WHO SAID "NIGER"?

Considering the play the Democrats have made for the negro vote and what it must have cost them to do it, it would be a pity if they should miss it.—Durham Herald (Democratic).

But that is just why they should miss it. When the Democratic politicians could not land the negro vote, they referred to them as undesirable citizens, chicken thieves, and, on the whole, as a kind of worthless race, and because the majority of them voted the Republican ticket, that party was called the negro party, and some extreme partisans were heard to say that any one who would vote the Republican ticket was "no better than a negro."

Since the negro regiment "shot-up" Brownsville, Texas, a Southern town, and the troops were discharged for their behavior, the Democratic leaders in the North have told the negroes they had not been treated fairly and that the Democratic party would treat them better; that they had not had their share of the offices; that the Democratic party would treat them better and that they cannot afford to vote Republican ticket and therefore they had better vote the Democratic ticket this year.

By the use of fried chicken and rehearsed promises the Democrats have secured the services of some of the negroes to help pull for their party this fall, and Marse Henry Waterson has been busy in New York sending out literature written by negroes trying to capture the negro vote. The Republican party has always treated the negro fair, they have never stopped over on the subject, as some of the Democratic leaders in the North are now doing, but they have always given him a square deal. The regiment that shot up Brownsville were discharged—not because they were negroes, but because they had violated the law which they were sworn to uphold. A white regiment would have been discharged just as quick. The Democratic leaders know that the President did right but they thought they saw a chance to win some votes by telling the negroes they had been mistreated and that the Democratic party would treat them better. Of course the Democratic party is only making a play for the negro vote without caring what becomes of him afterwards—but we can't refrain from asking, who belongs to the negro party now?

BALTIMORE SUN NOT BOUGHT.

Recently the Baltimore Sun, the oldest and greatest newspaper in the State of Maryland, stated that, while it was and had been always a Democrat in politics, it was forced to admit that the election of Taft for President would be for the best interests not only of the whole country but also for the State of Maryland. At once all the cheap partisan Democratic newspapers over the South began to abuse the Baltimore Sun, and some of them (and conspicuous among those of that kind was the Raleigh News and Observer) made the charge that the Sun had been bought by Judge Taft or his national committee.

The Charlotte Observer, though supporting Mr. Bryan refused to join in this slandering trade, but went to work to learn the truth. When it did, it published the following editorial:

"As a means of breaking the force of the Baltimore Sun's support of Judge Taft the charge has been widely circulated that a controlling interest in the paper had been bought by Charles P. Taft, a brother of the candidate. This charge is explicitly denied by its own statement that 'The Sun has not been bought by Mr. Taft nor by any one else, nor has any one any interest in it except those connected with the family of its founder.' It is a subject of regret that this great paper could not see its way clear to support Mr. Bryan in this campaign, but one of great pleasure that it is able to acquit itself so promptly and unequivocally of a damaging accusation. It is not the only paper the policy of which has brought it under the mean suspicion of being prompted by sinister motives. A long established and well-known newspaper should have credit for the character it has made as fully as an individual has, and people should not breathe suspicion upon it whenever it happens that they cannot agree with it."

A special from Canton, N. C., to Monday's Charlotte Observer says: "The Champion Fibre Company has been running its plant at night for some time. It is now lighting up the woods by electricity so that it can work in the balsam and hemlock."

The above doesn't sound like hard times or a panic. Monday's issue of the Observer also stated that one of the leading railroads of the South had cleared more money on last month's business than ever before in the history of the road. And that doesn't sound much like a panic. When the railroads are doing good business it is a sign the country is prospering.

Mr. Bryan is not drawing the crowds this year that he has in previous campaigns. He spoke in Baltimore Monday night and the Baltimore Sun says that the army was not filled. The Sun further states that Mr. Bryan held a reception at the Belvedere and conferred with leading Democrats, several of whom told him plainly that there was little hope of his carrying Maryland.

Before Mr. Kitchin was nominated some of the Democratic papers charged that he was a dangerous man.

If he was dangerous then, isn't he dangerous now?

Next time Bryan runs he will want guaranteed campaign funds.

OPINIONS IN A NUTSHELL.

All farmers who are getting more for their Irish potatoes than they want, should vote for Bryan, he will take off the tariff of eighty cents on the barrel, so as to let the Northern people get them cheap. It seems that Bryan would destroy every industry in the South to help the people of the North and West, and then expect the Southern people to vote for him. Rats.—Clinton News Dispatch.

Governor Glenn and Joe Daniels gave $100 each and J. S. Carr $200 for the Bryan campaign fund. In all raised in Raleigh is $1,000. The News and Observer will get, doubtless, $5,000 out of that.—Hickory Mercury.

The pennies falling into Mr. Bryan's tin-cup are not making noise enough to make him either smile or whistle.—Baltimore Sun.

More money for schools and better pay to teachers, is what the Republicans have declared for. How do you like it.—Hickory Mercury.

"Let us have the worst," says the Brooklyn Eagle. That sounds like, though it isn't, a declaration for Bryan.—New York Tribune.

It's said protective tariff is the mother of truths. England is a free-trade country, and she has trusts. So something else must be their daddy at least.—Times Mercury.

You cannot expect Democrats to make any change in school taxes, more money for teachers and cheaper books, because they point with pride at their past legislation on these lines.—Hickory Mercury.

Prominent Democrat of Sampson Joins Republican Party.

Newton Grove, N. C., Aug. 31, '98.

Dear Sir:—I desire to make known to your paper that I have severed my connection with the Democratic party and in the future I intend to affiliate with the Republican party because I believe the Republican party is in favor of local self-government, and I believe it to be the party of progress and the party of accomplishment. While the Democratic party claims to be in favor of local self-government, their actions prove that it is not. This was demonstrated in our county by the appointment of four County Commissioners after three of them had been defeated by a majority of the popular vote at the polls.

The Board of Education is also appointed by the Legislature, which I think should be elected by the people.

I believe a Democratic of Republican form of government is the best form of government that has ever been devised for the government of mankind—I mean a government in which the people are the great common people—the rulers; and I believe that the Republican party favors a government by the people.

For these reasons, and others I might give, I bid good-bye to the so-called Democratic party and cast my lot with the Republican party.

Yours truly,
ARTHUR LEE.

REPUBLICAN STATE PLATFORM.

Adopted at State Convention at Charlotte August 27.

The following is a copy of the Republican platform adopted at the State Convention at Charlotte August 27th: "We, Republicans of North Carolina, in convention assembled, commend the wisdom of the National Republican Convention, and congratulate the people of the United States on the nomination of William H. Taft for the Presidency of this great Republic, and we endorse the principles and policies of the Republican party as enunciated in its platform at Chicago, June 16, 1898, and we endorse the administration of Theodore Roosevelt.

"We appeal to the people of North Carolina to set the welfare of our State above party and above prejudice; to exercise their freedom to vote according to the dictates of conscience, and to choose those men for public office whom they deem best fitted to serve the public interest. We ask the people to consider whether they will best promote the welfare of the State by committing its affairs to the radical faction now in control of the Democratic party or by voting for the candidates and policies we offer.

"We ask all thoughtful North Carolinians to consider particularly whether the present Democratic Governor and Legislature have dealt wisely or justly with all classes of our citizens in the laws they have recently passed concerning railroads and the violent measures they have recently passed concerning railroads and the violent measures they have taken to give these laws effect. We believe in regulating railroads and other public carriers strictly and carefully and in compelling all corporations to obey the law as faithfully as the humblest private citizen. But we do not believe that Legislatures are competent to fix absolutely the precise rates at which passengers and freight shall be carried. We are sure that the Legislature of this State, which attempted to fix passenger rates absolutely and neglected freight rates—much the more substantial grievance of our people—had neither the right spirit for such an undertaking.

"They disregarded the Constitution of the United States, and they threw thousands of North Carolinians out of employment. "We denounce in unmeasured terms the unwarranted and uncalled for attack of the Democrats on capital, culminating in the fight on our railroads involving the State as it did in costly litigation; paralyzed business, threw thousands of laborers out of employment, drove millions of capital from the State, and sent railroad securities down to less than half their value.

"We pledge ourselves, if the people entrust us with power, to set ourselves against two kinds of injustice: The injustice which permits wealthy corporations and individuals to prey upon the poor, and the injustice which sacrifices property and deranges business in order that cheap demagogues may get to keep office.

"We favor the policy of the State furnishing free of charge and under proper regulations to every child in the public schools all necessary textbooks; the further improvement and extension, at whatever cost, of the public school system, embodied in the Constitution of North Carolina by the Republican party. We favor the education of all our children up to the very limit of our available means.

"We also favor a liberal policy with our higher institutions of learning. The South needs highly trained men, and we would have the necessary training provided here, so far as we have the means, and put within the reach of our young men of talent and industry, to the end that Southerners may guide our people in the development of our resources in government, in business, in the beautifying of our towns, our cities and our homes and in the elevation of our daily life.

"This is also true of our institutions of charity, particularly the provision made for the blind, the deaf and the insane, for the efficiency with which any community ministers to such unfortunate beings is a measure of its civilization. It is equally true of our Confederate veterans who have not the means of self-support; the State loves and honors them, and they must not be permitted to suffer want. We denounce the Democratic party for not keeping its repeated pledges to provide our Confederate soldiers and their widows with suitable pensions commensurate with their services to the State, and we believe that whenever practicable they should be given the preference in matters of employment and all things being equal, they should be honored with the emoluments of office.

"We demand a fair election law, which will permit an elector to cast a ballot privately, without interference or dictation.

"We favor, as we have ever favored, local self-government; and demand the right to elect by the people all members of the County Board of Education, County Superintendent of Public Instruction, County Commissioners, Tax Collectors, and Justices of the Peace.

"We favor an extension and improvement of the public roads of the State, and believe that the employment of the State's convicts on such work is the best use that can be made of criminals convicted of crimes; we further favor a law prohibiting the use of striped uniforms upon all persons convicted of misdemeanors in the courts of North Carolina.

"We favor the establishment of one or two reformatories for the correction of youthful criminals convicted of minor offenses, and we favor a separate reformatory for females convicted of similar offenses.

"We pledge ourselves to a liberal appropriation for the care and support of our charitable institutions. "We favor the exemption from taxation of two hundred dollars worth of personal property owned by each household in the State of North Carolina. "We believe in the dignity of labor and the elevation of the wage-earner, and pledge our party to the enactment of such laws as will best promote this end; we believe that labor and capital are co-ordinate branches of our industrial life—each necessary to the other—that neither can prosper without the other, and looking to the enactment of such laws as will, so far as possible, create the kindest feeling between labor and capital, remove all causes for conflict between the two, and promote the upbuilding of both classes in North Carolina. "We favor restricting immigration rigidly, admitting none but the better class to our shores, and protecting American labor against foreign cheap labor of Europe and the Orient. "We believe the South should no longer hold itself politically separate and apart from the rest of the country. We believe the time has come when no interest or principle any longer demand such isolation. We ask the people of North Carolina to give us their suffrages, not merely because the Democratic party under its present leadership, both in the State and in the Nation, is unfit for power; not merely because the candidates were here nominated and the policies we recommend, are worthy of acceptance, but because every Republican vote cast in the South is a vote for freedom, a vote for the right of our children to enter fully into the life of the great Republic, which our fathers labored and fought and suffered to establish."

WHY KITCHEN SHOULD NOT BE ELECTED.

"With Him it is Rule or Ruin. If He Rules, He Will Rule." [Editorial in Lexington Dispatch (Democratic) June 10, 1908.] "The Dispatch has opposed Mr. Kitchin, believing, and still believing, that his nomination means disruption in the Democratic party and injury to the Commonwealth. In the midst of a campaign reeking with slander, falsehood, hypocrisy and blood-curdling charges that great monsters are about to eat him alive, with a dozen years of absolute emptiness behind him in Congress, this slipshod demagogue turns upon a newspaper that punctured his gas bag with facts, and like the ASS HE IS, brays: 'You are a liar.' In the absence of other counter-arguments, he will appeal to the prejudices, to the passions, to Prohibitionist and to anti-Prohibitionist with equal ease; will array class against class, labor against capital, man against man, Democrat against Democrat, until North Carolina will sink in the esteem of other States to a level she has never sounded before under Democratic rule. With him it is rule or ruin. If he rules, he will rule."

A Paying Investment. Mr. John White, of 38 Highland Ave., Houlton, Maine, says: "I have been troubled with a cough every winter and spring. Last winter I tried many advertised remedies, but the cough continued until I bought a 50c. bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery; before that was half gone, the cough was all gone. This winter the same happy result followed; a few doses once more banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough and lung remedies." Sold under guarantee at all Druggists. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Same Effect. Little Bert's mother sent him to bring a small switch with which to chastise his small sister who had been naughty. After being gone a long time, he came in with his hands full of clods of dirt. "I can't find any switch," he said, "there, throw these at her."—October delineator.

Another Recruit. Dear Sirs:—Please allow me just a small space in your most valuable paper to say I have withdrawn from the Democratic party for one big reason: because I want a government of the people; for the people and by the people; and I endorse the nominees that were nominated at the convention at Charlotte, N. C., last week, and I am going to do all in my power to get all I can to vote the Republican ticket this coming November. I am going to get a club to your paper just as soon as I can. With best wishes to you in your good work; I beg to remain, Yours truly, JOHN H. STEGALL, Warren Plains, N. C., R. F. D. No. 1, September 7, 1908.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood. It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs. The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected, and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty. If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone. If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle sent by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.
