The Raleigh aldermen have appropriated $50 for their expenses.

The exploits of a traveling hypnotist, in having a man sleep fifty hours in a store window in Raleigh, and a young woman, alleged to be hypnotized, play for twelve hours on a piano, caused much unfavorable comment, and high State officials suggested the necessity of laws to prevent such seemingly cruel exhibitions.

Governor Kitchin last week commuted the sentence of five months in jail of Baxter Shemwell, a wealthy Lexington man, convicted of threats to kill, to five days in jail and a $500 fine.

Shemwell was a passenger on a through Southern Railway train. The train not being scheduled to stop at Lexington, the conductor refused until Shemwell, at the point of two pistols, forced him.

Shemwell was previously tried for murder and has the reputation of being a desperate man. He had fought the case through all the courts and Governor Kitchin has once postponed sentence.

The condition of Shemwell's health is given as the reason, but it is suggested that political pressure was brought to bear.

A Novel Sentence.

Last week a sixteen-year-old white boy, charged with theft, received a sentence at the hands of Judge Allen which is said to be unique in this State. He was not the sort of boy to be sent to the reformatory, as he is incorrigible, it seems, and besides the reformatory is full, so his sentence was to the County Home for one year, and then if his conduct had been good he will go on probation and report to the courts for five years, the purpose being to keep him in the line of good conduct.

Weldon, N. C., April 1.—The trial of E. E. Powell, in Halifax Superior Court, charged with the killing of C. W. Dunn, came to an abrupt end this afternoon, when Judge Ward announced that he would remove the case to Warren County. In so ruling, Judge Ward said: "I, in no sense reflect on the citizenship of Halifax County. When I went into this case, I did not think it necessary to move it, but after examination of 150 jurors, I am now convinced it should be taken to another county. There seems to be a fixedness of mind on the part of the men examined here as to the guilt of the prisoner, and the majority of them declare on oath that they could not give the defendant a fair trial. This feeling appears to be natural, and I might so feel myself under similar circumstances." The next term of Warren County Court will be held June 30th.
