

The Caucasian AND RALEIGH ENTERPRISE.

Raleigh, N. C., March 16, 1911.

Entered at the Post-office in Raleigh, N. C. as second class mail matter.

Local Matters.

Mrs. J. A. J. Penny, of Barton's Creek Township, died Thursday.

LaFayette Holt, a student at the A. & M. College, has invented a little engine that is said to be more powerful than the old gasoline engine and will be especially useful on the farms.

Application has been made to Governor Kitchin for the pardon of Thos. Worley, of Lenoir County, who in 1905 was sentenced to fifteen years' imprisonment for murder in the second degree.

Dick Thompson, white, of Raleigh, has been placed under a $200 bond on the charge of breaking into the old Johnson residence and stealing a lot of furniture. Mrs. W. J. Peele located the furniture at a local repair shop.

Five pardons were issued yesterday by Governor William Walton Kitchin to M. L. Winner, of New Hanover County; Henry H. Smith, of Richmond County; Melvin Parker, of Durham County; Charles Gibson, of Wake County; Herbert C. Croom, of Pender County.

WEST GANG TAKEN TO WILSON.

Were Taken From Raleigh on Special Train—Trial Now in Progress at Wilson.

Lewis West and the other members of his gang who had been confined in the State's Prison since their capture were taken to Wilson Monday on a special train. A special term of court had been ordered to try the thieves and murderers. There was delay in starting the trial even after the prisoner were in the Wilson court.

A special sent out from Wilson Tuesday night says:

"Although bills of indictment have been returned against four of the Lewis West crowd for murder in the first degree, counsel for the prosecution have decided to try only two of the gang under this charge. These are Lewis West and Ed Purcell, alias Stetson. It is now well established that these two were in Mary Young's house when Deputy Sheriff George Mumford was murdered and that both fired shots.

"They were arraigned this morning, after which Judge Adams ordered a special venire of 250 jurors drawn to appear to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock. The jury is expected to be secured during the morning session and the trial well under way to-morrow afternoon.

State Fair October 16-21.

The Raleigh Fair will be held October 16-21, during which time there will be no other fairs to conflict. During the three preceding weeks, fairs will be held at Wilkeboro, Winston-Salem and Greensboro, and during the three weeks following at Charlotte, Columbia, and Augusta.

Death of Mr. Johnson Busbee.

Mr. Johnson T. Busbee, a former resident of Raleigh, and a brother of the late C. M. Busbee and F. H. Busbee, of this city, died Sunday at Danville, Va., after a lingering illness. His two children, Miss Sophia P. Busbee and Johnson Busbee, were with him when the end came. The remains were brought to Raleigh and interred in Oakwood Cemetery Tuesday afternoon.

Monday's Storm Damaged Fruit and Crops.

Monday afternoon's storm did much damage to fruit and truck farms in the vicinity of Wilmington, Southern Pines and at other points between those places. The storm was accompanied by hail. There was a heavy rain in Raleigh and Wake, but no serious damage has been reported in this county.

Smallpox at Soldiers' Home.

Several of the inmates at the Soldiers' Home in Raleigh have smallpox. One of the comrades died Sunday from the disease. It is thought that the disease was brought to the home from Durham by one of the old soldiers who went to visit relatives in Durham while the disease was so prevalent there.

Governor Kitchin Pardons Four.

Governor Kitchin granted four pardons Tuesday as follows: Walter Hobbs, convicted at the July term, 1909, Durham Superior Court, of the crime of retailing and sentenced to three years on the roads.

Charles Lindsay, convicted in Anson Superior Court, September term, 1908, of the larceny of a mule and sentenced to five years on the roads.

Calvin Moore, convicted of the crime of burglary at the February term, 1907, of Mecklenburg Superior Court, and sentenced to seven years in the State's Prison.

Henry Lewis, convicted at the November term, 1910, of Pitt Superior Court, of retailing and sentenced to six months on the roads.

FAKE REVENUE OFFICERS.

Two Raleigh Men Take It Up Themselves to Make Inspection and Arrests.

Last Saturday a certain Raleigh citizen was possessed with an hallucination that it was his duty to arrest supposed offenders of the Revenue law and he accordingly took into custody a citizen from a near by town and carried the "offender" before United States Commissioner Nichols for trial. The Commissioner soon discovered what he was up against and discharged the "prisoner."

A special from Greensboro to Sunday's Charlotte Observer tells of another escapade by a citizen who claims to hail from Raleigh. The special says:

"W. V. Moss, who claims Raleigh for his home, was arrested here last night on a charge of impersonating a United States Revenue officer. Deputy Marshal Vincent made the arrest. Moss was carried before Commissioner D. H. Collins and, in default of a bond of $500, was remanded to jail. Moss came here Friday and yesterday afternoon went to the Elks' Club and represented himself as being a United States Revenue officer, exhibiting a card and a badge to this effect. He went through the club and examined the various compartments and then took a round through King's cigar store. Moss admits that he is guilty, but denies that he had a badge and says that he was drunk when he attempted what he did. He says that he is in the employ of the Southern Railway at Raleigh."

Superintendent Arrested.

Mr. Frank Gurley, formerly superintendent and manager of the Apex Hosiery Mills, at Apex, was arrested Tuesday on the charge of mismanagement of the company's affairs. Mr. Gurley left Apex about a month ago. He was located in Tennessee about a week ago.

The Legislature.

The Highlander.] Our solons of State will soon cease their deliberations at Raleigh.

Editors of State weeklies will welcome their adjournment.

Reading over the daily reports of their proceedings is like traveling through a tangled swamp of vines and undergrowth. Great trees are not in sight and it is hard to find one's way. Few bills of real, State-wide interest have been considered. Most of law-makers seem to have had their eyes glued down upon their home neighborhoods. A vast majority of the bills have been purely local.

Hence the dull reading. It is possible that this Legislature may pass into history as a Do-Nothing Legislature. This perhaps is in its favor, as it is better to do nothing than to do something bad; for example, to pass radical legislation that might interfere with the careful efforts of business and industry to survive the financial depression of the past year.

This Legislature of North Carolina had some great opportunities. It might have taken up such subjects as the Austrian ballot reforms in this State; or the initiative, referendum and recall; or the Oregon system of direct election of United States Senators.

But they have passed up these questions of real weight and great importance, for the consideration of such subjects as dogs, bachelors and near-beer.

Still, though the remaining days be few, the lawyers have a chance to redeem themselves by passing the State-wide primary bill, the Torrens Land System and the new State Capitol bill, now under consideration.

Real legislative progress is possible only when public opinion and the public conscience of the people is educated up to the point where it will demand some great boons which other States enjoy.

That's the Question.

Wilmington Dispatch.]

It's true that the legislators earned no money during the past three days; but the question is, Did they really earn their money at all?

More Peonage Cases in Georgia.

Savannah, Ga., March 14.—Several indictments charging various persons with peonage was returned by the Federal grand jury to-day. The names of the defendants were not made public.

NO SLAVERY TO WORK.

Deskins, Va.—Mrs. Mary A. Vandye, in a letter from Deskins, says: "I have serious female troubles, lasting forty days at a time. I was so weak I could hardly walk, so I tried Cardul. Soon I was better. Now, I am well." If you suffer from any form of womanly pain or weakness, take Cardul, the woman's tonic. Cardul will lift you out of the misery and weariness, caused by womanly weakness, and help you to see the bright side of life. Try it. Your druggist sells it.

A Formal Resolution Entirely Unnecessary. Statesville Landmark.]

A few days before the adjournment of the Legislature the Charlotte Chronicle remarked: "It was the American Tobacco Trust that saved, not only the credit of the State, but an extra session of the Legislature. Yet the present Legislature is going to adjourn without having voted a resolution of thanks to the trust."

A formal resolution of thanks was not passed, but the trust was amply repaid by the failure to pass an anti-trust law that will reach that monopoly. In fact, the tobacco trust has such a hold on the State that the failure to enact an effective anti-trust measure all these years is due to its influence; and if the trust did the State a favor by investing in North Carolina bonds, it was then under obligations to the State, and the continued favor really establishes a new obligation.

Non-Action of Johnston Grand Jury Causes Surprise.

Smithfield Journal.]

It seems that at the December term of court here present were made against the sheriff, jailer and the county commissioners on account of the awful condition found in the county jail when inspected by the grand jury. It is said that the bodies and clothing of the prisoners were badly infested with vermin, and also that the prisoners complained of being cold and hungry, and upon reading their report the presiding judge directed the grand jury to bring presentments against the officers named. This week no true bill was found by the grand jury in these cases, which caused surprise. Again many were surprised when no true bill was found against those Democratic election officers in O'Neal's Township against whom presentments had been made at the December term of court for alleged election frauds in 1908 and 1910. It was expected that all these matters would at least be given an airing in open court. We believe if this had been done it would have caused the people of the county to open their eyes.

A Few Democrats Can't Make the Party Decent.

Durham Herald.]

A few Democrats in the New York Legislature should know that it is impossible for them to make the party decent.

Refused to Kiss a Man and Was Beaten.

Mount Airy News.]

Kissing a man is not an unheard-of occurrence in this land, but because a certain person in this community declined to kiss one of the male sex one day this week, a fight and law-suit is the result. Wednesday a fine-looking Scotchman, right fresh from the hills of old Scotland, walked into the office of Esq. T. B. McCargo, and wanted the protection of his rights through the laws of the land. His eye was black and he showed very clearly that he had been in trouble. He wanted a paper for a man with whom he had been associating and who had beaten him. Mr. McCargo wanted to know something of the trouble before he issued the paper and asked the cause of the difficulty. In the strong Scotch brogue the man told the story: "Ah," said he, "he had been boozing for a week and wanted me to kiss him. Me kiss no man, sir. Me might kiss me mother, but me kiss no man, and because me refuse to kiss him, he beat me."

This Senate Followed Same Bad Example.

The Senate of 1907 and 1909 destroyed the hope of an anti-trust law. It is not believed this Senate will follow that bad example.—Raleigh News and Observer.

But it did and not what is the Democratic organ at Raleigh going to do about it?—Union Republican.

People Have No Confidence in Democratic Party.

Durham Herald.]

If there was more confidence in the Democratic party there would not be so much speculation as to what it may do in Congress.
