Local Matters.

The revival at Edenton Street Methodist Church continues with increasing interest at each service, with preaching by the pastor, Rev. H. M. Smith, each evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The contract has been awarded for the quarter-million dollar fire-proof building to be erected on the site between Fayetteville and Salisbury Streets. The building is to be completed by January 1, 1913.

A contract has been secured by John T. McKinney, of Lynchburg, Va., for building an extension of the Durham and South Carolina Railway from Rosal, N. C., to Fuquay Springs. Equipment is being shipped to begin work on same.

The bust of the Grand Master of Masons, Samuel Johnston, once Governor of the State and its first United States Senator, is to be unveiled in the rotunda of the Capitol during the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Masons in Raleigh in January.

The Raleigh Board of Aldermen have the budget of city finances for the next year, setting aside for all departments of the government $1,374,411, as compared with $1,364,650 expended last year. The biggest item is $2,500 for street improvement.

The Eastern North Carolina Christian Conference has been in session at Catawba Springs Church, near McCullers, during the past week. Forty churches were represented in the conference. The opening address was delivered by Rev. G. R. Underwood, of Sanford.

Governor Kitchin has fixed Friday, December 13th, as the date of the electrocution of L. M. Sandlin, the Wilmington wife murderer, who secured an additional lease on life through his appeal to the Supreme Court in the cancellation of the date for his death fixed by the trial judge.

Raleigh has secured a branch of the Durham Hosiery Mills Company through the acquiring of the mill in the Myatt building, South Blount Street. The plant is being put in order and is to be used especially for looping work. It will be managed from the Durham office under the direction of Mr. Claborn M. Carr.

The work of the stringing of the wires of the Carolina Power & Light Company, between Raleigh and Henderson, is about completed, as is the sub-station building near the Harnett Mills, the equipment being now in process of installation, and the entire work is expected to be completed and the current turned on by December 1st.

In an affray in Swift Creek Township Friday, in which razors and pistols took an active part, one negro was shot, and nine arrested and brought before Justice of the Peace Bledsoe Saturday. Two were bound over to court and gave bond for $50 each, another was charged with using a razor and gave a bond of $50 for his appearance.

Raleigh has had as a visitor for the past few days Mr. E. N. Murti, a native Hindu, who is on a trip through the South studying cotton culture. He brought strong letters of introduction from prominent cotton firms in New York, telling of his education in textile work and of his intention to put into use what he learns here in his home in India.

The Board of Commissioners Monday made provision to have dispensaries for the free examination and treatment of hookworm disease for a period of five or six weeks. Five points in the county will be selected, and on one day of each week the dispensaries at each place will be open. Twenty counties have now provision for this dispensary work.

Mr. Hamilton Institutes Suit.

A suit entitled Rufus S. Hamilton vs. Henry C. Bridgers, has been instituted in the Wake County Superior Court. The action grows out of the accident of September 8th, when Mr. Bridgers' automobile ran over little Emma Hamilton, the daughter of Mr. Rufus Hamilton and inflicted painful injuries, which caused the child much pain and a serious spell of sickness.

Although no complaint has been filed, it is understood that damages will be asked in the sum of $10,000 and that it will be alleged the accident was due to reckless driving. It is understood that Mr. Hamilton denies the report that Mr. Bridgers employed a nurse and bore the expenses of the child's illness following the accident.

Josephine Swain Run Over by Automobile.

Josephine Swain, the twelve-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shelly Swain, of Raleigh, was run over Friday by Dr. W. C. Horton's automobile and sustained a broken leg. It seems that the child ran across the street just in front of Dr. Horton's machine and he claims he did not see her in time to stop the automobile.

A SEABOARD TRAIN WRECKED.

Engineer Killed and Others Hurt When Train Ran Into an Open Switch Near Columbia, S. C.

A Seaboard passenger train was wrecked at Swansea, near Columbia, S. C., early Monday morning when Engineer W. E. Pritchard lost his life and others were injured. Some one had broken the switch-lock and when the train ran into the open switch the engine turned over, pinning the engineer beneath it. In addition to the death of Mr. Pritchard, his fireman, Prince Davis, colored, was seriously injured and H. G. Freeman, express messenger, and T. W. Moore, mail clerk, were slightly hurt. None of the cars were derailed and no passengers were hurt.

A negro named Lawrence Robinson was chased down with blood hounds and has been placed in jail charged with the crime.

THE DR. McCULLERS CASE.

Mandamus Hearing Has Been Set for November 16.

The mandamus proceedings by which Dr. J. J. L. McCullers seeks to have the Board of County Commissioners of Wake County recognize him as County Superintendent of Health are now set for Thursday, November 16, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Judge Peebles, who is now in this district, will then be holding court at Lillington and if he can not reach Raleigh for the hearing it will be delayed until he can do so. The board of commissioners have appropriated $200 to conduct the fight against Dr. McCullers.

Tragedy at Corn Shucking.

Wednesday night, on the plantation of Henry Medlin, in the Zebulon section of Wake County, at a corn shucking, Charles Williams, colored, shot and instantly killed Mr. Medlin. Constable H. D. Medlin, cousin to the murdered man, was in the chase and shot at the negro twice, but without effect.

William is a bad negro and is wanted in Louisburg to finish a road contract.

Armstrong vs. Railroad.

Mrs. Bessie M. Armstrong, widow of the late W. W. Armstrong, who died as the result of injuries received on the railroad near the State's prison, several weeks ago, has instituted suit against the Seaboard Air Line and Southern Railway, and it is understood that in this case damages will be asked in the sum of $25,000.

Pearce Admitted to Bail.

Judge R. B. Peebles yesterday afternoon admitted to bail J. Hackney Pearce, Jr., a nineteen-year-old boy of Franklin County held by the coroner's jury for the killing of Alexander Macon on November 1st. Young Pearce will have to give a justified bond of $10,000.

Shaw Student Held for Forgery.

Tom Aldridge, of Goldsboro, N. C., a student at Shaw University, was arrested yesterday afternoon on a warrant issued by a magistrate of Goldsboro for forgery. Aldridge was carried back to Goldsboro to stand trial.

Booker Washington Loses His Case Against the New York Janitor.

The Court of Special Sessions in New York Monday discharged Chas. Ulrich, who was charged with assaulting Booker T. Washington, the noted negro educator, in New York, on March 19th last. Washington was laid up in a hospital in New York for several days. He afterwards brought suit against Ulrich. Ulrich claimed Washington was peeping in the house when he assaulted him. Washington claimed he was looking for a friend and got in the wrong doorway. The court acquitted Ulrich.

A Burglar's Awful Deed

may not paralyze a home so completely as a mother's long illness. But Dr. King's New Life Pills are a splendid remedy for women. "They gave me wonderful benefit in constipation and female trouble," wrote Mrs. M. C. Dunlap, of Leadhill, Tenn. If ailing, try them. 25c at all druggists.
