A CORRECTION.

In giving the forecast of the vote for State Chairman by districts, which appears on the front page of this issue, there is an error. The vote should be—

First District with 189 votes, will elect Morehead 168.

South District with 67 votes, will elect Morehead 47.

The error was a typographical one and was not discovered until the first forms had been run off.

Henry H. Yarborough, who was raised here but who has for many years been a resident of Texas, died at the residence of his mother last Saturday last.

Another important building enterprise just started is a $20,000 building at Shaw University, to be used by the Leonard Hospital. There is also another $7,000 building for Shaw University for which the building permit has just been issued.

The Governor's office has received a report for information as to whether there is a reward offered for the killing of an officer by the name of Miller, over the stealing of a horse. The Governor's office has no record of any reward offered, or the killing of an officer named Miller.

Miss Katie Barelay, an aged and venerated lady of this city celebrated her ninetieth anniversary at the residence of her nephew, Mr. E. B. Barrow, last Saturday. She is still active and possessed of all her faculties. A large number of friends called and paid their respects. Miss Barelay is a native of Chatham.

Charles Johnson, colored, better known as "Mysterious Tom," was given a preliminary hearing before United States Commissioner John Nichols on the charge of selling liquor without government license. Upon being adjudged guilty, he was placed under bond in the sum of $100, but he could not raise the required amount, so he was lodged in the county jail.

Four New Residences.

Permits have been issued for the erection of four new and handsome residences, to be located in various parts of the city.

On north Blount street, between Jones and Lane streets, the residence of Mr. W. B. Barrow is already in course of construction. It will have cost, when completed, $7,000 and will be one of the handsomest residences in the city.

Mr. LeRoy Thiem is to have erected on Boylan Heights a six-room dwelling, which will cost $2,750 when completed.

Work on the eight-room, two-story dwelling, to be erected on North Person street at a cost of $5,000, will begin within a few days. The location of this new residence, which will belong to Miss Dixie Leach, is between Lane street and Oakwood avenue.

Mr. J. P. Hayes will have erected in Glenwood a seven-room, two-story dwelling, at a cost of $3,500.

County Commissioners Meec.

The Board of County Commissioners met in Raleigh Monday for the transaction of monthly business. It was ordered by them that the sum of $7,000 be borrowed to meet current expenses. W. E. Stinson, the recently appointed supervisor of roads, presented his bond of $2,000, which was accepted. It was ordered that the road supervisors in the several townships be ordered to have the roads repaired at once, according to the road law.

HON. THOS SETTLE TO SPEAK.

This Distinguished Orator and Favorite of Wake County Republicans Will Speak at the Court-House Saturday—A Large Attendance Expected.

Chairman W. T. Barrow, of the Republican Executive Committee of Wake County, has issued a notice to the effect that Hon. Thomas Settle will address the voters of this county at the court-house in Raleigh on Saturday, August 6th, at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Settle needs no introduction to the voters of any county in North Carolina, particularly of Wake and that he will be greeted by a large crowd goes without saying.

The convention is called to meet at 12 noon, so the delegates and the voters generally will be able to hear him before the assembling of that body.

WAKE REPUBLICAN PRIMARY

Held Last Saturday and Morehead Supporters Win Over Federal Officeholders—Hard Fight on Lester F. Butler.

The Wake County Republican primaries were held last Saturday at 3 o'clock in the afternoon in the county and 8 o'clock that night in the city precincts. They were orderly and well attended, the voters showing special interest in the election of delegates friendly to the election of Hon. John M. Morehead as State Chairman. From the returns, enough delegates have been elected to control the convention in his favor, and it is the opinion of those best acquainted with the facts that a solid Morehead delegation will be sent to Greensboro and assure the election of Lester F. Butler, as county chairman, both actions meaning a winning fight this fall.

The Federal office-holders, captained by Postmaster Briggs and Deputy Collector J. P. H. Adams ("Buck") did all in their power, but they were overthrown by the independent voters who refuse to yield to Federal office-holder domination. The vote was heavily for Mr. Morehead.

One of the hardest fought points, that is, on the part of the office-holders, was the ward wherein resides Mr. Lester F. Butler. The postmaster, though living in another ward, came out with his aids and made speeches. At least one well-known Democrat was present at the primary, working hard against Mr. Butler. There was evidence of plenty of liquor in hand, but be it said to the credit of the Republican voters of the Outside-East-North Ward, such work was repudiated and Mr. Butler and his friends were easily elected.

The following is a list of the delegates elected that are obtainable:

First Division, First Ward—W. G. Briggs and Gregory Cannon. Alternates—C. D. Wildes and I. H. Busbee.

Second Division, First Ward—J. Q. Williams, J. C. Davis, C. R. Williams, J. D. Causey. Alternates—Emmett Stone, Ralph Hamilton, W. H. J. Goodwin, Jonas Hearn.

First Division, Second Ward—Claude Bernard and L. D. Spears. Alternates—Jas. I. Moore.

Second Division, Second Ward—Louis Bashford. Alternates—Edward Scarborough.

First Divion, Third Ward—Luther White, C. H. Beine and J. J. Wiggins. Second Division, Third Ward—W. D. Upchurch, J. C. King, D. W. Bond, Tobias Bryant.

First Division, Fourth Ward—J. C. L. Harris and W. D. Neal. Second Division, Fourth Ward—L. H. Pool, D. Fann, and Hayward Jones.

Outside East, North—H. B. Gresson, Lester F. Butler, J. J. Phillips, George Glenn, J. M. Cox, S. C. Boykin, and J. J. Wilson.

Outside East, South—B. F. Morrison and A. D. Springer.

Outside West, North—J. W. Harden, O. H. Glenn, and P. S. Wiggins.

Outside West, South—J. Q. Watkins, W. D. Terry, and W. O. O'Neill.

Holly Springs—C. H. Collins, Thos. Council, M. C. Sorrell, Charles Spence, S. J. Weathers. Alternates—D. H. Fuquay and J. R. Wood.

Mark's Creek—John Pierce, Mann Price, W. H. Hester, Wayland Todd, and D. H. House.

St. Matthews—A. Honeycutt, I. H. Mimms, and Charles Holt.

Wake Forest (Wake Forest)—J. S. Cole, H. T. Johns and G. H. Gresson. Alternates—A. G. Lowry, J. W. Lloyd, and Dan B. Furr.

Cary—R. C. Harrison, A. J. Templeton, and J. W. Warren.

Middle Creek—G. C. Gunter, J. P. Bridgers, S. M. Rowland, W. B. Pollard, R. V. Hawkes, Z. J. Sugas, Alternates—C. W. Sugas, C. E. McNamara, L. J. Wood, A. B. Olive, J. D. Partin, and O. M. Pollard. St. Mary's (Auburn)—J. W. Honeycutt, W. M. Powell, and D. T. Bryant.

Barton's Creek—J. H. Arnold, J. H. Watkins, J. B. Rudd, L. H. Ross, W. A. Brogden, J. J. Penny, and R. L. Thompson.

Buckhorn—W. C. Bright, A. H. Bennett, T. R. Riggsbee, and J. J. Reynolds.

UNFAIR METHODS IN CUMBERLAND.

Revenue Officers and Their Supporters Resorts to Democratic Tactics—The County, However, is Safe for Morehead.

Editor Caucasian:—Cumberland County is overwhelmingly for Mr. Morehead notwithstanding the scandalous practices resorted to by the Revenue people sent here to manipulate against him.

Before the date for the primaries, the Republicans at a large and populous precinct, expressed a desire to hear a discussion of the situation to which we readily agreed and fixed a time, but before the time set, Mr. Wakefield, United States Commissioner (who was to debate against Mr. Morehead), went out to that voting place and told that the discussion had been called off and abandoned.

At the primaries, there being no published call that could be found in this town, we "got onto" it as best we could that it was to be Saturday, July 30th, at 12 o'clock, and at the several voting places, and we sent word out to our friends all over the county to attend that day and hour at their voting precincts, which they did, and the great body of voters were for Mr. Morehead, and so expressed themselves.

In Fayetteville we have four voting precincts. At No. 1 we met at the voting precinct at 12 o'clock, elected an executive committee and delegates, and endorsed Mr. Morehead for State Chairman, and so instructed our delegates to the county convention.

The same thing was done in Nos. 2 and 4, while the Revenue people opposed to Mr. Morehead met at different times and places with those who they wanted, sending them (and no others) word, and opposed Mr. Morehead. At precinct No. 3 the convention being held at 12 o'clock at the voting place of the precinct, one lone opponent held a meeting all of his own in his private kitchen, and appointed himself; at another the meeting was held at 8 o'clock by a few who had been notified privately, in the back room of an office, with but a few all "flocking by themselves" who will attempt to claim representation in the face of such irregular and unlawful methods.

In the county precinct of Geddie's Gin, there were a large number present, and upon a test vote it was seen that a great majority were for Mr. Morehead, whereupon, one of his opponents from this town (going in the county to help manipulate) held a separate meeting with three, and resolved to suit themselves, while the great body of Republicans assembled, appointed a solid delegation for Mr. Morehead.

Our information from all sections of the county is that it is practically solid for Mr. Morehead, and the county convention to be held next Saturday, the 6th, will endorse him and send a solid delegation, and we will see the triumph of decent methods in politics and the great party take on new life. With the belief that the public conscience is fully aroused and the hour of our deliverance is at hand, we confidently await the State Convention.

THE ADAMS-BUTLER SUIT.

Compromise or No Compromise—What Counsel for Adams Says About the Matter.

The Greensboro Daily News.]

There appears to be a wide divergence of opinion relative to the rumored compromise of the Adams-Butler libel suit, pending in Guilford court for the past two years. Yesterday morning the Daily News printed statements from counsel denying the compromise, while other papers yesterday carried stories, with statements from equally good authority, confirming the rumored agreement.

Judge Adams was absent from the city yesterday, but to get the real status of the situation, a Daily News reporter again called upon G. Sam Bradshaw, of Judge Adams' counsel, with a request that he set him right. Mr. Bradshaw reiterated his statement of the night before in which he declared no compromise had been reached. Continuing, he said there had been several conferences between counsel and that an agreement was drawn up and same would be presented to the principals. If they agree to the terms, then the compromise will be consummated.

"These efforts of counsel to secure a compromise," he said, "have been pending for several months, and there is no grounds whatever for counsel announcing a compromise at this stage of the game. When everything has been consummated the details of the agreement will be made public," concluded Mr. Bradshaw.

Locally, however, there is a strong belief that the noted cases will be called off, every one heard discussing the case being of the opinion that the principals will accept the terms of the agreement drawn up by counsel.

Mr. Taft Approves Wickersham's Opinion On Lee Statue Question.

Beverly, July 31.—President Taft has approved an opinion by Attorney General Wickersham to the effect that there is no provision of law by which the statue of General Robert E. Lee, in Confederate uniform can be removed from Statuary Hall in the Capitol at Washington.

In addition to deciding the question on a purely legal basis, Mr. Wickersham argues the matter from an ethical point of view, declaring that Lee has come to be regarded as typifying all that was best in the cause to which he gave his services and the most loyal and unremurmured acceptance of the complete overthrow of that cause. That the State of Virginia should designate him for a place in Statuary Hall as one illustrious for distinguished military service, the Attorney General declares, is but natural and warranted under the reading of the law.

Justice Moody Will Retire.

Magnolia, Mass., July 29.—Associate Justice William H. Moody, of the Supreme Court of the United States, has announced his approaching retirement, it was learned today. He will quit before the middle of November, when the enabling act, passed especially for him by Congress, will expire.
