Republicans Practice Economy.

Clinton News-Dispatch.]

At the last meeting of the Board of Commissions they reduced the tax levy of Sampson County from 23 2-3 cents on the hundred dollars worth of property down to 20 cents. Sampson is the first and only county in the State that has reduced her tax levy from 23 2-3 cents down to 29 cents. It will be remembered what an effort was made during the last campaignto misrepresent the financial condition of Sampson County. Democratic speakers and newspapers were never so happy as when they were circulating some lie about the finances of Sampson County. They perhaps may have fooled some little shallow-headed fellow who hasn't sense enough to get out of the rain, but they did not fool intelligent people who read for themselves. Libeling Old England.

According to General Pillet of France, the author of "L'angleterre vue a Londres et dans ses l'rovinces." published in 1815, wife murderers 8 hundred years ago generally went acot free in England. In this engaging work the author says that "the murder of a married woman by bet husband is hardly recognized as crime. A vicar in England was taken suddenly ill, and his church warden was in great difficulty about getting a substitute when the bishop of the diocese, bearing of the circumstance, offered to church warden, wishing "to do the right thing," at the close of the service went up to the bishop and after thanking him stammered out, "A poorer preacher would have done for us, your lordship, but we were unable to find one!"

"Footlite is a good actor," said a playwright who was criticising a New York production wherein the hero's part was very badly cast, "and in this part he does his best; but, by Jove, doesn't he remind you of a man trying te play a Tschaikowsky symphony on a typewriter?"

Hagenbeck's Narrowest Escape. I am often asked what is my narrowest escape. Perhaps the following is the closest shave I have had. I was superintending the dispatch of some animals at the railway station in Hamburg, when a half grown elephant which was standing in one of the trucks with its legs chained suddenly furned round and tried to pin me to the wall. I was at that moment examining a cage containing monkeys. When I entered the car I knew the elephant was cross and should have kept my face toward him. Instead of doing so I turned round to look at something, and at that moment the brute went for me. He tried to pin me to the wall, but fortunately for me his tusks were too wide spart for him to properly grip me. The tusks just grazed my skin on each side of my back. One of my men rushed to the rescue and pulled me down between the animal's head and the wall. Ther then stood me on my feet to see if my back was broken. With the exception of torn clothing and a grazed skin I was all right.-Wide World.
