

DENVER POST IS FOR ROOSEVELT.

Every Man Who Casts His Vote for Roosevelt Will Be Doing a Thing He May Well Be Proud Of.

The Denver Post, formerly anti-Progressive newspaper in Colorado, is now favoring Colonel Roosevelt.

The change in policy came following the speech of Colonel Roosevelt after he was shot in Milwaukee.

The Post in its announcement said:

"You cannot read the speech Theodore Roosevelt made in Milwaukee after he had been shot without a jump rising in your throat and a surging of blood through your body that leaves you flushed and angry and proud in its sweep of high emotion.

"Think of his policies; choose whatever leader is best suited to your temper; but never for a moment allow yourself to underestimate the hold on the people of his country of the man who could talk as Theodore Roosevelt talked last night while the wound of the bullet gnawed at his flesh and the blood soaked through his clothes so that they who listened to him could see its stains.

"It may be that Roosevelt will be placed again in the White House to finish the work upon which he has set his heart. It may be that the fugitive bullet of this coward of Milwaukee will prove more serious than any of us will allow ourselves to think. What to-morrow has lurking for the least or the greatest of us not any of us can tell.

"But every man who casts his vote for Roosevelt in November will be doing a thing he may well be proud of to his last day and leave it as a badge and boast of honor to the children that shall follow him in life."

ROOSEVELT THANKS FRIENDS.

Issues Letter of Gratitude and Answers All Messages in Reference to the Assault on Him.

New York, Oct. 28.—A general statement in behalf of Colonel Roosevelt, expressing his gratitude to persons whose letters or telegrams in reference to the attack upon him in Milwaukee have remained unanswered, was issued yesterday from the Progressive National Headquarters. It was as follows:

"Colonel Roosevelt wishes to take this method of expressing his very deep appreciation of the multitude of letters and telegrams he has received since the shooting. The number was so very large, many thousands all told, that it was a physical impossibility for him to even attempt to acknowledge each individually and while the endeavor has been to have some answer sent to each, yet in the confusion it is probable that some telegrams and letters have been mislaid or that the addresses of the senders have not been found. He trusts that in any case where this has happened, the sender will pardon the failure to answer in view of the circumstance as set forth above. He again wishes to state how grateful he is for all these expressions of good will."

CUBA IN A TURMOIL.

May Be General Uprising on Election Day, Which is To-morrow.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 28.—Officials here welcome the announcement from Havana that the leaders of the two political factions have undertaken to abandon the pre-election mass meeting, which have resulted in several serious clashes. The impression prevails here that the dangers of outbreak on a large scale has been merely averted, and unless there is a decided change in the leaders' attitude, trouble may be expected after election day Friday. Though business interests in Cuba are believed aligned with the conservative party, the liberals have heretofore shown such strength that their triumph at the polls is expected by many.

Drastic restriction of the registration lists, which would exclude a large proportion of the liberal element, may operate to turn the tide in favor of the conservatives. In this there lies danger, the officials here believe, for they fear that the Zayistas are almost certain to break into open rebellion if the election judges undertake to draw the lines against them.

President Taft is in close touch with the State, War and Navy Departments in their plans to adopt every precaution to insure speedy and effective intervention in Cuba, should conditions demand it.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 28.—The conviction of William Breese and Joseph Dickerson on an indictment charging conspiracy to embezzle from the First National Bank of Asheville, N. C., was approved by the Supreme Court to-day.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 28.—Contributions to the National Prohibition party's campaign were $20,035.38, according to a report of Treasurer H. P. Faris. The expenditures were placed at $18,232.41. No contributions over $1,000 were received, Mr. Faris stated.

GEORGE G. THOMPSON MURDERED.

Was Killed by His Secretary Who Had Been on a Debauch for Several Days.

Greensboro, N. C., Oct. 29.—Geo. G. Thompson, division freight agent of the Southern Railway, with offices here, was shot and killed by W. E. Blair, his secretary, shortly after noon to-day. The shooting occurred at the home of Blair, in a fashionable section of the city, and has caused a big local sensation.

Blair was taken in custody by a policeman and accompanied by his wife, went to police headquarters. A doctor was summoned immediately afterwards and an effort is now being made to remove him to a local sanitarium for treatment. It is said he is suffering from a debauch of several days.

Mr. Thompson and his family lived in Raleigh for a number of years and were universally liked.

LIEUT. BECKER FOUND GUILTY.

Will Probably Be Sentenced to the Electric Chair for Causing Death of Rosenthal.

The jury in the case of Police Lieutenant Charles Becker, of New York City, charged with the murder of Gambler Herman Rosenthal, returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree at an early hour Friday morning. The jury had been out about eight hours.

Becker's attorney asked for a stay of sentence as he wished to appeal the case to a higher court. Two of the accomplishments had been promised immunity to turn State's evidence, but there are two or three others to be charged for complicity in the crime.

Oldest Paper to Suspend.

(From the Fourth Estate.)

It is reported from China that the oldest newspaper in the world, The Pekin Gazette, is about to suspend publication. The first number appeared in 911 A. D. and since 1351, more than a century before the discovery of America, it has appeared regularly.

The Pekin Gazette has published a daily budget of the imperial court news and has been a repository of edicts from the throne, memorials from Provincial Governors and reports from Chinese officials.

The Chinese government will now supplant the publication by The Government Gazette, which will be much larger and conducted along more modern lines. It will be the official government organ. The disappearance of The Pekin Gazette is one of the signs of the times, illustrating the mighty changes that are coming to pass in China.

THE TAFT-SETTLE CONVENTION.

Hickory-Times Mercury.]

We call the Convention at Charlotte by the above name because District Attorney Holton made Taft the party, and District Attorney Skinner, introducing him, said Settle was the platform within himself.

There were ten of us delegates there, but only three were allowed to pass by the guardian angel and get in through the pearly gates into the holy of holies,—the floor of the convention.

We reached there Tuesday about 1 o'clock. The leaders were there. Mr. Morehead seemed to want harmony, but some of the committee and A. E. Holton seemed bent on reading a majority out, and did. Holton was mad.

We were told as soon as we reached there, that unless we agreed to support Taft, we could not enter and participate in the convention. So rather than go back on the instructions of our people at home, prove traitor to them, and commit treason against representative government, we stayed out.

Wednesday the first thing the State Committee, the creature of the party, the people composing it, did, was to read six of its own number out. Dr. Mott introduced that resolution. The next thing was to read everybody out of the party who favored Roosevelt. Hon. Tom Settle did that—Tom is opposed to prohibition when it comes to drinking liquor, but favors prohibition when it comes to the Republicans sending delegates to their own convention unless they suit Tom.

So, after getting the majority out, the minority held the convention. They got all who would put on a badge and go in to swell the number. There were men in there who were not delegates. At no time did we hear them cheering for Mr. Taft. They didn't even wear their convention badges home, for 90 per cent of the folks are for Roosevelt. Mr. Morehead admitted that 85 or 90 per cent were for him.

Resigns Office to Support Roosevelt.

(Washington (D. C.) Times.)

Charles F. Kincheloe, of Quincy, Ill., who, after over twelve years' service under McKinley, Roosevelt and Taft, as an assistant attorney to the Attorney-General, resigned his position to accept the Progressive nomination for Congress in his home district, the Fifteenth Illinois, has just returned to Washington to close up his connection with the Department of Justice preparatory to entering upon a vigorous campaign. Mr. Kincheloe says the depth and breadth of the Progressive movement through the Central West, and especially in Illinois, is amazing, and to a man from the East utterly incomprehensible. When he left Washington to respond to the demand that he lead the Progressive campaign in his Congressional district, he felt he was making a pure sacrifice in behalf of the cause which his conscious compels him to espouse.

But, upon coming in contact with the people, he declares himself convinced that he has an excellent chance of election and that the State of Illinois will cast its electoral vote for Theodore Roosevelt.

This, Mr. Kincheloe says, is the expressed view not only of Progressives, but also of many old-line Republicans and Democrats.

One of the more significant features of the situation, Mr. Kincheloe says, is the large numbers of Republicans and Democrats who have cut loose from their old party affiliations and have cast their lot with Roosevelt and the Progressive cause.

The New Boots and Shoes.

The new boots and shoes show a decided tendency to avoid the freakish, both in shape and materials. That they also show consideration of comfort, as well as grace, is another cheering item. Shoe education is making much the same advance as corset education, and suggestions garnered from the specialists are being incorporated into regular lines. Fashion may—does in fact—call for pointed toes, but the educated manufacturer knows feet of flesh and blood as well as he knows wooden lasts, and he artistically widens and rounds the toe so that we may follow Fashion—in comfort. To be correctly shod this winter a woman must wear boots—no slippers or pumps—in the street, even with her most elaborate calling gowns. This seems the most ordinary sort of common-sense, but last winter the rule was so woefully transgressed that Fashion, in the cause of good taste and general fitness, feels called upon to emphasize it this year. Young women who display gauze stockings and pumps this winter will incur criticism, not only in the name of health, but also of Fashion—perhaps the latter will be a more potent authority.—"The Winter Fashions in Shoes and Stockings," in The Ladies World for November.

Democratic Party Facing a Split.

Greensboro Record (Dem.)]

North Carolina is going to keep on fooling with the primary business until some day the Democratic party will be cut up into two parts. Anything is bad when it causes even friction in the ranks. After friction comes a genuine rucus—a split. Pull together if success is desired.

"PORK BARREL SIMMONS."

What Do North Carolina Democrats Think of Simmons, Penrose, Archbold and Standard Oil?

Winston Sentinel.]

An attempt is to be made to impeach Senator Penrose, the Pennsylvania boss and representative of special privilege.

It was to Penrose that Archbold, of the Standard Oil crowd, sent a letter with a check of $25,000 enclosed.

Penrose represents the interests in the United States Senate, where he has Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, for an intimate friend and helper.

How do Carolinians like the association. How do they like the statement of Gibson Gardner, press correspondent at Washington, that he heard Simmons ask Penrose, "What do you want us to do?" Do you need any votes?"

Does North Carolina want any longer a Simmons to represent her in the Senate? Are not her citizens ready to get rid of this friend of Penrose, Bailey and Lorimer?

Pork Barrel Simmons is one of the men that monopolists desire to have in the Senate. Is not a man known by the company he keeps?—

Women Will Vote for President in Six States.

In the general election November 5th women will vote in six States—California, Washington, Idaho, Colorado, Wyoming, and Utah,—a fact which campaign managers of the various parties have taken into consideration. While the Progressive party is the only one of the three leading political organizations to give its official stamp of approval to the equal suffrage movement, the Republican and Democratic leaders have shown their appreciation of the importance of that movement by enlisting the services of women workers with an eye to the result in the six States in which women have been granted the full rights of the franchise. Those six States have a total representation in the Electoral College of 38 votes, divided as follows: California, 13; Colorado, 7; Idaho, 4; Utah, 4; Washington, 7; Wyoming 3.—Statesville Landmark.

SERVIANS DEFEAT THE TURKS.

In the Battle at Kumanovia the Turks Lose Ten Thousand Killed and Wounded—Servians Lose Five Hundred Killed and Two Thousand Wounded.

London, England, Oct. 29.—The long awaited battle which will decide the fate of Turkey now is being fought. The army under Nazim Pasha, Minister of War and Commander-in-Chief, is engaged, and according to Constantinople officials dispatches, the operations are favorable to the Ottomans.

Vranaya, Oct. 29.—At the battle of Kumanovia the Servians lost 500 killed and 2,000 wounded.

The Turks lost 10,000 killed or wounded.

All accounts of the fight pay tribute to the valor of the Servian officers and men. Lieutenant Milich, commanding an infantry company, blew out his brains rather than obey a command to retire from an exposed position; whereupon his men charged the Turks and all of them were killed.

The cavalry with the King's brothers at the head, charged repeatedly. The commander-in-chief, Crown Prince Alexander, frequently was on the firing line and entered the town while the battle was in full swing. Wherever he passed the soldiers, even wounded, cheered.

Standard Oil to Support Wilson to Try to Defeat Roosevelt.

(Washington (D. C.) Times.)

John D. Archbold is reported on the ocean, returning "full of fight." The head of the great Oil Trust is taking the field in the open against the man whom he and the other trusts most fear. Archbold will fight Roosevelt and the Progressives and lend his aid to Wilson. The sooner he arrives and throws the weight of the Standard Oil millions against the movement for the rule of the people the better for the people and their candidate.

Laughs at Daniels' Prophecy.

Charlotte Observer.]

Mr. Josephus Daniels, of the publicity department of the Democratic National Committee, figures it out that at the rate of gain in Vermont, "Wilson and Marshall will carry practically every State in the Union in November." But no such ratio of gain is going to be maintained. The bottom fell out of Maine only Monday. Claims of that sort will be simply laughed at by the country, as they ought to be.

The feet cannot be kept warm unless the blood circulates freely in the extremities; and that will not be the case if the boots, shoes, or stockings are tight.

Mr. Wilson is opposed to prohibition, labor unions, and pensioning soldiers. But he believes in pensioning big teachers.—Hickory Mercury.

NOMINATED BY BLIND TIGERS.

Charged the Democratic Candidate For Senator in New Hanover Was Made Chairman by Solid Support of Blind Tigers.

The Senatorial fight in bringing to light some skeletons that have been hid in the Democratic closet. A citizen of Wilmington makes charges that place the Democratic Senatorial candidate and chairman in New Hanover County in a bad plight. The following story appeared as an advertisement in a recent issue of the Wilmington Star:

Cheep Slander of Our Foremost Citizen.

For thirty years Mr. Roosevelt has been engaged in active and energetic public work. Though delicate and sickly as a boy, he was able, by strong will power and good care, to build up a physique that not one man in ten thousand possesses. His life has been one of great and methodical industry, and of the most abstemious and temperate habits. Yet within the past few months a great number of his opponents have allowed themselves to be gulled by the cheap and false slander that he is an alcoholic inebriate. His public work has been singularly high-minded and habitually free from the private or personal motive. Yet his enemies have been accusing him of every kind of wild and distorted personal ambition on the one hand, or of base and mercenary relationships on the other hand. The simple fact is that the American people, in their hearts, know that such things are not true. We are all a good deal affected, in spite of ourselves, by the tone of the newspapers that we regularly read. And so there are people who have for a time allowed their own good sense to be obscured by malignant attacks upon Colonel Roosevelt which were inspired by enemies whose motives would not bear the light of day. Yet even these prejudice dreaders, when they stop to consider the Colonel's long career of wholesome public activity, are sure to perceive the danger of being unjust to our most distinguished living citizen.—From "The Progress of the World," in the American Review of Reviews for November.

Roosevelt Led in a Poll in Brooklyn, New York.

Charlotte Observer.]

A poll of the fourteen theaters in Brooklyn by a Taft newspaper gives Roosevelt 1,951 votes, Wilson, 1,669, and Taft 766.
