250 Good Stories. The Youth's Companion abounds in stirring stories of adventure and heroism. One may describe an escape from accidental peril, another a strange encounter with wild creatures—man or beast.

Many of these stories are true as to facts, and only disguise as to names and places. A score or more of such stories will be published during 1910 in addition to nearly 200 others—250 good stories in all and no two alike. And this is not counting the serial stories, which it is believed will be considered by old Companion readers as the best The Companion has ever published.

Every new subscriber will find it of special advantage to send at once the $1.75 for the new 1910 Volume.
