For four years he had been Presiding Elder of the Wilmington District, and his time being out there he was sent by the last North Carolina Conference, which met at Elizabeth City, to succeed Rev. R. B. John as Presiding Elder of the Raleigh District.

Dr. Cuninggim was 55 years old, and was a native of Greene County. He was educated at the University of North Carolina, and took his ministerial course at Vanderbilt University, in Nashville, where he met his wife, who was a resident of that city.

Some idea of the magnitude of the banquet may be gained from the fact that there will be fifty-three seats at the speaker's table. This does not mean that there will be fifty-three speeches. NO SLAVERY TO WORK.

Deskins, Va.—Mrs. Mary A. Vandye, in a letter from Deskins, says: "I have serious female troubles, lasting forty days at a time. I was so weak I could hardly walk, so I tried Cardui. Soon I was better. Now, I am well." If you suffer from any form of womanly pain or weakness, take Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui will lift you out of the misery and weariness, caused by womanly weakness, and help you to see the bright side of life.

A COMPROMISE EFFECTED.

Noted Libel Suit Comes to Sudden Termination—Sentence Deferred in Williams-Craft Case.

The Greensboro Telegram gives the following account of the compromise effected in the N. Glenn Williams liquor case in the Federal Court at Greensboro:

"In United States Court yesterday morning the noted libel suit instituted to settle the controversy between the United States Government and N. Glenn Williams and D. C. Foster, regarding the ownership of a quantity of whiskey, came to a sudden termination, a compromise having been effected by counsel before court convened for the day.

"By the terms of the compromise the Government is to have $1,000 worth of the whiskey, the remainder to revert to the counter-claimants, Williams and Foster.

"Judgment in the case against Williams and Thomas Craft, who were convicted last June of conspiring to defraud the Government by padding the sale of postage stamps at Williams, Wilkes County, in order to receive a larger salary for the office, in which sentence was deferred until the above case was disposed of, was continued until the June term. In continuing judgment, Judge Boyd stated that Williams could dispose of the liquor involved in the libel case to better advantage than any one else so he would defer sentence in the conspiracy case in order to give him time to settle up all his affairs and get in readiness to accept such judgment as the court saw fit to impose."

Richmond Minister Shows Woman Suffrage Would Not Benefit Womanhood.

Winston-Salem Journal.]

Rev. C. S. Thacker, a minister of Richmond, Va., was told by the Times-Dispatch, declared in a sermon Sunday that woman can advance no sound reason as to why she should enter politics.

Mr. Thacker declared that woman damages her influence and detracts from her personality when she enters politics, that she harms that cause which she espouses, that when she enters the political arena she quits her throne of power and place of greatest usefulness, and he quoted authorities to show that Colorado had derived no substantial benefits from the law which gave women the right to vote.

The text which Mr. Thacker used was from Titus 2:4-5: "Teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children, to be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their husbands that the word of God be not blasphemed."

A good many of the women today contend that conditions have changed so greatly since that text was written by the Apostle Paul that it doesn't apply today, and so they want to get their hands on the ballot and help the men fight the battles of civic life.

We are inclined to side with Mr. Thacker on this question, but at the same time we offer him our sympathy, for he is going to hear from some of the Virginia suffragettes.

Which is Good Government and Which is Bad Government?

—"Justice," in Union Republican.]

Last week I published an article from the News and Observer telling the Legislature that we must have more revenue. What I wished to call attention to was the fact that Democracy has a free hand, the people have given them unlimited power there are not enough Republicans in either branch to have a roll call, and there is nothing to restrain the Democratic party in any measure they wish to pass.

Let us make a few comparisons and see how the administration of the Republicans under Governor Russell compares with the present administration. This is called good government, while Russell's was called a bad government. The entire expense of the State in 1908, outside of the free schools, were $1,287,641.18, while in 1909, the last year for which I have the auditor's report, they were $2,594,548.70, or nearly three times as much as under the Republicans, and now there is a deficit in the treasury of about $360,000, while the Republicans turned over a surplus of $185,297.91 to the Democrats in 1899 after every appropriation was paid, yet they say ours was bad government while this is good. But this is not all the story, if you will turn back to the files of the News and Observer for 1896, the year Russell was elected, you will find that North Carolina 4 per cent bonds were quoted at 96 cents on the dollar. After we had run the State for two years and that is 1897 and 1898, when we turned it over to the Democrats in 1899, our credit had risen from 96 cents on the dollar to over 109 1/4, for this is what the Wachovia Loan and Trust Company paid for $110,000 penitentiary bonds, while this year it took advertisements, it took an appeal to the bankers of the State and finally a trade with the American Tobacco Co., and a call for a special session of the Legislature in order to get par for the 4 per cent bonds which were issued to fund the public debt. they called our bad government, and this good.

When the people think of these things, when they see their tax receipts getting larger and larger all the time, they will begin to ask themselves why they listened to the senseless cry of Butler and bonds and voted without thinking what they were doing.

Think of these things, brethren. JUSTICE.
