with the most important national significance, is the Tennessee situation. The present condition of affairs primarially originated with the prohibition question. Patterson, the Gov ernor, was an "anti," but his followers did not control the Legislature. Rather than see measures which the Governor had vetoed passed over it, they fled the State, thus blocking legislation. Carmack, the leader of the prohibition forces, defeated successively for the Senate and for the Governorship, became involved with Colonel Duncan Cooper a leader of the Patterson forces, and was shot and killed by him. Cooper was tried, convicted, and his sen tenced of thirty years sustained by the Supreme Court. While the court was rendering its decision, Patterson was writing a pardon for Cooper This widened the breach. Indignation at Patterson's action and the wing of the Democratic party that he represents. Simmons was placed on the committee to investigate the high cost of living, but before the investigation was fairly underway, lo, and behold! Simmons resigned from the commit- holders, that they control the co ple of Mecklenburg, we will take all of the campaign thunder away from the Democrats.

The Democratis papers and their campaign speakers have charged for a number of years, whether true or not, that the Republican party is composed of a lot of Federal office-
