SHERIFF'S SON ATTEMPTS SUI-CIDE.

Was Despondent on Account of the Death of His Sweetheart.

Washington, N. C., June 19 .- A great deal of excitement was occasioned in the city this afternoon about 4 o'clock, when it became known that Charles Ricks, the oldest son of Sheriff George E. Ricks, of this city, and county, had attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat with a razor. It seems that Ricks was in low spirits and very despondent over the death of his flance, which occurred at the Fowle Hospital this morning after a very short illfrom appendicitis. Young by taking an overdose of laudanum. Ricks was very devoted to the young lady and her death was a great shock to him, and he had been in a very much depressed condition all day. His mother had been at his bedside all day, and happened to leave leaving a shortage in his accounts of the room for a few minutes.

Mr. James McCuler, a friend of Ricks, coming in the meantime had gone up to his room to try and cheer him a little.

Finding the door locked he suspicioned something wrong and immediately called the family. Upon forcing the door they found Ricks lying on the bed with a deep gash cut in his throat and the bed covered with blood. Almost every doctor in town was summoned and arrived few minutes afterwards. Dr. John G. Blount and Dr. J. L. Nicholson arrived first and sewed up the wound.
