The beef trust is buying cattle here. Wake County. On Saturday one hundred and fifteen head were purchased here by a representative of the trust and were at once shipped North to be butchered and placed in cold storage.

Wants the Rank and File to Have Voice in Party Affairs.

Editor of Caucasian:—I notice in your last week's issue an article signed "Republican," against the political activity of Federal office-holders, in which I heartily concur, and I say this not because I dislike or have anything against Federal office-holders, because I haven't, for many of them, in fact all of them I know, are my friends, I reckon, and are good fellows, but I think it would be better for the party in Wake County if they wouldn't have so much to do with running conventions and delegates, so as to keep the Democrats and their newspapers saying so much about it and hurting our party with the independent voter as they have done in the past.

Let the rank and file have some chance to see what they can do. Let them feel like they can have some part and lot in doing things. It will encourage them, too, to feel the responsibility to do something, and may be they will get out and bring a lot of new voters into the party, and we will carry Wake County next time. There is a powerful good chance to do it this time if what the country people say is true, and lots of town folks too. Stand back, Federal office-holders, this time and give the fellows in the trenches a chance to do something, and encourage them all you can, and let's see what they will do.

OLD SOLDIER REPUBLICAN.

Raleigh, N. C.

Must Create Some Offices for Democratic Pets.

Mr. Editor:—I see that Joe-see-for-us seems to think that North Carolina is going solidly Democratic. What good news to him! yet you must remember he was not exactly under oath. He refers to the appointment of "yellow dogs" to Federal jobs. I guess the hit dog is now howling. How sadly disappointed, to think the Democrats are left out in the cold. They have given all their men some kind of reward except a few in the corners of the woods. When the anti-tuberculosis hospital is erected, that will give a few more. Then next I guess we will have an Anti-grasshopper Association, head by some good Democrat.

And after they are all exterminated I guess it will be like Anti-saloon league. Bar-rooms all gone in North Carolina. No more liquor is sold, and yet Joe-see-for-us gives space to a long letter from the Mr. Davis in regard to progress being made in North Carolina. That's right, keep up the fight, and may be some day the sale of liquor will be out down some in your prohibition towns. Will some of our little Willies and Joe-see-for-us give us a report on our good roads, and the cost of maintaining them, I guess the "high cost of living" is why it requires so much taxes to do so small an amount of work. And the Democratic Babbler says the G. O. P. is responsible for that. Good. So now let every man who wants cheap living and low prices of farm products please stand up and remain until they are counted. I can remember when the hind quarter of a fat ox would not bring as much per pound as a Harnett County bull will bring now on the Raleigh market.

Farms are now for rent and sale to all who are tired of city life is extended an invitation to come out and pull the bell cord over a Kentucky mule for one summer and then "take a look at the books" of "high cost of living."

Respectfully, A BOY WHO FOLLOWS THE PLOW

Betterment Association Gives Entertainment at Reedy Creek.

Reedy Creek School-house, February 20, 1910.

Editor Caucasian:—An entertainment was given at Reedy Creek school-house last Saturday night by the Woman's Betterment Association and the Farmers' Union. The girls sold well. The first to speak was Mr. T. Ivey, who delivered a speech in behalf of the Farmers' Union, which was the ideal thing for all farmers, followed by Miss Royster, who made an excellent speech in behalf of the Woman's Betterment Association, followed by Prof. Judd, who also made a very fine speech in behalf of both Union and Association.

The prizes that the girls had sold very well, with the rest of the things sold. Miss Lima Matthews received the prize as being the most popular young lady, which was a very fine basket of fruit. Mr. J. C. Marcom received a nice basket of fruit as being the one to purchase the lucky number.

The entertainment was a very nice one, and was carried out to perfection. Prof. Z. V. Bobbitt was present, and being requested by the teacher, added much to the enjoyment of the occasion by giving some of his best recitations.

[The above communication was intended for last week's issue but was not received until after the paper was printed.—Local Editor.]

"LETTERS FROM HELL."

Legislative appointee magistrates in certain counties of our State! These are named by lynx-eyed lawyer-politicians at the suggestion of the landlord class.

Is not this local self-government with a vengeance!

It was for local self-government that the standard of revolt was raised against King George the 3rd.

We asked not for independence, but only for local self-government. Will not the people from Murphy to Manteo rise up again, and demand this much from commercial politicians, exploiting the taxes of the people, and from avaricious landlords with their appointee magistrates?

I will give you a case in point.

A young man from a near-by county coming among us, rents a farm in the course of the year he forms a friendship for a rosy-cheeked, black-eyed, daughter of a landlord in one of the legislative appointee counties.

This friendship ripens into a much stronger passion, and they were soon inseparable companions at all public functions. The old landlord was incoerable. At last the brave lover, in open daylight drives to the door of her father's home, and in plain view of the old gentleman, takes his daughter with him to receive a life sentence from the clergyman. After a time the father sends for this brave knight and says to him no need of your going off to rent land. I have a place near my home, naming the rent to be paid, you can have as long as you may want it, at the sum named, the rent to be paid promptly when due. The offer was gladly accepted and the next year he moves in.

Working from Monday morning until Saturday night, every day in the week and every hour in the day, he makes good on a crop of cotton, corn and other crops, such as had never been seen there before or since. Was it not love prompted that strong arm to labor for that loved one who had given herself up into his keeping, against the wishes of her father, whom she had been taught always to obey.

The old landlord had kept far away while the fight was on making and saving the crop. When the cotton had been baled he sends for the tenant and says to him he would like to ship his cotton with his own if it would be agreeable to him. Thinking to please his wife and win over the father, he agrees to this arrangement. Busy with his work he waits and then goes to the old gentleman and asks for a receipt for his rent, and for the balance due him. He was told he must pay double the rent he agreed to pay him for the present year, and for all the years to come. That he had never thought such crops could be grown on that farm as he had grown there this year. And he could never rent for that price again, or settle at less than double what he agreed to pay for the present year.

He waits for the close of the year and again goes for a rent receipt and the amount due him, and is told that when the cotton reached Norfolk it was seized for a debt on land bought by him and that he had nothing to pay him with. He goes sadly away, and rents land from a merchant who had kindly assisted him to make and house his crops, and agrees to pay him the back debt, and secures him on that, and the new one to be made to help him again if he should need it.

As love lightens labor he goes bravely on, raising crops for other landlords fully assured that no relief can come to him from legislative appointee justices, as they are the King's justices for the six year and not the justices of the people.

A SOLDIER.

BIG FIRE AT GREENVILLE.

County Court-House and Masonic Temple Among Buildings Destroyed—Loss Moore Than $150,000.

Greenville, N. C., Feb. 24.—A fire which originated from a cause unknown in the roof of a frame building on the block between the court-house and the Hotel Macon, about 1 o'clock this morning, practically destroyed two blocks of buildings.

The fire department and citizens battled heroically against great odds for more than two hours before getting the fire under control.

Within this time the court-house, jail, Masonic Temple, two livery stables, five dwellings, one two-story office building, one buggy factory, several small stores and office buildings were burned, entailing a loss of more than one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, including damaged stock.

A HOMICIDE AT CLINTON.

Policeman Kills White Man While Trying to Suppress a Riot.

Clinton, N. C., Feb. 28.—As a result of a fight here in a back lot Saturday afternoon, which assumed the proportions of a riot and which the mayor and police were called out to quell, George Jones, a white man of Upper Sampson, is dead, being shot by a policeman, death resulting immediately.

It seems that several men had gotten hold of some blind tiger whiskey, were imbibing rather freely, and got into a fight. When the policeman came to make the arrests the fight was still going on. Some of the men in it and whom the police were starting to arrest, were kinsmen of the deceased, and he came in and was trying to prevent the officers from arresting the men, or was one of the participants of the fight himself, and in the melee Policeman J. K. Tew was knocked down.

He arose and the deceased advanced on him with a large club, when Tew shot him, killing him.

GRANT WILL BE RE-NOMINATED.

Republican Congressional Committee of Tenth Will Hold Convention April 2nd.

Asheville, Feb. 26.—At a meeting of the Republican Executive Committee of the tenth Congressional District here to-day, with a full attendance of delegates, it was decided to hold the convention for the nomination of a candidate for Congress on Saturday, April 2nd. A call was issued to all the counties of the district to hold conventions and appoint delegates at least by the middle of March.

It was said to-day that the renomination of Congressman John G. Grant will be made unanimous, as there has not been another active candidate spoken of.

The members of the committee are of the opinion that the outlook for carrying the district is very bright. Congressman Grant has written Logan that at the convention he will have at least two speakers of national reputation.

Two Durham Negroes Killed While Operating a Wood Saw.

Durham, Feb. 26.—At C. G. Hare's woodyard in Hayti, a suburban colored settlement, late this evening, Haywood Cozart and Alexander, both colored, were instantly killed while operating the saw.

The men were running the machinery and supplying the wood. Cozart, known as the best sawyer in Durham, pushed the wood too hard and it stalled the revolving instrument. It operates by electricity and the force tore the shafting out. A piece of it struck Lyon across the head and killed him instantly. The broken saw flew to pieces and one of the teeth struck Cozart going almost through his head, though he lived a few minutes. The heads of both were fearfully torn.

Young Atkins Hopson had his clothes torn almost from him, but received small injuries only. Bruises that merely frightened him were inflicted, though he could give but an unintelligent account of the accident.

Mother Shoots Son With "Unloaded" Rifle.

Rocky Mount, N. C., March 2.—When the mother, Mrs. H. T. Bolt, picked up a twenty-two flobert rifle yesterday afternoon and pointing it at her sixteen-months-old son, said, "I believe I'll shoot you," it was with the usual belief that the gun was not loaded, that caused her to pull the trigger. However, the gun was loaded and it fired, the ball striking the little fellow in the left eye, inflicting a wound that necessitated the removal of the eye this morning.

A Discredit to the Penitentiary Authorities.

Charlotte Chronicle.]

The escape of Solomon Shepard, the crazy negro who was sentenced to thirty years in prison for the murder of Engineer Holt, was about the most discreditible thing to the management of the penitentiary authorities that has yet occurred.

Three days after entering upon his term he got away and at last accounts was at large and, of course, was ready to murder on the slightest provocation, or on no provocation at all.

Wilson Man Assaults Eleven-Year-Old Girl.

Wilson, N. C., Feb. 28.—This morning while Mrs. Ransom Lewis was preparing breakfast, John Hayes, a white man, committed criminal assault on his (Ransom's) eleven-year-old daughter. A warrant was sworn out by the father for the arrest of Hayes. He has skipped out and it is thought gone in the direction of Raleigh.

Not Enforcing the Law.

Burlington State Dispatch.]

It is learned upon reliable authority that a load of blockade whiskey was disposed of in this city last Saturday night, right in the heart of the city, and there was no one to harm or molest. If this is enforcing the law, then deliver us, if you please.

Democratic Patriots.

Shelby Aurora.]

Only eleven Democratic patriots have so far announced their candidacy for county office in Cleveland, but the number is increasing weekly. Of course, there are many more who are expecting to serve the "dear people."

Only Republicans Prosecute Trusts.

Union Republican.]

The Democratic papers, in many instances, would have the people believe that Republicans favor trusts and corporations, when the truth is, the Republican party is the only party that ever prosecuted a trust or corporation for wrong-doing.

Don't Break Down.

Severe strains on the vital organs, like strains on machinery, cause break-downs. You can't over-tax stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels or nerves without serious danger to yourself. If you are weak or run-down, or under strain of any kind, take Electric Bitters the matchless tonic medicine. Mrs. J. E. Van de Sande, of Kirkland, Ill., writes: "That I did not break down, while enduring a most severe strain, for three months, is due wholly to Electric Bitters." Use them and enjoy health and strength. Satisfaction positively guaranteed. 50c. at all druggists.

Mrs. F. S. Mills, Murietta, Calif., tried Cardui and writes: "I don't think anyone can recommend a medicine more highly than I can Cardui. I had a mishap, followed by inflammation. I positively believe I would have died, had it not been for Cardui. When I began taking it, I could not stand on my feet. After taking two bottles, I was cured, and I now weigh 165 pounds." Try Cardui—it will help you. Sold everywhere. E-43

Sudden Death of G. B. Anderson.

New York, March 2.—George B. Anderson, United States Consul at Martinique, died this afternoon on a West Shore train, between Kingston and Weehawken. Rheumatism of the heart was the probable cause of his death.

Mr. Anderson was a native of Raleigh.

Mr. W. H. Neal, Jr., Meets Accidental Death.

Laurinburg, S. C., Feb. 28.—The town of Laurinburg was thrown into excitement this evening shortly before 7 o'clock, when it was learned that Mr. W. H. Neal, Jr., a son of the division counsel for the Seaboard Air Line, had accidentally shot and killed himself while returning from a hunting trip.

Would Double Virginia Liquor Tax.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 28.—What is known as the Byrd liquor bill passed the House of Delegates to-day. It does not make any radical change from the existing law, its chief features being an increase of about 100 per cent in the license tax and the exclusion of "near beer."

Had to Get Out of Lock-Up to Look After His Sunday School.

Marshallville Our Home.]

The drink habit gives vent to funny as well as ridiculous statements sometimes. A man went to a neighboring town one Saturday a few weeks ago, got drunk and was placed in the "lock-up." Sunday morning he awoke and on finding himself in a sober condition, sent for a friend to come and get him out. But the friend didn't seem to be much inclined toward advancing any money on the matter, and the man who had only the day before felt himself so rich, but now realized that he was in a helpless condition, appealed to him like this: "I've just got to get out of this thing. I'm superintendent of our Sunday-school down home, and I've got to be there this evening."

Would Have Stolen Man's Wife, Too.

Yellow Jacket.]

A negro preacher in Eastern North Carolina stole a hen and her brood of twenty-seven chickens from a neighbor; then, not satisfied with that, he went to the graveyard and stole a spade and shovel that were left at the newly-made grave of the same man's wife. A Democratic paper says he must have been a Republican. Perhaps so. If he had been a Democrat, he would have stolen the man's wife, too.
