POPULATION OF NORTH CAROLINA

Detailed Figured Announced by Census Director Durand.

1900 COMPARED

Sains and Losses Shown In a Decade my the Various Cities, Towns, Villages and Townships Throughout the State-Total Population Is 2,-206,287, as Against 1,983,810 Ten Years Ago.

North Carolina's position in the p front ranks of the southern states in regards to population has been greatly strengthened during the decade from 1900 to 1910.

Detailed population statistics of the state has just been issued by Census Director E. Dana Durand at Washington. They give the figures for every minor civil division and incorpora ed city.

The total population of the state is 2,206,287 for 1910, as against 1,893,810 in 1900, an increase of 302,477.

Unlike some of the northern and middle western states, the movement from the farming districts to the citdes is not nearly as pronounced in this

The cities almost without exception show decided increases, in some instances as high as 100 per cent. Charlotte, with a population of 11,557 in 1890 and 18,091 in 1900, is returned with 34,014 in 1910, an increase in ten years of 5923. Wilmington had 20,976 in 1900 and now has 25,748, while Raleigh shows an increase of approx-Imately 50 per cent, having 19,218 in 1910, as compared with 13,643 in 1900. Asheville is another city that prospered, having a population of 18,762, as against 14,694 ten years ago.

Durham, with 6679 people in 1900, is returned with 18,241 in 1910, an increase of nearly 200 per cent.

The census returns indicate that North Carolina is forging to the front as a manufacturing and mercantile state, while it is losing little as an agricultural state. state, while it is losing somewhat as

A POLITICAL BLACKHAND.

Tammanyite Treatened to Kill Democratic Member of New York Legislature if He Refused to Vote for Senatorial Candidate.

The following story which has appeared in several of the daily papers has created a sensation among New York politicians:

"New York, April 18 .- An interesting echo of the recent Senatorial light at Albany was beard last night during the dinner of the Nicholas Society at Delmonicos, when William Church Osborn, legal adviser of Governor Dix, declared in an address that one of the Democratic legislators had been threatened with death unless he hanged his vote.

"Mr. Osborn did not name the legslator, remarking, however, that the man had 'stuck to his guns.' 'He old me,' said Mr. Osborn, 'that his conscience would not let him vote the other way."

bocowinity, Washington and Long Acre Townships Comprise a Special Road District-Law May Be Un-Constitutional.

One of our subscribers at Blount's Creek, Beaufort County, has request ed The Caucasian to publish a copy of the road law for Beaufort County, as passed by the last Legislature. The law on file in the Secretary of State's office covers thirteen typewritten pages and is a little too long to publish in its entirety, but the reporter has read the entire bill and will give all the important features of the bill in this article.

Washington Township, Chocowinity Township and Long Acre Township were created a "Road District." The Board of County Commissioners at their first meeting after the act was passed were required to elect three persons who shall be duly qual ified voters living within the territory who shall constitute a "Board of Read Commissioners" for said district. One for two years, one for four years and one for six years. As the term of each road commissioner expires the county commissioners shall elect his successor for a term Deposits. of six years. The road commissioners

(1) On all real and personal property in said district tax not to exceed 2 ten cents on the hundred dollars valuation of taxable property.

(2) On all polls residing in said district and outside of the corporate limits of the city of Washington, North Carolina, a tax not to exceed two dollars ($2.00) on each poll annually. A person may give four days' labor on working the roads instead of paying the extra poll tax, if they desire.

2 If they pay the tax they are not required to do road duty. If any person fails to pay the tax or work the roads four days they may be fined $50 or imprisoned thirty days. This new road law will not go into working effect until September 1, 1911, and old road law will remain in effect until that time.

It appears to this writer that the law is unconstitutional and cannot be enforced, as the taxes imposed are not in conformity to the constitutional equation, which is three to ether information desired apply to J. F. Mind one. It will, therefore, be seen that the poll tax required is all out of proportion to the property tax.

Democrats Manage to Carry Some Elections by Perjury.

Charlotte Chronicle.] In recent years the courts have manifested a disposition to pay more attetnion to violations of the old and much-abused law against perjury. It is claimed that in the recent election in Asheville the proposition for a commission form of government was defeated by fraudulent votes in connection with which a charge of perjury has been brought against nine citizens. Next to violations of the law against carrying concealed weapons, the law against perjury is perhaps the most commonly violated and the most generally overlooked. Through it many a guilty man has gone free from the court-house, and many an election has gone wrong. If the will of the people of Asheville was defeated through the practice of perjury, it is a matter for the courts to deal with sternly. If perjury can be proved, and is proved, just by way of a wholesome example the court would be justified in imposing the maximum penalty.

STOPPED THOSE PAINS.

Timberville, Miss.-Miss Gertrude 1451 Gatlin, of Timberville, writes: "I 1053 did not know anything could stop those womanly pains, from which I 847 suffered for two years, until I tried 2526 Cardui. I had been troubled with 576 various female ailments, but they 1491 were cured in a little while, thanks to Cardui." Cardui is especially adapted for use by ailing women. It relieves headache, backache, drag-Canada's Parliament seems shock- ging feelings, irregularity, nervousingly ignorant of the first rudiments ness, misery, and womanly weakness. of practical politics.
