(Smithfield Herald.) Mr. Roswell Smith, who has been serving for some time as Deputy Sheriff in Banner Township, has left for parts unknown, and behind him is a shortage of twelve hundred and thirty-three dollars. He had been collecting taxes, getting some weeks only one or two hundred dollars a week. The last week in April he collected a large amount as several leading men waited almost to May 1st before paying their taxes. On May 4th he gave a check in settlement with the sheriff for about fourteen hundred dollars on the bank at Benson. He then left the county and the check went to protest, as he had only two hundred dollars in the bank. His bondsmen are Messrs. P. P. Allen, Junius A. Massengill, Lonnie Surles and A. D. Tart. It is said he had been living a fast life with cigarettes, whiskey drinking, following fast women and card playing. He was a poker player. It is reported that he went to Fayetteville frequently, carrying some of his chums with him and sometimes spending as much as a hundred dollars in a single night.
