

The Caucasian AND RALEIGH ENTERPRISE.

Raleigh, N. C. November 30, 1911.

Entered at the Post-office in Raleigh, N. C. as second class mail matter.

Local Matters.

There were ten drunks in the Raleigh police court Monday.

Miss Beulah Miller, of Augusta, Mo., has been secured as the teacher of the Pleasant Grove School, in House Creek township, Wake county.

Mr. E. B. Barbee is confined at his home on North Blount Street by illness, having suffered a nervous breakdown.

Mr. W. R. Yearby, of this city, died at Rex Hospital Monday evening at the age of 42 years. He had been suffering for some weeks past with a complication of diseases.

The Wake County teachers will meet in Raleigh next Saturday at noon, this being decided on in order that they may attend the sessions of the State Teachers' Assembly.

Mrs. F. A. Whitaker, who lived seven miles south of Raleigh, died Tuesday morning following a short attack of pneumonia. She is survived by her husband and four children.

Dr. J. Y. Joyner, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, has returned from Chicago, where he went to a meeting of the Committee of Eleven of the National Council of Education.

Sidney Salmon, a Confederate veteran about 70 years of age, died Friday at the Soldiers' Home. He came to the Home seven years ago from Chatham County, and had been a member of Company G, Fortieth North Carolina Regiment.

Charged with seduction under promise of marriage in Cleveland County, Rowland Lovelace was carried back to Shelby Monday to stand trial. He is a young white man and had come to Wake County and entered the employ of a lumber company in St. Matthew's Township.

Two special terms of Superior Court have been ordered by Governor Kitchin. One for Gaston county, January 8, for one week for trial of civil cases, Judge B. F. Long to preside, and a special term for Perquimans county, January 1, for one week, Judge G. W. Ward to preside.

The North Carolina Teachers' Assembly held its opening session last night in the Auditorium. President Chas. L. Coon, of Wilson, N. C., delivered the opening address. Today the Thanksgiving sermon will be preached by Rev. John E. White, of Atlanta, Ga., and tonight Hon. Champ Clark will deliver an address.

Ross French, the Cherokee Indian, paid the penalty of his crime for the murder of Miss Ethel Shuler, of Swain county, last September, in the electric chair last Friday morning. This was the eighth electrocution in North Carolina since the law provided that electrocution in the State's Prison take the place of hanging.

Dr. Archibald Henderson, Professor of Mathematics in the University of North Carolina, was awarded the Patterson Cup, on Monday night of the first meeting of the State Literary and Historical Association, his life and works of Bernard Shaw being pronounced the best piece of literary work done in North Carolina during the year.

The two days session of the State Literary and Historical Assembly came to an end Tuesday night after the most successful meeting of its history. The principal event of the evening was an address by Senator Henry C. Lodge, of Boston, on the "Constitution and its Makers." It was a great address and he was heard with keen attention and enjoyment. After the speaking a reception was given the Assembly by Judge and Mrs. R. W. Winston.

Among the five State cases to be argued on appeal in the Supreme Court this week, that of State vs. Charles Murphey, from Yancey County, is of special interest, the prisoner being under sentence to be electrocuted for the murder of John Simmons December 21, 1910. This is the case in which Murphey became enraged at the deceased because he refused to give him a drink of whiskey when they met in the public road. Murphey shot the old man three times. He set up the plea of insanity due to epileptic fits and also pleads defective verdict by the jury in that it was not specified that their verdict was murder in the first degree.

Mr. C. E. Upchurch Passed Away Tuesday.

Mr. Clarence E. Upchurch died Tuesday at his residence on North East Street at the age of forty-six years. He was a native of Wake County, but resided in Durham many years ago. For the past six years he has conducted a mercantile store in Raleigh on Hargett Street.

White Slave Trader Begins Sentence. Charles Noell was brought to Raleigh Monday from Lexington to enter upon his fifteen-year sentence to the penitentiary as the principal in the "white slave" case there, in which he and his wife were convicted of enticing two young girls from Davidson County to Charlotte. Mrs. Noell is to serve five years for her part in this crime. She has an infant just a week old, so that she can not be brought to the State Prison yet.

A Series of Murders at Blewitts Falls.

A special from Wadesboro to Tuesday's Charlotte Observer says:

"News has reached here that another murder was committed at Blewitts Falls last night. Your correspondent has been unable to secure any details or to get the report verified. This makes three murders at the Falls in the last few days, there having been one Saturday afternoon last week. Only the coroner and one or two other people here knew anything about the killing Saturday afternoon until this morning. It seems that whiskey and women are the cause of all these murders. It is reported that blind tiger liquor is plentiful in that community."

Wright Brothers Buy Aviation Grounds at Kitty Hawk.

A press dispatch sent out from New York Tuesday says:

"It is announced here that Orville and Wilbur Wright have purchased one thousand acres of land at Kitty Hawk, N. C., on which they will establish a permanent aeroplane testing ground.

"The tract is composed of giant sand dunes and wood land."

Italy, Turkey, and The Hague.

The occasion offers an excellent opportunity for testing not only the effectiveness of the arbitration machinery which the world has set up at the Dutch capital, but also the sincerity of the world's governments in agreeing to The Hague conventions. Briefly the questions in dispute between the two nations may be stated as follows: (1) Has the Italian government any legitimate grievance against Turkey in the administration of Tripoli which the latter has refused to remedy? (2) Has any power, even if it has grievance, a right on that ground to declare war at short notice, and to seize territory without exhausting every possible peaceful means of settling the dispute? (3) Do any grievance, however great, justify a power in disregarding two of its own treaties with the country against whom it has a grievance, and in ignoring its own adherence to The Hague peace agreements? The Italian point of view is that it has legitimate grievances against Turkey for which no adequate remedy has been furnished. It being impossible to get from the government at Constantinople any satisfaction for alleged injuries and grievances, Italy, in order to protect her subjects and property in Tripoli, claims she had no alternative but to seize and occupy the territory already allotted to her by the consent of the great European powers. She contends further that if her seizure of Tripoli is a violation of her own treaties and the general agreement at The Hague, she has done nothing worse or more culpable than France has done in Morocco, Germany in China, in seizing Kiauchow, and Great Britain in South Africa.—From "The Progress of the World," in the American Review of Reviews for December.

Would Criminally Prosecute the Trust in North Carolina.

Charlotte Observer.]

Dr. H. Q. Alexander, President of the North Carolina division of the Farmers' Union, has been in conference with a number of the leading tobacco growers of the State for the past several days and also by letter with National President, C. S. Barrett, of Union City, Ga., with the view to appointing a special committee from the Farmers' Union to go to Washington at the earliest possible moment for the purpose of urging upon President Taft and Attorney-General Wickersham the need of action by the proper authorities in this State against the American Tobacco Company, the so-called "Tobacco Trust."

"If we can secure the proper support from those in authority, we will take the matter up with District Attorney A. E. Holton," declared Dr. Alexander yesterday, "and criminal prosecutions will be brought against the officials of the corporation in the western district of North Carolina."

Likes the Plan.

Dr. Olen A. West, Secretary of the Hookworm Commission for Tennessee has been in North Carolina for a week looking into the plans of the free dispensaries for hookworm treatment operated under the direction of Dr. John A. Ferrall, Secretary of the Hookworm Commission in North Carolina. He was greatly pleased and says he expects to inaugurate these free dispensaries in Tennessee.

A Burglar's Awful Deed may not paralyze a home so completely as a mother's long illness. But Dr. King's New Life Pills are a splendid remedy for women. "They gave me wonderful benefit in constipation and female trouble," wrote Mrs. M. C. Dunlap, of Leadhill, Tenn. If ailing, try them. 25c at all druggists.

THE SOUTH HER OWN WORST ENEMY.

It Should Send Men to Congress Who Would Look Out for Her Interests.

Albemarle Chronicle.]

The Baltimore Manufacturers' Record, in giving the causes of the low price of cotton, concludes with this paragraph:

"And the unwitting enemies of cotton, too, have been the legislators who, by unwise laws enacted or threatened, and by tariff agitation, have endangered the cotton mill interests of the country. Let the cotton mills and other industrial interests of the South suffer from tariff agitation or other causes, and not only will the demand for cotton be lessened, but thousands of industrial workers will be forced back to the farms to become cotton producers."

It is a fact that known to everyone of any information that the Manufacturers' Record is the foremost authority on all matters pertaining to the South's industries and material advancement, and with such evidence before us, no one can reasonably deny that the tariff blundering of the last Congress is largely responsible for the present depressed cotton market by endangering the mill business by threatened free trade, thus causing the millers to combine to force down the price of cotton so that they could lay in a cheap supply and shield themselves for a season at least against the uncertainties that are ever rife when the tariff agitators are rampant. It is the claim of the Manufacturers' Record that the South's worst enemies are the men elected by the South itself to make her laws, and the above is in line with such claim. The tariff is a very substantial business safeguard, yet an extremely sensitive one; and every time other parts of the country combine with the South to elect enough Democrats, hereditary enemies of the tariff, to make an attack upon that bulwark of safety all classes alike, the whole country experiences a period of business lassitude and anxiety, such as we are now in the midst of. History having proven this to be true, it is strange why the South will content itself to see the politicians ply a profitable calling by holding up alluring pictures, making loud but unsupported claims for objects to be attained, and beating the bushes to frighten the careless and unthinking voters into line to vote the Democratic ticket.

All of Them Simply Trying to Fool the People.

Elkin Times.]

Governor Kitchin's enemies are having a good deal to say about the failure of the Governor to put the trusts out of business. It might be well that such talk be indulged in with much care, for Mr. Kitchin is not the only man in the State who has a barren record as trust-buster. His predecessors, ex-Governors Aycock and Glenn, had the same opportunity to try their hands at putting the trusts out of business as Mr. Kitchin has. The truth of the business is, there has been more bluster than real effort in this trust-busting business. The politicians don't want to drive the trusts out of North Carolina; they're just trying to fool the people, and the people are easily fooled.

Teeth Pulled, Cutting a New Set.

A case unprecedented in the history of this section of the country for the past 15 or 20 years is that of a man cutting a new set of teeth at the age of 53 years. Such was the case of Mr. Henry Swanson, who is cutting a new set of teeth. Mr. Swanson had his teeth pulled in the spring of 1910. Mr. Swanson was born in Franklin County, near Louisville, and came here about ten years ago, and has made his home in or near this city ever since, and is now working in the coffin factory in Whitakers and comes here every Sunday to see his family, who live at South Rocky Mount.—Rocky Mount Telegram.

Was a Bad State of Affairs Under Democratic Rule.

"In an election held in Baltimore yesterday, officials were prepared to take pictures of persons suspected of attempting to cast more than one ballot. It was rumored that ten Burns detectives had been employed to watch for violations of the election law. Looks like a bad state of affairs, to say the least."—Wadesboro Ansonian.

Yes, a bad state of affairs, sure enough. But such state of affairs grew up under Democratic rule, and as soon as methods were employed to insure honest voting, the whole State went Republican. And the same safeguard of elections might be employed with equal success in other States.—Albemarle Chronicle.

PUBLICATION OF SUMMONS.

NORTH CAROLINA—Wake County.

In the Superior Court—Before Millard Mial, Clerk.

John S. Johns, Solomon Freeman, and Rena Freeman, his wife, Dennis Williams and Georgia Williams, his wife, Ezzetzer Stewart,

C., and more particularly bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

Adjoining the lands of S. G. Holleman and others, and beginning at a stake—the corner of S. G. Holleman—thence north 88 degrees, east twenty-four and three-fifths (24 3/5) poles to a stake, the corner of S. G. Holleman, thence south 11 degrees, west twelve and one-half (12 1/2) poles to a stake; thence south 88 degrees, west twenty-four and three-fifths (24 3/5) poles to a stake—S. G. Holleman's line; thence north seven degrees, east twelve and one-half (12 1/2) poles to the beginning; containing two acres more or less. That the summons for the above-named defendants has been returned by the sheriff of Wake County with this endorsement thereon: "After exercising due diligence the defendants are not to be found in Wake County." Said sale is also to be made for the purpose of making assets to pay the debts of the said Allen Stewart.

You are, therefore, notified to appear before the Clerk of Wake Superior Court on the 11th day of December, 1911, and answer, demur or plead to the petition which is now on file in the office of said clerk, otherwise, the plaintiffs will apply to the court for an order directing the sale of the land hereinbefore described, and the appointment of a commissioner to make the sale and execute deed to the purchaser.

MILLARD MIAL, Clerk Wake Superior Court.

J. C. L. HARRIS, Att'y.
