

The Caucasian AND RALEIGH ENTERPRISE.

Thursday, September 21, 1911.

Entered at the Post-office in Raleigh, N. C. as second class mail matter.

Local Matters.

The turn-table of the Southern Railway near Boylan Bridge is being replaced with a larger one.

After Dr. T. M. Jordan attended the wounded man he was driven to his home. Mr. Wadkins will recover.

The law class at Wake Forest has elected Mr. Arthur C. Bernard, of Raleigh, president of the class. He is a son of former District Attorney C. M. Bernard of this city.

The Old Fellows' Singing Class, of Goldsboro, with the manager, Mr. J. Perry, gave a concert in the Academy of Music last Friday night to a good and appreciative audience.

Cotton receipts on the local market are picking up, and most of the cotton that is coming in is graded from middling to good middling, there being very little of the low grade.

Mr. Fred Brown, of the Hoke County News, was in Raleigh Tuesday, and reported that the laying of the new corner-stone of Hoke's new court-house at Raeford would take place on October 10th.

Charged with blacking, I. H. Johnson, of Johnston County, was given a preliminary hearing before United States Commissioner Nichols Tuesday and bound over to Federal Court under bond in the sum of $200.

Governor Kitchen on Tuesday last pardoned Will G. Wilkins, of Nash County, convicted at the September term, 1909, for selling liquor, and Ellis Lee, of Rowan County, convicted at the August term, 1910, of the crime of abandonment.

Mr. William Wadkins, of Knightdale, was severely injured in a runaway accident on the Tarboro road Monday afternoon. His horse took fright while standing at a watering trough unbridled, and bolted. Mr. Wadkins was caught between the buggy and a tree and his chest was State Entomologist Franklin Sherman says that the worms that have appeared lately in Wake, Nash, and Wilson Counties and done considerable damage to cotton by eating the leaves are not the army worm but what is called the cotton-leaf worm. He recommends that Paris green be sprinkled on the plants to kill them.

St. Mary's School opens to-day for the coming session, with an enrollment up to the highest previous mark. The opening exercises, to which the public were invited, took place at 9 o'clock. An address was delivered by the Rt. Rev. Joseph B. Cheshire, the bishop of North Carolina, and president of the school corporation.

Prof. Curren G. Keeble, formerly assistant principal and head of the English Department in the Raleigh school, has arrived in Raleigh from his home in Murfreesboro, Tenn., and will practice law here. He resigned his position in the High School and took up law some time ago, and obtained license from the Supreme Court in February.

W. W. Armstrong is lingering at Rex Hospital with little prospects of recovery from the injuries he sustained Sunday morning, when he was struck by a Southern freight train and knocked onto the Seaboard parallel track, where another train took off his right arm. A swinging door on the freight is said to have struck him on the head as he walked between the parallel tracks.

Mrs. Fleming Given Possession of Children.

The following news item was sent out from Smithfield last Thursday night:

"In the case of Mrs. Nellie Claire Fleming, of Raleigh, against her husband, Percy B. Fleming, heard by Judge Peebles in chambers here to-night, the court allowed Mrs. Fleming a divorce, gave her the custody of her two children, and stated that the matter of alimony would be settled to-morrow."

Judge Clark had previously placed the two children in the custody of Dr. A. H. Fleming, of Louisburg, pending the divorce trial.

Mrs. Fleming asked for $75.00 a month from Mr. Fleming to support her and the children. Mr. Fleming has filed in the Federal Court here a petition in voluntary bankruptcy, in which he sets out that his liabilities aggregate $6,672 and that his assets amount to $7,035.

Governor Commutes Gause Death Sentence.

Dick Gause, convicted in Pender County last July of killing Ned Gibson, another negro, and sentenced to be electrocuted, will spend the rest of his life at hard labor for the State. The Governor's action was brought about by the recommendation of the trial judge, the solicitor, the twelve jurors and the prosecuting attorney.

The dissatisfaction upon the part of the court officials with the findings of the jury was the result of the doubtful nature of the evidence.

Subsequent developments led the jurors to request a modification of their verdict.

The date for the electrocution had been set for to-morrow.

J. B. Parrish, of Johnston, Killed in Runaway in Raleigh.

As the result of injuries received when his team became frightened at an automobile on South Fayetteville Street Thursday morning.

Mr. J. B. Parrish, who resided in Johnston County, seven miles east of Angler died at Rex Hospital Thursday afternoon, while his companion, Mr. C. P. Massengill, who was also thrown from the wagon, is still at the hospital, suffering with his injuries. The wagon and its contents, a load of furniture and neither of the mules, were injured.

It is not known who was driving the automobile that frightened the team.

Child Scalded.

Falling backwards into a dish-pan full of boiling water, little Hazel Egerton, the 19-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Egerton, of 317 East Hargett Street, was seriously injured Tuesday afternoon about 12:30 o'clock. The little one was severely scalded and is in a very critical condition, but is reported to be resting fairly well under the circumstances.

Governor Harmon to Speak in Raleigh.

Governor Judson Harmon, of Ohio, will speak at the State Fair Grounds, in Raleigh, on Wednesday of Fair Week, October 18th.

POLICEMAN SHOTS NEGRO.

Second Murder in Warren Within a Week.

Warrenton, N. C., Sept. 19.—Bill Cooper, a desperate negro of Henderson, for whom a warrant was issued charging him with beating a negro woman of that town in a terrible manner, was detected here to-day by Officer Simon Fleming. Accompanied by Mr. E. L. Green, he located Cooper in a negro pool-room at a date attempt to place him under arrest. The negro resisted, striking Mr. Fleming a vicious blow over the head with a billiard cue, felling him.

Mr. Green drew his revolver, calling upon the negro to surrender, and upon his refusal, shot him twice, once through the lungs and through the shoulder.

He was immediately removed to the mayor's office and medical aid summoned. His condition is critical and doubt is expressed as to his recovery. Officer Fleming was not seriously injured.

To Wake County Wheat Growers.

One hundred and fifty dollars in cash and merchandise has been subscribed to be given as premiums to the wheat growers of Wake County next spring. The conditions are: You must grow more wheat than any one else in the county to win the first premium. The other premiums will be given to those who grow the next largest yields. Those who want to enter the contest should begin at once to prepare their land, and send their name to the undersigned.

Mr. C. J. Lassiter has subscribed $50.00 in gold; the Caraleigh Phosphate and Fertilizer Works subscribe one ton of 8-3-3 fertilizer, to be awarded to persons using the Caraleigh brands of fertilizers. Others have subscribed agricultural implements, furniture, hats, shoes, etc., etc. A complete list of the contributors will be published at an early date.

If you want to win one of these prizes get busy and send in your name. T. B. PARKER, Director.

Raleigh, N. C.

Another Church Row at Greensboro.

The Greensboro News of Tuesday tells of a near-church-riot in that town Sunday night over who should ring the church bell. The News says:

"A disagreement as to who should ring the church bell for the evening service of Zion's negro church in Jacksonville, a suburb of this city, came near resulting in a free-for-all church riot Sunday night, and before ended resulted in a negro woman being thrown bodily from the front church door. After the trouble the evening service was held with two sermons, there being many old-fashioned negro songs, and spirited shouting. The assailant will be tried in Municipal Court this morning."

Girls Hunt Up Your Grandmother's Shawl!

Edith M. Weidenfeld, writing in the fashion department of the October Woman's Home Companion, says: "Fortunate is the woman who inherited from her grandmother, or her great-grandmother, a handsome lace shawl, either black or white, for lace shawls arranged in new ways are again the vogue. One of the new ways of using an old-fashioned lace shawl is in the sleeveless jackets seen a great deal in Paris and New York just now, and though many of them are made of silk or satin, those of lace are decidedly modish. It is caught in at the high waist-line with a black and white silk cord, and it fastens in front with tiny black satin buttons. A lace shawl used like this would be all the trimming necessary for a plain satin or chiffon gown."

ATTRACTIONS AT STATE FAIR.

Glenn H. Curtiss Flying Machine Will Make Flights Daily—Yercheron Society of America to Exhibit at State Fair.

We have just received from the North Carolina Agricultural Society a striking little booklet that is bright in its class. It is tiny, but full of facts and figures about North Carolina and her Great State Fair that will be held for the fifty-first time at Raleigh on October 17, 18, 19, 20, 1911. There are only eight small pages and a neat, very tasty cover, all of a size to fit in the ordinary envelope. Cuts show a bird's-eye view of the Fair Grounds while the Fair is going on and Lincoln Beachey flying in his Curtiss aeroplane over Niagara Falls.

The marvelous progress of the State is told in a comparative table of crop figures for 1905 and 1910, and a similar alignment of statistics of the manufacturing industries. In addition there are comparative values of arm land and buildings, implements and machinery, labor and fertilizers.

In a brief review of the work of the State Fair the booklet calls attention to the fact that it is chartered without capital stock, its real property being held in trust to secure a bonded debt, any profits made going into a surplus which is spent in improvements and increasing premiums. The construction of the reinforced concrete agricultural building at a cost of $7,000, the new building for women and other betterments last year are touched upon, as well as the modern poultry building to be ready for the coming Fair. Figures show 83 car-loads of exhibits last year against 42 in 1909; 3,501 separate entries against 1,201, and $8,191.54 net premiums paid against $6,598.97. The Percheron Society of America is this year offering its special prizes at the Raleigh Fair.

On the amusement side there is borne the news that the Fair has contracted with the Glenn H. Curtiss Co. for aeroplane flights each day of the Fair on a guarantee-to-fly basis, the aviator to be Lincoln Beachey or Hugh Robinson. Beachey is the birdman who flew under the bridge at Niagara, while Robinson did likewise at Cairo, Ill., under a railroad bridge over the Ohio. These two were the only flyers to finish in the cross-country race from New York to Philadelphia, and both were stars at the Chicago Aviation Meet, where Beachey made a new record for altitude—11,578 feet.

Another attraction mentioned is California's Frank's Wild West show with its fifteen car-loads and 200 people. Then there is the Great Calvert, star high-wire specialist.

Write for a copy of the little booklet to the State Fair, Jos. E. Pogue, Secretary, Raleigh, N. C.

THREE OFFICERS SENTENCED.

Three Men in Graham County Plead Guilty to Manslaughter.

Asheville, N. C., Sept. 19.—Information has been received here that Judge Webb, who has presided over the Superior Court of Graham County at Robbinsville, has sentenced the men who were convicted of killing Tom Marshburn, which occurred about six months ago. The men are W. J. Hyde, O. R. Crisp and Jim Hollifield. Hyde and Crisp were sentenced to twelve months' imprisonment and Hollifield to four months. They were tried and convicted of murder in the second degree, but counsel for the defense succeeded in having the verdict set aside, after which they submitted to a verdict of manslaughter.

It is said that the three men went to arrest Marshburn, who is said to have escaped from the chain-gang of one of the Georgia counties; that he expressed some unwillingness in accompanying them and that Hyde then shot him. Hyde plead self-defense, saying Marshburn had cut at him with a knife.
