

THE REPUBLICAN EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF WAKE COUNTY ISSUES OPEN LETTER.

They are Opposed to Turning the County Organization Over to the Little Crowd that Bolted our Last County Convention--Instead of Building up the Party the Bolters Have Been Doing all in their Power to Discredit the County and State Organization in Order to get Control of the Party.

To the Republicans of Wake County: We, your Executive Committee of Wake County, notice that Mr. W. J. Andrews, of Raleigh, is sending out circular letters over Wake County announcing that he is a candidate for County Chairman, and in said circular he says that he is willing to give his time and energy to build up the party in Wake County.

shown by his acts that he was willing for the majority to rule. The Republicans of Wake County are not in favor of Caesar rule. Mr. Andrews wants honor from the many to serve the few. Mr. Lester F. Butler, our present County Chairman, is the man who is with the people and has always worked hard for the party in the county and State and Nation, always willing for the majority to rule in county, State and Nation.

Take the case, Republicans of Wake County, and we will abide by your decision. EVERETT T. BANKS, A. D. UPCHURCH, W. H. HESTER, R. L. SORRELL, CHAS. E. McNAMARA, Members Republican Executive Committee of Wake County.

FAVORS PRESENT ORGANIZATION.

Republican Nominee for the Legislature Does Not Think the Republican Party Should be Turned Over to the Element that Bolted the Wake County Convention Two Years Ago.

Editor The Caucasian:—I see Mr. W. J. Andrews is sending out circulars announcing that he is a candidate for the next County Chairman, stating that he is willing to give his time, energy, etc.; also he thinks there should be an aggressive campaign waged against the Democrats.

I agree with Mr. Andrews' in the latter, and am also glad he is willing to help in the fight. But I do not agree with him and his co-workers in trying to change our county organization, for we have as good a Chairman as we can get. I have never known him (Lester F. Butler) to bolt a convention because the majority's views and his were not the same, but would peacefully submit to the will of the people and do what he could for the benefit of the party.

Who are Mr. Andrews' most ardent supporters? Aren't they the old referee and Duncan crowd? I think it is that way in my precinct. The people know as long as we submit to the rule of the old referee system we need not expect to grow as a great party. But if the people will rule themselves and make a party for the people, then we may expect success, for there are scores of Democrats who will join the Republican party as soon as they are convinced that we are in earnest, and determined that the people shall have a voice in their affairs I think we would make a great mistake to change either our County or State Chairman for they are men that spare neither brain nor brawn for the success of our party.

J. H. ARNOLD, Roger's Store, N. C. [Mr. Arnold, the author of the above article, was one of the Republican nominees for the Legislature two years ago.]

DOESN'T FAVOR MR. ANDREWS. This Republican Wants a County Chairman That Favors Majority Rule.

Mr. Editor:—I received a letter from Mr. W. J. Andrews sometime ago and I didn't know him, so I have been waiting to find out who he was; and from all reports, I can spot him as one of the bolters of last election, or one of them that don't want the majority to rule.

Mr. Editor, when I vote for a man I want him to be a Republican. I don't want him to be on one side of the fence one time and the next time on the opposite side; and if he gets my vote, he must stay with us all the time. I have never voted for one yet that was not true to our party, and I never expect to if I can help it. I can't serve two masters. So those that want my support when the political pot is boiling must pop up their heads on one side or do without my support.

A SUBSCRIBER. Carpenter, N. C., March 30, 1912. Democratic Bad Roads in Caswell County.

The Union Messenger says: "We are just now paying the heaviest bad road tax of the year. Commerce, so far as Caswell County is concerned, is at a standstill. Lamp oil is reported at 25 cents per gallon wood cannot be purchased here in town at $5 per cord and other necessities of life cannot be obtained at any price— all on account of bad roads.

have only had one member from our county in the Legislature in twelve years, and then his own Democratic friends were the first to cuss him for the road law he enacted.

Now, at a time when men are cool and deliberate after witnessing the wide discrimination between the two administrations they are ready and anxious to put such men as Hon. J. M. Gudger back to a private life and let such men as Hon. John G. Grant, or some other good and true Republican represent us in the next Congress. Our loyal Republicans in Clay are standing for Hon. John M. Morehead as a unit for State Chairman; also for Hon. Thomas Settle for the nominee for Governor. At the name of Hon. Marion Butler for National Committeeman, we all feel like saying: Well done, thou good and faithful servant, thou didst lead us to victory once in North Carolina; so go before us again out of the Egypt of Democracy.

In conclusion, permit me to say: We think that Colonel Roosevelt is the ideal man of the Nation. The laboring class are for him and nearly both Democrats and Republicans are anxious for him to be the nominee for President.

Wishing The Caucasian much success and extending my thanks for the good work it is doing, I am, Respectfully, M. L. COLEMAN, Hayesville, N. C., March 28, 1912.

LETTER FROM CLAY COUNTY.

A County That Believes in Republican Principles and Votes Accordingly—Favors Morehead, Settle, and Butler.

Mr. Editor Caucasian:—As I have not seen anything from Clay County in your hustling paper, I will send you a few lines.

While Clay County is one of the smallest counties in the State, situated in the extreme western end and bounded on the south by Towns County, Georgia, and on the north by the rugged peaks of the Tusquitee Mountains, with the Hiwassee River dancing down the valley near the center of the county from east to west. We have some as true and tried Republicans as there are in the State—men who read and study for themselves and who cannot be deceived by every wind of doctrine.

In the campaign of 1900 when the Aycock and Simmons crowd took for their issue the negro and the amendment to the constitution, they deceived many of the white voters of the State and with a large negro vote they were able to carry the State for Aycock and the amendment, but we defeated both Aycock and the amendment and elected our District Senator and our member to the Legislature and we have been able in every election from then to the present to repeat the good work with the exception of one election. The Democrats like the paper, but if the Democrats get much more control of our government I will have to quit paying for it, for I won't be able, as I am farming and the price of cotton is an important matter with me. I truly hope that Mr. Morehead and Mr. Duncan have not compromised. I haven't the confidence in Mr. Duncan and would not vote for him any more than I would for Senator Simmons. I have talked with Republicans in Mr. Duncan's county, and from what they say, he is dead politically. I think we should have some of the best men in the party as leaders if we are ever to do anything for the good of the majority of the people.

Some of our people need to read more and need educating. Some won't read any of any kind but listen to the bosses. I have been to the polls and voted in this precinct when there was no one to vote the Republican ticket but myself.

Now, if you see fit and want to publish what I have written, you can do so. I live on my own land and have paid my Democratic taxes. A Republican, J. F. RHODES, Riverdale, N. C., March 30, 1912.
