

THE BATTLE STILL ON

Col. Roosevelt Says Fight Will go on and in the End the Cause Must Triumph

Chairman Dixon Says the Fight Has Just Begun—Says Plans for the Immediate Future Will Be Decided at the Meeting of the Progressive Committee in Chicago on December 10th.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Colonel Roosevelt surveyed the field of battle to-day and gathered as much of the story of yesterday's defeat as he could piece together. His lieutenants in each State wired to him their reports, in many cases incomplete, and to-night Colonel Roosevelt still was in doubt as to just what the Progressive party had been able to accomplish in its first campaign.

No Hint of Defeat in His Manner.

There was nothing of the aspect of a beaten general and no hint of defeat in his manner. Colonel Roosevelt said he wants to tell his supporters everywhere what he thinks of the outcome and the outlook. The only reason that he didn't do so to-night was that he had not the facts at hand.

"I want to find out just where we stand first," he exclaimed. "The returns are far from complete. When I have all the facts accurately, I shall make a statement."

The only thing which was accepted as a settled fact at Sagamore Hill to-day was that the fight was to go on. What methods Colonel Roosevelt will adopt are unknown, even to himself.

"Of course, the fight will go on," he said, with an air of finality. "In the end the cause must triumph."

Close friends of Colonel Roosevelt said he was not surprised at Governor Wilson's election, because he was at no time confident, they asserted, that the new party would be able to win its first fight. The showing which the party made, his friends said, had pleased rather than displeased its leader.

Colonel Roosevelt expects to drop back for the winter into the quiet life at home which he led before the campaign with trips to New York once or twice a week. He probably will be called upon once a month or oftener to make speeches, although he desires to avoid any long trips for many months to come.

Dixon Says Fight Has Just Begun.

New York, Nov. 6.—"We have ended the fight but the fight has just begun," said Senator Dixon, Chairman of the Progressive National Committee, to-day. "We shall not waste any time over yesterday's election, but shall begin at once the work of getting the new party in shape to accomplish results in the future. We have won second place as a party in the nation. What that really means is not realized, but when we go to Washington and ask recognition in Federal patronage and on all boards and committees which are apportioned between the two leading parties, our status will be made clear.

"Our plans for the immediate future will be decided at the meeting of the Progressive National Committee, which I have called for December 10th at Chicago. We will then take up the question of our representation in Congress, and what is to be done to increase the number of men there two years hence. With the election machinery in most States under our control jointly with the Democratic party, we should then be able to accomplish much more than in this election."

MARKETING COTTON IN TEXAS.

Preparations to Store the Staple Instead of Dumping it on the Market.

(From the Wall Street Journal.)

Throughout Texas preparations are being made for handling a large crop of cotton so as to avoid dumping it upon the market to the detriment of prices. Last year the State ginned 4,320,000 bales. Our Austin correspondent reports that additional warehouse room for storing the bales pending their marketing is being provided. The Farmers' Union alone in Texas has several hundred local warehouses available for the purpose, many of which hold from 100 to 1,000 bales each.

It is further reported that the movement of the commercial bodies of Texas to induce bankers of the State to lend money on distress cotton at 6 per cent during the coming season is meeting with a very favorable response. It is estimated that the required sum of forty million dollars to finance distress cotton will be pledged before the crop begins to move in any quantity. Bankers all over the State are said to be giving the plan their endorsement. This method of movement is little different from what has existed all along. Local bankers in the different towns have always been ready, it is said, to extend reasonable aid to the farmer in the matter of holding or handling his cotton crop. It is claimed that there is more money than usual available for this purpose this season.
