his people. He soon forgot the law of right. He preserved unto himself some fine pets with which to honor himself. The result was his conscience convicted him. He felt that his leadership would be taken from him, and he became so envious that he tried to kill even his friends and the protectors of his people. He went to war with them. He was defeated and finally committed suicide. Wait for the application.

Democratic Campaign Funds Hard to Raise. Houston Post. Stinginess appears to be somewhat contagious. South Carolina is bounded by North Carolina and Georgia. North Carolina has contributed $5 to the campaign fund and we are yet to hear that Georgia has contributed a cent.

Think of it! The Caucasian from now until Nov. 15th for only 20 cents each subscription if ordered in clubs of five.

REPUBLICAN STATE PLATFORM. Adopted at State Convention at Charlotte August 27.

The following is a copy of the Republican platform adopted at the State Convention at Charlotte August 27th: "We, Republicans of North Carolina, in convention assembled, commend the wisdom of the National Republican Convention, and congratulate the people of the United States on the nomination of William H. Taft for the Presidency of this great Republic, and we endorse the principles and policies of the Republican party as enunciated in its platform at Chicago, June 16, 1908, and we endorse the administration of Theodore Roosevelt.

"We appeal to the people of North Carolina to set the welfare of our State above party and above prejudice; to exercise their freedom to vote according to the dictates of conscience, and to choose those men for public office whom they deem best fitted to serve the public interest. We ask the people to consider whether they will best promote the welfare of the State by committing its affairs to the radical faction now in control of the Democratic party or by voting for the candidates and policies we offer.

"We favor restricting immigration rigidly, admitting none but the better class to our shores, and protecting American labor against foreign cheap labor of Europe and the Orient. "We believe the South should no longer hold itself politically separate and apart from the rest of the country. We believe the time has come when no interest or principle any longer demand such isolation. We ask the people of North Carolina to give us their suffrages, not merely because the Democratic party under its present leadership, both in the State and in the Nation, is unfit for power; not merely because the candidates were here nominate and the policies we recommend, are worthy of acceptance, but because every Republican vote cast in the South is a vote for freedom, a vote for the right of our children to enter fully into the life of the great Republic, which our fathers labored and fought and suffered to establish."

WILL RUN INDEPENDENTLY. Democrats Deprived Him of Nomination by Trickery—Severely Arraigned Democratic Ring in Forsyth. Winston-Salem, Aug. 30.—Capt. R. R. Crawford, a well-known citizen and life-long Democrat, has announced himself as an independent candidate at the forthcoming election for the office of register of deeds and in a circular he charges that trickery deprived him of the nomination two years ago. His accusations against the Democrats in control of the convention are bitter, but they say that Captain Crawford is mistaken and apparently do not fear his independent candidacy. The Republicans generally welcome Capt. Crawford's disaffection from his party and their is talk of their nominating him for the place he seeks at the Republican county convention next Wednesday.

Sulphur Bleach for Fruit Stains. Stained table linen follows the return of the fresh-fruit season as surely "as night follows day." For removing such stains there is nothing more effective than the sulphur bleach. Lay a spoonful of sulphur on a plate, and sprinkle with a few drops of alcohol. Over this place a tin funnel with the point upward. Touch a lighted match to the alcohol; wet the stained linen, and hold the spot over the opening in the point of the funnel. The sulphur fumes will remove the most obstinate stain, seldom requiring more than one application. Rinse and wash the linen at once, to prevent roting the material.—Woman's Home Companion for September.

Not a Matter of Creed. A man addicted to walking in his sleep went to bed all right one night, but when he awoke he found himself on the street in the grasp of a policeman. "Hold on," he cried, "you mustn't arrest me. I'm a somnambulist." To which the policeman replied: "I don't care what your religion is—yer can't walk the streets in yer nightshirt."—Everybody's Magazine.

How the Democrats Are After Office. Pitt County, we judge from a paragraph in the Greenville Reflector, has most as many candidates for nomination to office as it has voters. —Wilmington Star.

"I have used Dr. King's New Life Pills for many years, with increasing satisfaction. They take the kinks out of stomach, liver, and bowels without fuss or friction," says N. H. Brown of Pittsfield, Vt. Guaranteed satisfactory at all Druggists, 25 cents.

Our crosses are hewn from different trees. But we all most have our Calvaries; We may climb the height from a different side. But we each go up to be crucified. As we scale the steep another may share.

The dreadful load that our shoulders bear, But the costliest sorrow is all our own, For on the summit we bleed alone. —Frederick L. Knowles.

Can't you get up a club of campaign subscribers for The Caucasian? The paper is only twenty cents in clubs of five from now until November 15th.

Strew human life with flowers! Save every hour for the sunshine! Exalt your soul! Widen the sympathies of your heart! Make joy real now to those you love!—Richard Jeffries.

The greatest achievement of faith is not what it does for us, but what it does in us.—Rev. J. G. Bechamp.

males convicted of similar offenses. "We pledge ourselves to a liberal appropriation for the care and support of our charitable institutions. "We favor the exemption from taxation of two hundred dollars worth of personal property owned by each householder in the State of North Carolina.

"We believe in the dignity of labor and the elevation of the wage-earner, and pledge our party to the enactment of such laws as will best promote this end; we believe that labor and capital are co-ordinate branches of our industrial life—each necessary to the other—that neither can prosper without the other, and looking to this end we pledge our party to the enactment of such laws as will, so far as possible, create the kindest feeling between labor and capital, remove all causes for conflict between the two, and promote the upbuilding of both classes in North Carolina.

"We favor restricting immigration rigidly, admitting none but the better class to our shores, and protecting American labor against foreign cheap labor of Europe and the Orient. "We believe the South should no longer hold itself politically separate and apart from the rest of the country. We believe the time has come when no interest or principle any longer demand such isolation. We ask the people of North Carolina to give us their suffrages, not merely because the Democratic party under its present leadership, both in the State and in the Nation, is unfit for power; not merely because the candidates were here nominate and the policies we recommend, are worthy of acceptance, but because every Republican vote cast in the South is a vote for freedom, a vote for the right of our children to enter fully into the life of the great Republic, which our fathers labored and fought and suffered to establish."

"We believe in the dignity of labor and the elevation of the wage-earner, and pledge our party to the enactment of such laws as will best promote this end; we believe that labor and capital are co-ordinate branches of our industrial life—each necessary to the other—that neither can prosper without the other, and looking to this end we pledge our party to the enactment of such laws as will, so far as possible, create the kindest feeling between labor and capital, remove all causes for conflict between the two, and promote the upbuilding of both classes in North Carolina.

"We favor restricting immigration rigidly, admitting none but the better class to our shores, and protecting American labor against foreign cheap labor of Europe and the Orient. "We believe the South should no longer hold itself politically separate and apart from the rest of the country. We believe the time has come when no interest or principle any longer demand such isolation. We ask the people of North Carolina to give us their suffrages, not merely because the Democratic party under its present leadership, both in the State and in the Nation, is unfit for power; not merely because the candidates were here nominate and the policies we recommend, are worthy of acceptance, but because every Republican vote cast in the South is a vote for freedom, a vote for the right of our children to enter fully into the life of the great Republic, which our fathers labored and fought and suffered to establish."

"We believe in the dignity of labor and the elevation of the wage-earner, and pledge our party to the enactment of such laws as will best promote this end; we believe that labor and capital are co-ordinate branches of our industrial life—each necessary to the other—that neither can prosper without the other, and looking to this end we pledge our party to the enactment of such laws as will, so far as possible, create the kindest feeling between labor and capital, remove all causes for conflict between the two, and promote the upbuilding of both classes in North Carolina.

"We favor restricting immigration rigidly, admitting none but the better class to our shores, and protecting American labor against foreign cheap labor of Europe and the Orient. "We believe the South should no longer hold itself politically separate and apart from the rest of the country. We believe the time has come when no interest or principle any longer demand such isolation. We ask the people of North Carolina to give us their suffrages, not merely because the Democratic party under its present leadership, both in the State and in the Nation, is unfit for power; not merely because the candidates were here nominate and the policies we recommend, are worthy of acceptance, but because every Republican vote cast in the South is a vote for freedom, a vote for the right of our children to enter fully into the life of the great Republic, which our fathers labored and fought and suffered to establish."

"We believe in the dignity of labor and the elevation of the wage-earner, and pledge our party to the enactment of such laws as will best promote this end; we believe that labor and capital are co-ordinate branches of our industrial life—each necessary to the other—that neither can prosper without the other, and looking to this end we pledge our party to the enactment of such laws as will, so far as possible, create the kindest feeling between labor and capital, remove all causes for conflict between the two, and promote the upbuilding of both classes in North Carolina.

"We favor restricting immigration rigidly, admitting none but the better class to our shores, and protecting American labor against foreign cheap labor of Europe and the Orient. "We believe the South should no longer hold itself politically separate and apart from the rest of the country. We believe the time has come when no interest or principle any longer demand such isolation. We ask the people of North Carolina to give us their suffrages, not merely because the Democratic party under its present leadership, both in the State and in the Nation, is unfit for power; not merely because the candidates were here nominate and the policies we recommend, are worthy of acceptance, but because every Republican vote cast in the South is a vote for freedom, a vote for the right of our children to enter fully into the life of the great Republic, which our fathers labored and fought and suffered to establish."

"We believe in the dignity of labor and the elevation of the wage-earner, and pledge our party to the enactment of such laws as will best promote this end; we believe that labor and capital are co-ordinate branches of our industrial life—each necessary to the other—that neither can prosper without the other, and looking to this end we pledge our party to the enactment of such laws as will, so far as possible, create the kindest feeling between labor and capital, remove all causes for conflict between the two, and promote the upbuilding of both classes in North Carolina.

"We favor restricting immigration rigidly, admitting none but the better class to our shores, and protecting American labor against foreign cheap labor of Europe and the Orient. "We believe the South should no longer hold itself politically separate and apart from the rest of the country. We believe the time has come when no interest or principle any longer demand such isolation. We ask the people of North Carolina to give us their suffrages, not merely because the Democratic party under its present leadership, both in the State and in the Nation, is unfit for power; not merely because the candidates were here nominate and the policies we recommend, are worthy of acceptance, but because every Republican vote cast in the South is a vote for freedom, a vote for the right of our children to enter fully into the life of the great Republic, which our fathers labored and fought and suffered to establish."

"We believe in the dignity of labor and the elevation of the wage-earner, and pledge our party to the enactment of such laws as will best promote this end; we believe that labor and capital are co-ordinate branches of our industrial life—each necessary to the other—that neither can prosper without the other, and looking to this end we pledge our party to the enactment of such laws as will, so far as possible, create the kindest feeling between labor and capital, remove all causes for conflict between the two, and promote the upbuilding of both classes in North Carolina.

"We favor restricting immigration rigidly, admitting none but the better class to our shores, and protecting American labor against foreign cheap labor of Europe and the Orient. "We believe the South should no longer hold itself politically separate and apart from the rest of the country. We believe the time has come when no interest or principle any longer demand such isolation. We ask the people of North Carolina to give us their suffrages, not merely because the Democratic party under its present leadership, both in the State and in the Nation, is unfit for power; not merely because the candidates were here nominate and the policies we recommend, are worthy of acceptance, but because every Republican vote cast in the South is a vote for freedom, a vote for the right of our children to enter fully into the life of the great Republic, which our fathers labored and fought and suffered to establish."

"We believe in the dignity of labor and the elevation of the wage-earner, and pledge our party to the enactment of such laws as will best promote this end; we believe that labor and capital are co-ordinate branches of our industrial life—each necessary to the other—that neither can prosper without the other, and looking to this end we pledge our party to the enactment of such laws as will, so far as possible, create the kindest feeling between labor and capital, remove all causes for conflict between the two, and promote the upbuilding of both classes in North Carolina.

"We favor restricting immigration rigidly, admitting none but the better class to our shores, and protecting American labor against foreign cheap labor of Europe and the Orient. "We believe the South should no longer hold itself politically separate and apart from the rest of the country. We believe the time has come when no interest or principle any longer demand such isolation. We ask the people of North Carolina to give us their suffrages, not merely because the Democratic party under its present leadership, both in the State and in the Nation, is unfit for power; not merely because the candidates were here nominate and the policies we recommend, are worthy of acceptance, but because every Republican vote cast in the South is a vote for freedom, a vote for the right of our children to enter fully into the life of the great Republic, which our fathers labored and fought and suffered to establish."

"We believe in the dignity of labor and the elevation of the wage-earner, and pledge our party to the enactment of such laws as will best promote this end; we believe that labor and capital are co-ordinate branches of our industrial life—each necessary to the other—that neither can prosper without the other, and looking to this end we pledge our party to the enactment of such laws as will, so far as possible, create the kindest feeling between labor and capital, remove all causes for conflict between the two, and promote the upbuilding of both classes in North Carolina.

"We favor restricting immigration rigidly, admitting none but the better class to our shores, and protecting American labor against foreign cheap labor of Europe and the Orient. "We believe the South should no longer hold itself politically separate and apart from the rest of the country. We believe the time has come when no interest or principle any longer demand such isolation. We ask the people of North Carolina to give us their suffrages, not merely because the Democratic party under its present leadership, both in the State and in the Nation, is unfit for power; not merely because the candidates were here nominate and the policies we recommend, are worthy of acceptance, but because every Republican vote cast in the South is a vote for freedom, a vote for the right of our children to enter fully into the life of the great Republic, which our fathers labored and fought and suffered to establish."

"We believe in the dignity of labor and the elevation of the wage-earner, and pledge our party to the enactment of such laws as will best promote this end; we believe that labor and capital are co-ordinate branches of our industrial life—each necessary to the other—that neither can prosper without the other, and looking to this end we pledge our party to the enactment of such laws as will, so far as possible, create the kindest feeling between labor and capital, remove all causes for conflict between the two, and promote the upbuilding of both classes in North Carolina.

"We favor restricting immigration rigidly, admitting none but the better class to our shores, and protecting American labor against foreign cheap labor of Europe and the Orient. "We believe the South should no longer hold itself politically separate and apart from the rest of the country. We believe the time has come when no interest or principle any longer demand such isolation. We ask the people of North Carolina to give us their suffrages, not merely because the Democratic party under its present leadership, both in the State and in the Nation, is unfit for power; not merely because the candidates were here nominate and the policies we recommend, are worthy of acceptance, but because every Republican vote cast in the South is a vote for freedom, a vote for the right of our children to enter fully into the life of the great Republic, which our fathers labored and fought and suffered to establish."

Other Boys Like Me. The boys who live in Africa Have little that is nice. They live in curious cone-shape huts With chickens, pigs, and mice. To sit about palavering. Is their propensity; But when it comes to wanting things, They're very much like me.

In China boys must go to school At early break of day. And study loud and lustily Till daylight fades away. They learn the things the sages wrote In praise of industry; But when it comes to working; then They're very much like me.

The boys wear dresses in Japan. And read the queerest books That have the first page at the end. Filled with strange hooks and crooks. They must at home, and everywhere, Behave with dignity; But when it comes to having fun, They're very much like me.

The Hindu boy believes that he Has lived on earth before. A thousand lives or more. He's fearful he'll be born a pig. A dreadful penalty; But when it comes to being good, I guess he's just like me. —Anna Edith Meyers, in World-Wide.

The Man Who is Always "Just Going To." He meant to insure his house, but it burned before he got around to it. He was just going to pay a note when it went to protest. He was just going to help a neighbor when he died.

He was just going to send some flowers to a sick friend when it proved too late. He was just going to reduce his debt when his creditors "shut down" on him. He was just going to stop drinking and dissipation when his health became wrecked.

He was just going to provide proper protection for his wife and family when his fortune was swept away from him. He was just going to introduce a better system into his business when it went to smash.

He was just going to call on a customer to close a deal when he found his competitor had preceded him and secured the order. He was just going to quit work awhile and take a vacation when nervous prostration came.

He was just going to repair his side-walk when a neighbor fell on it and broke a leg. He was just going to provide his wife with more help when she took to her bed and required a nurse, a doctor and a maid.—Success Magazine.

A Noble Shoe-Black. A gentleman hailed a street shoe-black to get his boots blacked. The lad came rather slowly for one looking for a job, another larger boy ran up and pushed him aside, saying, "Here, you sit down, Jimmy!" The gentleman was indignant at what he deemed a piece of outrageous bullying, and sharply told the newcomer to clear out.

"O, that's all right, sir," was the reply; "I'm only going to do it for him. You see, he's been sick in the hospital for more than a month, and can't do much work yet, so our boys all give him a lift when we can." "Is that so, Jimmy?" the gentleman asked.

"Yes, sir," wearily replied the boy; and as he looked up the pallid, pinched face could be discerned even through the grime that covered it. "He does it for me, if you'll let him." "Certainly; go ahead." And as the shoe-black pried the brush the gentleman piled him with questions. "You say all the boys help him in this way?"

"Yes, sir. When they ain't got no job themselves, and Jimmy gets one they helps him, 'cause he ain't very strong yet, you see." "What part of the money do you give Jimmy, and how much do you keep out of it?" "I don't keep any of the money; I ain't such a sneak as that."

"So you give it all to him, do you?" "Yes, I do. All the boys give what they get on his job. I'd like to catch any fellow sneaking it on a sick boy, I would."

The boots being blackened, the gentleman handed the urchin five pence, saying, "I think you're a pretty good fellow; so keep half and give the rest to Jimmy here." "Can't do it, sir; it's his customer." Here, Jim. He threw him the coin, and was off like a shot after a customer of his own. Without knowing it, he had preached a good sermon from the text, "Let brotherly love continue."—Selected.

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA 1789-1908. Head of the State's Educational System. DEPARTMENTS: Engineering, Law, Pharmacy, Medicine. College, Graduate, Medicine. Library contains 46,000 volumes. New water works, electric lights, central heating system. New dormitories, gymnasium, Y. M. C. A. building, and library. 790 Students. 92 in Faculty. The Fall Term Begins Sept. 7, 1908. Address FRANCIS P. VENABLE, PRESIDENT, Chapel Hill, N. C.

FARM FOR SALE. A fine tobacco farm and good residence, located on public cross road, 65 acres land, large dwelling, stables and buggy house. Nice house located 3 miles from Durham on Durham & Southern road. All buildings new. Apply to DAVID SPENCE, R. F. D. No. 2, Holly Springs.

ISN'T THIS A BARGAIN? If you wish some good reading material at a low price, try the following: THE CAUCASIAN, Monthly, 50c; The Mothers Magazine, Monthly, 50c; Dress Making at Home Magazine, Monthly, 50c. Total subscription value more than $1 50. But our price is just $1 00. Which is less than the cost of the three magazines alone. Address THE CAUCASIAN, Raleigh, N. C.

Second Hand Hall's Safe. For sale at about one-fourth cost. Address, BOX 374, RALEIGH, N. C.

SHEET MUSIC. $1.00 worth for 25c. New York's best song hits, "In the Valley in Dear Old Dixie," in the Golden Summer, Book for 25c postpaid. Follette Music Pub. Co., Dept. M., 105 Hudson Street, New York City.

THE AGRICULTURAL & MECHANICAL COLLEGE FOR THE COLORED RACE. Greensboro, :: North Carolina.

Practical instruction given in Agricultural and Mechanical branches. Excellent facilities for instruction in Electrical Engineering. A new Department under experienced management furnishing excellent training for teachers. Six well established Departments. Successful graduates. Comfortable and spacious buildings. Unsurpassed laboratories. Free tuition to County students. Write today for application blank or for catalog to R. H. HACKLER, President, Greensboro, N. C.

PRESIDENT DUDLEY, Greensboro, N. C. THE NORTH CAROLINA College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts.

Practical education in Agriculture; in Civil, Electrical and Mechanical Engineering; in Cotton Manufacturing, Dyeing and Industrial Chemistry. Tuition $45 a year; Board $10 a month. 120 Scholarships. Examinations for admission at the College on Sept. 2. Address THE PRESIDENT, West Raleigh, N. C.

Durham & Southern Ry. Schedule in Effect April 19, 1908.

Table with columns: SOUTH BOUND, NORTH BOUND, STATIONS, and time slots (A.M., P.M.).

TRINITY COLLEGE. Four Department—Collegiate, Graduate, Engineering and Law. Large library facilities. Well equipped laboratories in all departments of Science. Gymnasium furnished with best apparatus. Expenses very moderate. Aid for worthy students.

Trinity Park School. A First-Class Preparatory School. Certificate of Graduation Accepted for Entrance to Leading Southern Colleges. Best Equipped Preparatory School in the South.

Faculty of ten officers and teachers. Campus of seventy acres. Fine library containing forty thousand volumes. Well equipped gymnasium. High standards set in all departments of instruction. Frequent lectures by prominent lecturers. Expenses exceedingly moderate. Ten years of phenomenal success.

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA — GOOD POSITIONS —

RALEIGH & SOUTHPORT R.Y. Schedule in Effect July 5th, 1908. Table with columns: SOUTH BOUND, NORTH BOUND, STATIONS, and time slots (A.M., P.M.).