

he Caucasian AND RALEIGH ENTERPRISE.

Raleigh, N. C., July 20, 1911. Entered at the Post-office in Raleigh, N. C. as second class mail matter.

Local Matters.

Speaker Champ Clark has been invited to address the Teachers' Assembly which will be held in Raleigh next November.

Judge Conroy has appointed Mr. Charles Scarlett, of Durham, referee in bankruptcy for Durham, Granville, Chatham and Person Counties.

Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts, has accepted an invitation of the North Carolina Historical Society to deliver an address in the State some time this fall.

The trustees of Rex Hospital have refused to allow patients in that institution to be treated by osteopaths and the osteopaths are determined to have the matter thrashed out.

The Y. M. C. A. of Raleigh received a charter Saturday from the Secretary of State, and this organization proposes to go ahead with the construction of a building here when they get the real estate end of the matter finally settled.

Mr. G. C. Branch, a Seaboard engineer, was before Justice C. A. Sparks Monday on the charge of slandering a woman. The case was dismissed, and the costs were put upon the prosecution. It developed that it was a case of malicious prosecution through a third party. The woman in the question had written the magistrate that Mr. Branch was innocent of the charge.

HUNTING SISTER'S BODY.

Raleigh Boy Learns That Remains Were Turned Over to Richmond Medical College for Dissection—Girl Died in Hospital Last March.

The following special from Richmond, Va., appeared in Tuesday's Charlotte Observer:

"Lee Thaxton, son of a prominent contractor of Raleigh, N. C., arrived in Richmond to-day and began an investigation to ascertain whether his sister, Miss Ola Thaxton, aged 23 years, who died here March 30th, was given burial, as the attending undertaker states, or whether the body was cut to pieces by students in the dissecting rooms of the University College of Medicine.

Undertaker John B. Billey says he received the body from the City Home and buried it in the potter's field at Oakwood Cemetery. A record in Chief Health Officer Levy's office says the body was turned over to the Medical College on May 10th.

Miss Thaxton, who is described as a beautiful girl, with deep blue eyes and golden hair, came to Richmond in search of work, taking a position in the office of a tobacco factory. She became ill and died before relatives were notified. When letters ceased to reach Raleigh Mr. Thaxton concluded to investigate and found that his sister had been dead these many weeks. He promises sensational developments if the matter is not satisfactorily explained.

A SEVERE HAIL STORM.

Many Tobacco Crops Destroyed in the Vicinity of Apex—Corn is Badly Damaged Also—Loss Over Fifty Thousand Dollars.

Apex, Wake County, and vicinity was visited by a severe wind, rain and hail-storm Tuesday afternoon about 5 o'clock. Many crops were completely destroyed. So far as the writer has been able to learn, Mr. A. D. Upchurch, who has an excellent farm two miles this side of Apex, was the heaviest loser. He had about twenty acres in tobacco which was almost entirely destroyed by the hail. Mr. Upchurch's loss, on his tobacco crop alone, is estimated at about $2,500. Messrs. James Brown, Carey Upchurch, W. T. Castleberry, C. G. Perry, J. J. Maynard, F. P. Upchurch and Mrs. W. H. Howell suffered heavily from the storm also. The heaviest of the storm began about four miles south of Apex and reached a distance of four miles northeast of Apex where it began to lose its fury. In other words, it covered a distance of about eight miles in length and about two and one-half miles in width. At least fifty crops were almost destroyed by the hail, and in many tobacco fields not a leaf was left standing from the stock. Besides the damage done to crops, many trees were blown down in the forest and two chimneys were blown down near Apex. The damage to crops in that section is estimated at $50,000 or more.

Dr. McCullers Again Appointed County Physician.

Dr. W. S. Rankin, Secretary of State Board of Health has appointed Dr. J. J. McCullers county physician. He claimed the law gave him this right as the commissioners had failed to elect a physician during a period of two weeks. Dr. McCullers will receive fees for all the work he will do, but he will not inspect the schools. The County Commissioners and others are not pleased, and may refuse to pay the fees to Dr. McCullers.

WAKE COURT ADJOURNS.

Grand Jury Makes Several Recommendations—Some of the Cases Tried.

The July term of Wake Superior Court ended Tuesday afternoon. The next term of court will begin September 25th.

The grand jury recommended improvements in the county jail and court-house and want a new county building next to the court-house for the use of the County Superintendent of Schools and for the Board of Education. Also recommended the purchasing of bloodhounds for capture of offenders of the law who run away.

The following are some of the more important cases disposed of at the recent term of court:

Ed. Hall, a negro, was before the court on the charge of abandonment. He put in a plea of guilty. Judgment suspended upon payment of costs.

Turner Smith was sentenced for two years on the roads for assault and battery; and John Edwards, colored, got a three-year sentence for manslaughter.

Dave Hinton, who appealed from a $10 fine in Police Justice court for retailing liquor, was sentenced to serve six months on the roads, but later the Judge reduced his sentence to three months.

Noah Wall and Leonidas Perry, both white, were tried Tuesday for cruelty to animals. It seems that they killed one cow and wounded four belonging to a man named O'Neill. They were found guilty.

Harry Jones, colored, was charged with the larceny of some goods from E. E. Broughton's store. The bill was amended to forcible trespass and judgment was suspended upon payment of costs by the defendant.

Will Carter, colored, plead guilty of chicken-stealing and was sentenced to serve six months on the roads.

Ollie Baugh, an eleven-year-old colored boy, plead guilty to the charge of stealing a watch. Judgment was reserved.

Henry Jernigan, white, was sentenced to serve twelve months for stealing a suit of clothes.

Wash Durham, colored, charged with an assault with a deadly weapon, was found not guilty.

Sy Mial, colored, was found guilty of larceny and receiving and sentenced to serve twelve month on the roads.

Will Erect New Bank Building.

The contract has been let for the new building for the Raleigh Banking and Trust Company, which is to cost $80,000. The work will be done by J. B. Carr & Co., of Atlanta, Ga.

The bank building is to occupy the site at the corner of Fayetteville and Hargett Streets on which the present building of the Raleigh Banking and Trust Company stands. The new building will be 80 x 130 feet, and will be Grecian in style of architecture, twenty columns to be features of the exterior. The building will be three and a half stories high, with entrances on both Fayetteville and Hargett Streets. The lower portion of the building will be of granite, the upper portion of white limestone.

The Carolina Power and Light Company will have their officers in this building.

Coughed Up the Bullet.

James Logan, a negro who was seriously shot by Lee Hill on the night of July 5th, coughed up the bullet a few days ago at St. Agnes' Hospital, where Logan has been under treatment since the night he was shot.

The man who did the shooting has not been caught. Logan has been near death; but the coughing which loosened the bullet has made the doctors pronounced Logan out of danger.
