

LEAVING THE SINKING SHIP.

Democrats in Pasquotank Now Aligning Themselves With the Republican Party—Democratic Extravaganza Heats Up Heavy on the Taxpayers—Can't Fool the Voters Louder With False Issues.

Miss The Caucasian—I send you the names of some more men who want to read your good paper and who are at least disgusted with the ways of the Democratic party in the State of North Carolina. I told you in a former communication how this assessment business was making the people mad and sure the assessors have visited their homes and put up the value of their property with a view to paying these foolish and extravagant taxes which were enacted by our Democratic friends in the last Legislature. They are even hotter and swear they will not support such things here and are determined if they have to have another election to change their vote. Our Democratic bosses have been encouraged in the past to do dirty work from the fact that the greater per cent of the Democrats of the State—and I may add of the South in general—have been so prejudiced against the Republican party by having the "nigger" and "Yankee" and such other things thrown in their faces by these office-loving bosses, that some have been made to think it dishonorable to vote any other but the Democratic ticket. But they are now beginning to see the "nigger in the wood-pile." They have been pinched and pounded into this knowledge. The surest way in the world to convert a Democrat is to touch heavily his pocket-book. This will set him to thinking where nothing else would be so effective. The way to make a man wise is to get him to thinking, and then he will be mighty apt to begin to investigate for himself; and when he does that, these bosses will lose their power over him to fool him longer. And so, this is coming to pass that the average voter is getting his eyes opened and is finding out that the name of a party or thing is a small matter compared with its working principles.

We need two political parties in the land if no more; for somehow we are so constituted that we all are somewhat improved in character by a knowledge of being watched; that is to say, we are held in restraint by knowing our acts are being watched and known by the people, and when such a restraint is lacking there is a sort of incentive to strain one's character; therefore, all patriotic men, all liberty-loving and intelligent men, should desire at least two political parties to protect and safeguard his life and property and be sensible enough to support the party that best serves the people regardless of the name of that party. The trouble with the Democratic party is much like a gigantic trust, it has destroyed competition and the people are suffering sadly from its monopolizing effects.

Now, in conclusion, let me admonish you, Mr. Voter, for your own interest, and for the interest of your wife and children, and in the name of common-sense and justice, to lend your aid, to give your voter in the future, to break down this monopoly of the Democratic party, and let the bosses know that they cannot longer take the hard-earned dollars out of your pockets and stuff them into their own without a good cause. Subscribe to The Caucasian, your best friend in the shape of a newspaper, and you would do well, also, to subscribe to a Democratic paper, and by carefully reading both, and by weighing carefully the evidence they give and the evidence you get outside, you can safely arrive at a conclusion as to how you should cast your ballot on election days.

THE PASSING OF CARRIE NATION

The Saloon Smasher Finally Succumbs to Worry—The End of a Spectacular Career.

Leavenworth, Kansas, June 9.—Mrs. Carrie Nation, the world-wide-known saloon fighter, died here today. Paresis was the cause of death.

Relatives had been telegraphed for but only the doctor and a nurse were at her bedside when she died.

Worry over law suits, which she brought against a lecture bureau for failure to pay for services, is said to have caused her break-down.

Carrie Moore was born in Kentucky in 1846. In early life she married a man addicted to intoxicants. This created in her an intense aversion to saloons. When he died she determined to devote her life to the suppression of bar-rooms. Later, she removed to Kansas and married David Nation, who sympathized with her temperance principles. After considerable peaceful labor to stop drinking of alcoholic beverages, she decided to become militant. Mrs. Nation's first saloon smashing was done in a bar-room of this city.

She remained in jail several days as a result. On January 21, 1901, armed with her favorite weapon, a hatchet, Mrs. Nation made another attack in Wichita. This time she smashed two saloons.

During the next three months Mrs. Nation surprised liquor sellers in various Kansas towns, appearing unheralded and leaving a trail of ruined bar-room fixtures wherever she went. Few saloonists used violence in resisting Mrs. Nation, although she was assaulted and hurt while wrecking a place at Enterprise, Kansas.

Mrs. Nation, after her activities in Kansas became a lecturer and the editor of a paper called the Smasher's Mail. She did little smashing outside of Kansas. While lecturing in New York City, she created excitement by appearing at a horse show in Madison Square Garden and demanding that the occupants of the Vanderbilt box contribute money for a home for drunkards' wives, founded by her in Kansas City, Kansas.

Mrs. Nation made herself conspicuous in many cities by entering saloons and resorts and delivering talks on the evils of drinking.

EARTHQUAKE SHAKES MEXICO.

One Hundred and Fifty Persons Killed—Great Damage to Property.

Mexico City, June 7.—Sixty-three persons were killed, seventy-five were wounded and property worth over $50,000 in gold was wrecked to-day by an earthquake which shook the Mexican capital and injected a note of tragedy into what was to be a day of pure rejoicing over the arrival of Francisco I. Madero, Jr.

The victims were caught beneath the falling walls of the artillery barracks of San Cosma, near the Mexican central station.

Another place where the earthquake took its toll of death in considerable numbers was at the city power plant of the street car company. There six persons were killed and six wounded. Two others were found in the debris, consisting partly of steel rails which had been stacked in the iron and wood departments. The victims were inhabitants of shacks, built along beside the structure.

With these two exceptions, the death list was made up of single cases, or in a few instances of two and three persons caught beneath falling walls in unsubstantial buildings.

Although the shocks was plainly felt in all parts of the city, few realized the magnitude of the catastrophe until late in the afternoon, because the casualties were confined to a comparatively small area. The inhabitants were slow to realize that this was the most serious shock the capital has suffered in a score of years.

No personal property of Americans was damaged, and with the exception of one Chinese killed, no foreigners were injured. In the barracks where the soldiers were killed, twelve women also lost their lives. They were the wives of artillerymen.

Seventy-two soldiers were sleeping in the house. Approximately thirty-five were quartered on the first floor, the remainder on the second. The outer wall fell away, and the roof, crashing down on the sleeping men on the second floor, hurled them down through the ceiling on their comrades below. The bodies of thirty soldiers have been recovered. Three are missing and sixteen are wounded, a few severely.

Those who escaped began the work of rescue at once. Women, whose soldier husbands were in the pile, stood by, waiting in groups, while children clung to their mothers' dresses and stared curiously at the gruesome scene. Ambulances later carried the wounded to the military hospitals and the dead to Dolores Cemetery.

Three blocks from the barracks the yards of the Mexican Central Railroad, at which Madero had been scheduled to enter, presented another spectacle of the shock's intensity. There a long wall separating these yards from those of the Mexican Railway was thrown down. An engineer, who was lying by its side, was crushed to death. A warehouse of the Mexican Central was mostly wrecked, one wall and a portion of the building collapsing. About one-third of the round-house was torn down. No casualties were reported here.

One Town Wiped Out.

Mexico City, June 8.—Rolling from coast to coast through Mexico yesterday's earthquake brought death to at least 150 persons, according to the latest accounts received to-night. The area of the quake's destruction is rectangular, with its northern boundary less than fifty miles from the capital and a southern line cutting across the lower part of Guerrero.

The death toll grows as belated reports come in. The number of casualties in Mexico City, as compiled by the police, remains sixty-three. Fifty-nine corpses have been taken from ruins in Ocotlan, Jalisco.

It will never be known how many perished in the villages in remote parts of the seismic zone. Catastrophes in those parts are taken as a matter of course. For instance, Tonala, Jalisco, was wiped out, to all outward appearances, but the deaths there cannot be accurately numbered. Not many persons were killed in the city of Colima, but a considerable amount of damage was done.

Operators of Commercial Club at Asheville Put Under Bond.

Charlotte, N. C., June 13.—The first fruits of the efforts of the board of aldermen to destroy the evil of the social club operating in violation of the law were seen this morning, when E. L. Johnson and W. T. J. Blackman, of the Commercial Club, were put under $1,000 bonds each while deciding whether or not to accept a verdict of $250 each and to close the doors of the Commercial Club forever or to continue to operate the club after paying fines of $500 and receiving sentences to four months in the county jail.

HARMON TO WAR ON WILSON.

Will Wage the Kind of Warfare That Spares Not the Participants—Will Be a Hot Time in Democratic Ranks.

A special from Cincinnati, Ohio, to the Baltimore Sun says: "Judge Harmon has declared war officially on William Jennings Bryan and Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey. Through Lieutenant High L. Nichols, director-general of Harmon's Presidential aspirations, notice was served on the Bryan and Wilson factions yesterday that from now until the Democratic National Convention it will be the kind of warfare that spares not the participants."

"In Washington two-thirds of the Congressmen are for Harmon," said Nichols. He made no mention of the following of Champ Clark, who has a well-developed Presidential boom of his own.

"The Congressmen resent the interference of Bryan," continued Nichols, "and they think he is trying to disturb the splendid feeling of harmony which exists everywhere."

"Nichols resented a question as to the relative progressiveness of Governor Harmon and Governor Wilson."

"Governor Harmon is a better progressive in the best sense of the world than Governor Wilson," he asserted warmly.

"Mike Devaney, formerly United States Marshal for Ohio, who has a roving commission from the Harmon headquarters, yesterday returned from Minnesota, where he has been testing Democratic sentiment with reference to Harmon. Devaney said he found much Harmon sentiment. He admitted, though, that the tide for Woodrow Wilson is flowing strong in the Northwest, but he asserted that it is caused by the activities of the hustling press agent."

H. L. BRITT IN TROUBLE.

North Carolina Boy Arrested in Richmond for Attempting to Pass Some Worthless Checks—Offered Draft on a Raleigh Bank—Fainted When Arraigned in Court.

Richmond, Va., June 8.—Overcome with the humiliation of his arraignment on the charge of swindling Broad Street merchants, H. L. Britt, twenty-three years old, said to belong to a well-to-do family in North Carolina, threw up his hands and fell backwards in a dead faint in Justice Crutchfield's court to-day.

His attorney, Gilbert Pollock, and two court officers caught him as he fell and saved his head from striking the stone floor.

Physicians were summoned and it was half an hour before the prisoner opened his eyes again and appeared to understand what went on around him. Finding it impossible to continue the hearing which had been so suddenly interrupted, Judge Crutchfield remanded Britt to jail until next Thursday. He will probably be placed in the jail hospital until he is fully recovered.

Britt entered the jewelry store of Swarschild Brothers and exhibited what purported to be a telegram signed by W. B. Drake, cashier of the Merchants National Bank of Raleigh, N. C., stating that the bearer had on deposit cash to the amount of $1,500.

Using this to establish his credit, Britt selected a $165 diamond ring and tendered a draft in payment. He was told to return later in the day. In the meantime the bank was communicated with, and the alleged deposit was repudiated. The police were notified and the arrest followed. The clothes which Britt was wearing when arrested are said to have been purchased from Woodall & Quarles by means of a bogus check.

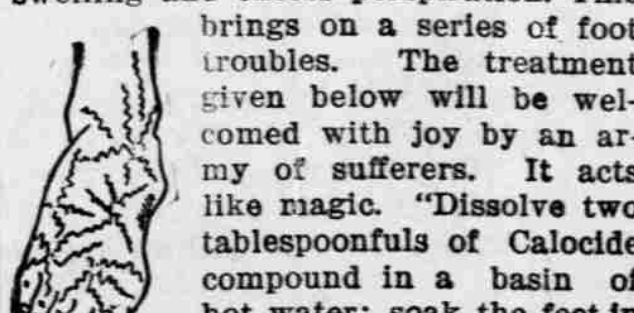

Madero Warmly Greeted When He Entered Mexican City.

Mexico City, June 7.—If there was doubt in the minds of any one as to the sentiment of the people in the capital toward Francisco I. Madero, Jr., hero of the late revolution, it must have been dispelled to-day by the cheers that greeted his arrival from Juarez following the success of his revolt from the Diaz regime.

The party will be under the chaperonage of Mr. and Mrs. Horace R. Dowell and Miss Flora Creech, of Raleigh, N. C. A most attractive itinerary has been arranged, including a day at Virginia Beach. The trip from Norfolk to New York will be via the Old Dominion line, which sails from Norfolk June 16th. Arriving New York at 3.00 p. m., June 17th, the party will be quartered at the Hotel Marlborough, 36th St. and Broadway.

Monday, June 19th, the party will go to West Point, N. Y., the seat of the United States Military Academy. West Point is located on a high bluff, overlooking the Hudson River, about 50 miles from New York City. The Government has spent countless millions in making the military academy the most attractive "war school" in the world.

It is needless to elaborate upon the magnificent scenic beauty along the Hudson River. It is incomparable. Five days in New York will be hardly long enough to see the wonders of the great American metropolis, but much can be seen in that time.

The party will leave New York returning by the Old Dominion line at 3.00 p. m., June 23rd, arriving at "home," on the afternoon of June 24th.

Difficult to Draw.

Mack's National Monthly.] A teacher asked her class to draw a picture of that which they wished to be when they grew up. All went diligently to work except one little girl, who only chewed her pencil.

"Don't you know what you want to be when you grow up, Anna," asked the teacher.

"Yes, I know," replied the little girl, "but I don't know how to draw it. I want to be married."
