RALEIGH ENTERPRISE.

Raleigh, N. C., October 31, 1912.

Entered at the Post-office in Raleigh, N. C. as second class mail matter.

Local Matters.

Raleigh now has an automobile patrol wagon. The evil-doers will not get an easy ride until they strike the rock pile.

Ringling's Circus played to two large audiences in Raleigh Tuesday. This is the largest circus on the road and is the only circus that has been to Raleigh this season.

The tax books show a half million increase in the valuation of personal property in the city of Raleigh. This increase in the amount of taxes should reduce the city's debt, but will it?

Engineer J. T. Horton has secured through a jury in Wake Superior Court a verdict against the Seaboard Air Line for $7,500 damage he sustained through being scalded when a tube on the water or steam gauge on his engine exploded. The suit was for $50,000.

Len Jordan, colored, who has been separated from his wife, Fannie Jordan, for six months, walked into his wife's room Thursday night at McCullers, this county, and shot her in the head with a shot-gun, the wound causing death early Friday morning. The man is still at large.

Governor Kitchin granted Thursday a pardon for John Pharr, Guilford County, serving eight months for carrying concealed weapon, the pardon being on recommendation of the Greensboro recorder, chief-of-police, the prisoner's wife who was the prosecuting witness. There was also a pardon for Lester McCaulley, of Orange County, who has served four of seven years for larceny. The prisoner was only thirteen years old when convicted and sentenced.

A new enterprise for Raleigh began operations Friday. It is the Raleigh Custom Shirt Manufacturing Company, which opens in temporary quarters at the corner of Wilmington and Martin Streets, and has now in course of construction an excellent permanent home building on Wilmington Street, near Morgan. Mr. C. R. Towles is vice-president and general manager. He has brought Mr. Daniel Heith, of Baltimore, here as expert cutter, and has also a number of expert shirt makers who will give instructions in this art to women of Raleigh who undertake this work.

SHOOTING AT WAKE FOREST.

Frank Powers, Son of Dr. Powers, Seriously Wounded by Gordon Rhodes, a Freshman—Though His Victim a Hazer.

Wake Forest, N. C., Oct. 29.—Confronted by two masked men and armed for hazers, Gordon H. Rhodes, freshman of Kinston, about midnight shot and seriously wounded Frank Powers, son of Dr. J. B. Powers, of Wake Forest.

The shooting is in mystery at this hour, Powers being in no condition to make a statement and Rhodes having but a few facts to relate. Upset by threats of hazing for his freshness, and frightened by bulletins displayed with some conspicuousness about the campus, Rhodes says that he armed himself last night and attended a party, going home with a young lady. Upon his return from the social affair, he passed a clump of bushes near an old house and was met by the masked form of two men. He raised his pistol and fired, he declares, into the air. One of the boys fled, the other advanced. Again he shot, and Powers ran into the road falling and exclaiming: "I am shot."

The shooting attracted the attention of people in the houses and they came to the aid of the injured man. Rhodes called for physicians and Drs. Ruth, Carstarphen, Powers brother of the injured man, and Dr. Stewart attended him. They took him to the College Hospital and the examination showed that two balls took effect. One struck him in the left shoulder and the other in the left side.

Dr. Hubert Royster was called from Raleigh. The condition of Powers is considered serious, and he is not able to make any statement.

Rhodes declares that he was moved to arm himself by the threats received through letters, posters and general talk. This is not an uncommon custom about the college, and does not often cause any excitement. He declares that he never intended to shoot the men, and that both shots were meant to frighten the masked men.

Powers, who is the son of a practicing physician, is not a member of the student body and never has been. Whether his companion was or not, does not appear now. Powers is too ill to make a statement, and Rhodes does not know.

Wendell Farmer Killed by Falling Tree.

Mr. Harrison Hunnicutt, a farmer of Wendell, who was also engaged in the lumber business, was struck by a falling tree Monday and so badly injured that he died in a short while. He leaves a wife and several children.

Governor Orders Four Special Terms of Court.

Governor Kitchin Tuesday ordered four special terms of court, as follows:

Perquimans County, beginning December 30, for the trial of civil cases, Judge R. W. Whedbee presiding; two weeks.

Onslow County, beginning December 16, for the trial of civil cases, Judge Frank Carter presiding; one week.

CHAIRMAN BANKS ISSUES LETTER.

Watch the Bosses Next Tuesday and Vote for Roosevelt and the State and County Ticket.

Mr. Editor:—As Chairman of the Progressive party in Wake County, North Carolina, I want to warn the people of the county and State who are for Roosevelt and the Progressive ticket to watch the machine Republicans and the machine Democrats. My reason for writing this article is to let the people know that some are saying that Meares is coming down in favor of Tom Settle. Mr. Meares is still in the field, and all of the Progressive State and county candidate and Roosevelt electors will be to vote for on November 5, 1912. The loyal Republican and the loyal Democrats who love liberty realize that they are American citizens, and I am satisfied all they want is a square deal.

Voters of Wake County and North Carolina, if you love liberty and freedom, vote the Progressive ticket. If you want boss rule, vote the Taft ticket.

What I have said to one in this article, I say to all: watch the bosses in both the old parties and vote the Progressive ticket from Roosevelt down, and show the bosses that you are not in favor of a monarchical government, and peace will reign in America.

EVERETT T. BANKS, Chairman. Wake County, N. C.

"How Simmons Leaders Controlled New Hanover."

"To the Editor:—

"Much has been said concerning the control of the recent State Convention by partisans of Senator Simmons.

"In New Hanover a chairman of the County Convention was elected who had previously been nominated for State Senate, on account of the solid support of the one hundred or more blind tigers that then existed here (Judge Carter had not then reached Wilmington.) This gentleman was against Woodrow Wilson, which gave him the support of those feeling as he did in that matter. This gentleman was for Senator Simmons—with the combination of the three elements, control was easy indeed.

"The chairman was authorized to appoint delegates to the State and Congressional Conventions—the same delegates acted in both cases.

"The delegation was headed by a wealthy banker, whose friends do not claim that he has voted a straight Democratic ticket in ten years, but he had raised money to help the Simmons campaign, and was against Woodrow Wilson, and no further qualifications were necessary; he must and did go to Baltimore.

"The other delegates were selected with the idea of sending the banner to Baltimore, and helping Senator Simmons in every way possible. A few exceptions in the way of relatives and personal friends were made.

"The above statements are absolutely correct in every particular. Yours truly, THOS. K. WOODY. "September 24, 1912."

Let Democrats Sell as Well as Buy at Free Trade Rates.

Editor The Caucasian:—The News and Observer in its issue of October 24th carries the following editorial:

"The proposition to have Republicans buy goods at protective tariff rates and for Democrats at tariff for revenue only rates gets no response from Republicans. It is a knockout argument."

The News and Observer says this is a knock-out argument, but let's finish the argument and see who gets the "knock-out." We will propose that all those who agree with the News and Observer on their tariff-for-revenue-only, or free trade policy receive tariff-for-revenue-only wages and salaries, and tariff-for-revenue-only prices for the products of their farms; and that business men regulate their business down to a tariff-for-revenue-only basis, and factories receive tariff-for-revenue-only orders for their goods, and we will find the "knock-out" on the other side of the "argument," for that would be another experience exactly like that which we faced during the last Democratic administration when Grover Cleveland was President.

Is that response enough? And it comes from the Progressive side of the Republican faith. J. J. B. Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 29, 1912.

WANTED.—Man with horse and buggy to sell and collect. Write P. O. Box 203, Raleigh, N. C.

ROOSEVELT WILL POLL BIG VOTE.

Chairman Waiser and Other State Managers Issue Statement to the Voters of This State.

Editor The Caucasian:—Reports from a large per cent of the precincts in the State indicate that Roosevelt will receive 90 per cent of the former Republican vote and Meares a close second.

Hon. Iredell Meares is the Progressive and Roosevelt Republican candidate for Governor. Hon. Thomas Settle is the Taft candidate for Governor, and is against Theodore Roosevelt. See that you vote the Roosevelt electoral ticket, headed by Col. V. S. Lusk and Hon. Jake F. Newell, and the Roosevelt State ticket headed by Hon. Iredell Meares for Governor.

The Bull Moose is on the war-path and the elephant and donkey have made a desperate break for tall timber.

Yours for victory,

Zeb V. Waiser, Chairman, State Progressive Committee; Jas. N. Williamson, Jr., Roosevelt National Committeeman; Chas. H. Cowles, Roosevelt Republican State Committee; Richmond Pearson, National Committeeman.

Asheville Woman in Insane Hospital in Raleigh to Stand Trial for Murder.

Asheville, N. C., Oct. 26.—On the representation of Solicitor R. R. Reynolds, Judge Foushee yesterday issued an order to the effect that Mrs. Neta White Harrison be brought back here from the Insane Hospital at the State Penitentiary and stand trial for the alleged murder of her husband about a year ago. It is charged that the woman walked into the room where her husband, a railroad man, was sleeping, and shot him. She was adjudged insane and sent to the State Hospital for the Insane at Raleigh. Solicitor Reynolds says that she has now been pronounced sane, and will try her for the alleged murder here.

To Declare Preacher Judicially Dead.

Spartanburg, S. C., Oct. 26.—Thirteen years ago, Rev. W. P. Wolfe, a prominent Baptist minister of this city, left for Asheville. Since that day no word has come to his four children from their father and they never found any trace of him. Today Charles P. Wofford, attorney of this city, brought action, seeking to have the courts declare Rev. Mr. Wolfe judicially dead, in order that the children may dispose of three lots and two buildings left by the minister. The law of this State is that after a person has been away seven years without word to his family the courts may declare him legally dead. Should he return, however, he would not by law be permitted to regain his property, the value of which is approximately $5,000.
