AND RALEIGH ENTERPRISE.

Raleigh, N. C., February 13, 1913.

Entered at the Post-office in Raleigh, N. C. as second class mail matter

Local Matters.

Mr. Charles D. Wildes is now working in the Federal Building in Raleigh.

Miss Lucinda Little died Sunday morning at her home on New Bern Avenue. She had been in failing for some time. She was a daughter of the late Colonel George Little who was prominent in Raleigh.

The State Journal Makes Its Appear-

The State Journal, a new weekly paper launched by Messrs, R. F. Beasley and Alex. J. Feilds, made its initial appearance last Friday morning. It appears that the paper was carefully prepared, and its first appearance is a credit to its promoters. May it help to raise the standard of Democratic journalism in Raleigh; there is a good field for it.

Bill to Sell Market House.

Representative J. W. Bunn, of Wake, Wednesday introduced a bil to authorize the Board of Aldermen to sell the old market house property for a sum of not les sthan $80,000 provided the purchaser or purchasers tear down the present building and erect on the site a building to cost not less than $100,000. It is proposed that the money from the sale shal be deposited to await the direction of the voters of the city.

Rolesville Swept by Fire.

Rolesville, Wake County, was practically destroyed by fire Thursday night. The damage was about $8,-000. The fire started in the store of J. E. Wright, which was destroyed. The building containing the jewelry stock of R. L. Rogers was destroyed R. S. Williams' store was then burned. The fire went on to the general store of J. H. Mitchell, the largest in the place. The loss of stock will probably amount to $4,000. A tenant house belonging to Mr. Mitchell was also destroyed.

Raleigh is Progressive.

Greensboro and Charlotte, and a few other towns in the State, want a great white way. In other words they want their towns thoroughly lighted. Raleigh has well-lighted streets, in fact, on Saturday nights and on all public occasions the lights from Raleigh can be seen for miles. A few nights ago when some of the unprogressive Democratic members of the Legislature were nearing the Capital Square from the north one of them was heard to say: "I don't know where it is, but there is a terrible fire somewhere." It was simply the reflection from the electric lights on Fayetteville street.

Bill Providing for Sale of Court-House and Site.

Representative M. A. Griffin has introduced a bill to allow the Wake County Board of Commissioners to sell, if they so desire, the courthouse and county farm property and erect buildings elsewhere, the bill leaving the entire matter optional with the commissioners. It provided that the cost of the new court-house and county jail shall not exceed the sum of $250,000.

The Raleigh bar held a meeting Tuesday afternoon and recommended that if a new court-house was to be erected that it be built on the same site, unless a more desirable location could be secured.

Three Alleged Blind Tigers Found Guilty.

Joe Harris, a clerk for E. L. Weaver, who conducts a cafe at 15 Exchange Street, was Tuesday found guilty of selling liquor to D. B. Aiken, of Creedmoor, and sentenced to 12 months on the Wake County roads. He appealed and Judge Watson fixed his bond at $500. Harris is the third of the alleged blind tigers arrested several weeks ago upon evidence furnished the police by Mr. Aiken, who was employed by Chief Stell to collect evidence against certain people in Raleigh. Aiken receives $10 for every conviction. Young Frank Britt, who was found guilty some days ago of selling whiskey, has not been sentenced. He was a clerk at Wilson's Cafe.

Democratic Politicians Short on Gratitude.

takes in transmission of messages and Chairman Devin and Messrs. Sykes, Stewart and Brawley were named a special committee to prepare a substitute for the Sykes bill that was deemed too drastic. It fixes a penalty of $100 for each offense without regard to the effect of the delay or mistake.

The Sykes bill includes telephone companies, but the committee has not passed on this. The committee also voted to report favorably the Kellum enclosed vestibules.

The House Committee on Banking and Currency voted to report favorably a bill to provide for the giving of insurance policies as additional security in cases where borrowers get money from banks or other notes secured otherwise.

Wednesday's Proceedings.

House Committee reported on the following bills:

ize commissioners of Wake County to Judgment accordingly sell present court house and county farm and to build a new court-house.

The Committee on Judiciary, No. 2, reported unfavorably bill prohibiting the carrying of concealed weap-

The Committee on Health reported unfavorably anti-cigarette bill. Favorable report on bill prohibiting use of roller towels in public places.

Bills Introduced.

Mr. Bunn, to authorize the city of Raleigh to sell the present market house and lot.

Mr. Gaither, to regulate fees for regulating real estate mortgages. Mr. Hodges, relative to apropriation for Applachian Training School for Teachers at Boone, Watauga County. Mr. Faircloth, by request, to prevent sale of intoxicating liquor in certain school districts in Sampson S. W. corner of Mark Street and Bled-County. Mr. Devin, to place Confederate pension roll.

Enrolled Bills.

Bill relative to boundary line between Ashe and Wilkes Counties. Joint resolution relative to investigation of the collection of the taxes of the State. The House concurred in the Senate amendment to the House bill by Mr. Carlton relative to the advertisement of property at re-sale, reducing time from thirty to fifteen days. Following new bills were introduced in the Senate:

532—Senator Payne, by request: Amend Revisal relative to causes for

533-Senator Little, of Wake:

Amend primary election law for Wake County and Raleigh. 534-Senator Little, of Wake: Amend act of 1911 relative to salaries of Wake County officers. 539 - Senator Weaver: Abolish joint tenancy between husband and 545-Senator Coffey: Appropriating money to the Appalachian Training School for Teachers at Boone.

Senator Evans, of Bladen, introduced a joint resolution for the appointment by the Governor of three business men of the State to investigate the advisability of selling all or part of the State farms and using the State's convicts to work on the public roads in the several counties, committee to report to the next session of the General Assembly. Referred to Committee on Agriculture.

The Legislature wants the right to examine tax books of any county to see that State is getting its share of all taxes. Will appoint a committee with this in view. Mr. Clark's bill to prevent the manufacture and sale of cigarettes in North Carolina did not get serious consideration by the committee. A number of railroad officials met with Governor Glenn in his office yesterday to discuss freight rates in this State. The decision of the railroad men had not been given out at this writing.
