

The Caucasian AND RALEIGH ENTERPRISE.

Raleigh, N. C., February 6, 1913.

Entered at the Post-office in Raleigh, N. C. as second class mail matter.

Local Matters.

There are now eighty convicts on the various road forces in Wake County. There is no reason why the county shouldn't have good roads unless the convicts are allowed to do more damage going over the roads than they do good.

Mr. Garland Jones, of Raleigh, Tuesday, received a cablegram from London announcing the death there of his sister, Miss Dora Duty Jones. She was the daughter of the late Dr. Turner M. Jones, for many years President of Greensboro Female College.

Mr. J. H. Wiggins died Saturday afternoon in this city at his home. His death was sudden, though he had not been well for several months. The deceased leaves a wife and one son. The son, Lonnie Wiggins, is in the navy and is now at Constantinople.

Henry Pool Dies on the Public Highway.

Henry Pool, a white man about forty-five years old, was found dead in the road near his home, close to Pool's Store, four miles from Raleigh, Monday. The doctors who were later summoned were of the opinion that Pool's death was due to heart-failure.

The sum of $42.56 was found in the pockets of the deceased, which would indicate that there was no foul play.

Four Alleged Blind Tigers Arrested.

The police made a raid for blind tigers in Raleigh a few days ago. Those arrested charged with selling liquor are Frank Britt, clerk at Wilson's Cafe on East Martin Street; Paul Taylor, clerk at Henry Sorrell's Cafe on South Wilmington Street; Richard Eubanks and Joe Harris, both clerks at Weaver's place on Exchange Street. All the defendants, with the exception of Paul Taylor, gave $300 cash bonds. Taylor is in jail. Britt is charged with two offenses and had to give $600 bond.

The cases of Britt, Taylor, Eubanks and Harris are set for February 7.

Miss Annie Whitaker Died Tuesday at her Home Near Raleigh.

Miss Annie Whitaker died Tuesday morning at her home two miles north of this city. She had been ill for only a few weeks, and her death occurred just two weeks after the sudden death of her brother, Mr. Willis Whitaker, who was found dead between his home and that of Mr. Kimbrough Jones, and of her sister, Miss Sallie Whitaker, who was found dead in her bed. She was 67 years of age, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Willis Whitaker, of this county. One sister, Miss Lucy Whitaker, and one brother, Mr. Joel Whitaker, of Atlanta, Ga., survive.

Dr. Joel Whitaker, of Raleigh, is a nephew of the deceased.

Raleigh Bar Wants Court Every Day in the Year.

The Raleigh Bar Association, at a meeting Friday afternoon, expressed itself in favor of making Wake County one judicial district so that court might be held here every day in the year. The crowded condition of the calendar, which has been getting more crowded each year, moved the members to favor this plan. A committee consisting of W. J. Peele, chairman; Col. John W. Hinsdale, J. W. Bailey, and Walter L. Watson was appointed to press the matter.

It was the sense of the lawyers, though no action was taken, that the new court-house should be erected on the present site, and a court-house committee, composed of W. B. Snow, chairman; Percy J. Olive, John W. Hinsdale, Jr., J. B. Cheshire, Jr., and W. B. Jones, was appointed.

NOTHING FOR THE MASSES.

The Legislature Piling Up Debt Without Helping the Public.

Mr. Editor:—I have been reading the papers regularly for the past thirty days in order that I might know what democracy was going to do for the people. I am proud of my native State, and I would be glad to know that democracy was for the benefit and betterment of all the people. But alas! when I begin to read the bills introduced and advocated by democracy, more taxes to burden the people, more judges, more schools, fat jobs for lawyers, fat jobs for teachers, and nothing being done to help the masses, as a taxpayer I would like to make some suggestion to democracy.

(1) Sell the State property and pay the State debt.

(2) Compel every Democrat in North Carolina from the age of twenty-one to seventy-five to go to school six months in each year for the next four years, and the State provide them with the following text-books, to-wit, Webster's Unabridged dictionary, Civil Government and one copy of the Declaration of Independence adopted by Congress, July 4, 1776, to be given to each school; also let the State provide the above-named scholars with board and clothing during the school term, and at the end of the four years require each one to recite the Constitution of North Carolina and the Constitution of the United States by heart; provided one should on the fourth day of July, 1916, fail to comply with above, shall be guilty of tyranny and the said Democrat shall forever forfeit his right to democracy.

One more suggestion: Let democracy abolish the public schools for children from six to twenty-one years of age and in lieu thereof give each child two dollars per head to be used for the purpose of educating the child; place the said tax into the hands of the parents and let them employ their own teacher, provided the said taxes shall be raised by taxing dogs, chickens, geese, ducks, and cats at the rate of two dollars per head.

Trusting democracy will comply with the above suggestions, I am,

Respectfully,
A LIBERTY-LOVING TAX-PAYER.
Raleigh, N. C., R. No. 3, February 4, 1913.

Board May Stand Law-Suit Before Paying Extra Automobile Hire.

The Board of County Commissioners to-day accepted the option of $400 for four acres of land in the center of the county farm offered by the heir of the late Buck Fowler.

No options have been secured for a new county home or new court-house site.

The commissioners allowed Auditor Holding's bill of $122 for expenses while placing additional property on the tax books.

STATE UNIVERSITY NEWS.

State High Schools Will Debate at Chapel Hill May 1—Law Class of Eighteen.

Chapel Hill, N. C., Feb. 4.—Of more than ordinary interest to the high school teachers of North Carolina is the January issue of the North Carolina High School Bulletin. Notable among the items of interest is the announcement of a "Conference on High School Problems," which meeting is scheduled to be held at Chapel Hill on May 1 and 2. The committee on arrangements for this conference, composed of Professors N. W. Walker, inspector of secondary schools; M. C. S. Noble, and H. W. Chase, of the educational department, are now engaged formulating details preparatory to this meeting, and a definite program of exercises will be ready for announcement at an early date. The Bulletin, of which Prof. N. W. Walker is editor, notes that May 2 is the date for the dedication of the new educational building of the University. Reference is made to the Peabody Education Building erected through the generosity of the Peabody Fund, which contributed $40,000 towards its erection.

The baseball schedule for the University of North Carolina has been officially announced. It includes a total of twenty-three games, eleven of the number to be played on the home diamond. The season opens on March 14 in a game with Oak Ridge Institute, and ends with a game with the Agricultural and Mechanical College, of Raleigh, on the date of May 1st.

Eighteen members of the Law Department of the University went down to Raleigh Monday to appear before the Supreme Court to take the examination for license to practice the profession.

"A Disgrace to The State."

The Committee on Health reported favorably the bill by Williams, of Cabarrus, to restrict the right of medical colleges to use bodies of paupers for dissecting.—Legislative item.

The Republican has said and repeats the assertion that this law is a disgrace to the State. It might apply to criminals, but to paupers, never. To make the law more imperative, it restricts counties and municipalities from extending aid to pauper dead so that they can be given even a semblance of a decent burial. If the relatives or friends cannot meet the expense, the local health authorities are notified and money is furnished not to bury but to transport the remains to the pickling vat of some State medical school. When North Carolina gets so penurious that she cannot bury her pauper dead, it or any other State so doing, has about reached the limit. All honor to Representative Williams, of Cabarrus. But what can be said of those who defeated, by their vote, his bill to wipe this infamous law from off the statute books?—Union Republican.

We are inclined to look upon bad temper as a very harmless weakness, but, the Bible again and again condemns it as one of the most destructive elements in human nature.—Henry Drummond.

Henderson Woman Fires at Officers But Kills Husband.

A special from Henderson to Saturday's News and Observer says: "About 5 o'clock this afternoon Charles Snyder and his wife were riding on the street in the vicinity of the Harriet Cotton Mills and began shooting with pistols. A warrant was issued for their arrest and placed in the hands of Deputy Sheriff Gupton. While the paper was being served, Mrs. Snyder secured a pistol and opened fire on the officer, who stepped between the husband and the wife. A bullet entered Snyder's heart, killing him instantly, while the officer was wounded in the shoulder. It is said both husband and wife were intoxicated. Officer Champion took from the pockets of the dead man twenty-seven cartridges.

A Bill That Should Become a Law. (Mooreville Enterprise.)

Representative Stewart has created a stir in the Legislature by introducing a bill against tipping at hotels and cafes, prescribing a severe punishment for the tipper as well as those tipped. Some folks may think that Mr. Stewart is off his kazip, but that bill should become a law. Tipping is one of the greatest nuisances that exists, and the cost to a man who goes away from home occasionally amounts to a neat sum if he remains a week or ten days.

More Democratic Deficits. Union Republican.]

And now the State Fish Commission bobs up with a $2,000 deficit which the Legislature was called upon to meet. Democracy, debt, bonds. Look which way you will.

Now Who is to Blame?

The Democratic party has had almost uninterrupted control of the State's affairs for the last forty years and if the State is in debt and the people are illiterate, who is to blame for it?—Wilkes Patriot.

Ends Hunt For Rich Girl.

Often the hunt for a rich wife ends when the man meets a woman that uses Electric Bitters. Her young nerves tell in a bright brain and even temper. Her peach-bloom complexion and ruby lips result from her pure blood; her bright eyes from restful sleep; her elastic step from firm, free muscles, all telling of the health and strength Electric Bitters gives a woman, and the freedom from indigestion, backache, headache, fainting and dizzy spells they promote. Everywhere they are woman's favorite remedy. If weak or ailing, try them. Fifty cents at all druggists.
