FOUR PAGES, BUT FULL OF MEAT.

The Caucasian appears this week in a four-page edition. It is not inappropriate that we should thus mark and emphasize the misfortune of a Democratic national administration, which comes on top of the worse State government, which we have ever suffered. But this unhappy condition makes it more necessary than ever for fearless independent papers like The Caucasian to live, grow and multiply to tell the people the facts and all the truth.

We all know that machine party organs will not do this. Therefore this issue of The Caucasian should be an effective appeal to those of our subscribers who are behind a year or more to send us at once what they are due, so as to put us on a cash basis and enable us to comply with the law. We believe that every subscriber intends to pay his honest debt to us just as he pays his taxes and other honest debts, but nearly one-fourth of them have neglected to do so. The amount due runs into many thousands of dollars.

For a year or more we have been forced each week to meet printers bills, paper bills, postage bills, etc., with cash, while a fourth of our readers have paid nothing on these bills. Now let every one who has neglected this matter, at once send us what he owes and we will go back to eight pages.

The Caucasian is determined to pay as it goes. If our State government had been run on this business principle, we would not today have a bankrupt State Treasury and a Legislature looking for a way to raise taxes. The Democratic administration has collected enough taxes to run the government, but they have wasted the money by extravagance.

The Caucasian has not been extravagant. We can make both ends meet, without raising rates, if each one will do his part. The Caucasian has been honest with each one of you. Now look us in the face and be honest with us.

We are in the fight to have this Democratic administration succeeded four years from now by one that stands for progress and prosperity. Are you with us? If so, let us hear from you by next mail.

While The Caucasian is only four pages this week, yet it is full of meat and will be every week, no matter what its size may be.

"THE DEAD INDUSTRIES."

Under the above caption the Charlotte Observer fathers the following editorial:

"The Highlander, published at Shelby, is urging the people of the Piedmont section to write letters to Chairman Underwood of the Ways and Means Committee to restore the duty on monazite. This industry had just begun to boom and was bringing thousands of dollars into Shelby when Brazilian monazite was made practically free and the home industry was killed dead as the traditional door nail. A duty of six cents would be sufficient to restore prosperity to a large number of land-owners in Cleveland County. The tariff should be restored not only on monazite, but on corundum, ruby and abrasive minerals, so abounding in the western section of the State. There is one mine in Jackson County that would resume operations and give employment to 5,000 people following the restoration of the duty. It is hard to see why this situation should not appeal to the framers of the tariff. The killing of these great home industries should be against the policy of the Democratic party. We are a little doubtful of the result, but there is cause to hope the matter will be looked at in the light of reason."

It is just possible that the Observer is quite right in wanting the former duty on monazite restored. Certainly it is bad policy to kill a home industry and keep more than 5,000 people out of profitable employment.

In other words, the Observer favors a protective tariff. If North Carolina is to have her industries protected of course the representatives from other States will demand that their industries be protected also. Glad to see the Observer coming out on the right side of this proposition, but wouldn't it have been better to have worked and voted for a party that believed in protection so you could have gotten what protection your industries really needed and saved all this worry?

Democrats have entire control of the National Government. Wonder how long it will take them now to devise a plan whereby the farmers can buy everything they want at a cheap price and sell everything they produce at a high price? Don't say it is impossible to do such a thing, for that is just what they promised to do, and many people voted for them on the strength of that promise.

The News and Observer says that monopolies should be blotted out. And still the News and Observer has one of the biggest monopolies there is in the State. Is the Observer willing to give up its monopoly? We refer to its contract with the Associated Press.

Where was ex-Governor Glenn when the inauguration exercises were pulled off in Washington? The daily papers did not give this information, neither did any of them print a half-tone cut of the ex-Governor.

President Wilson announced yesterday that no office-seeker would be allowed to see him in person, unless especially invited. The next revolution of note will probably be among the Democratic office-seekers.

The Democrats have already figured out that Mr. Wilson will have just 141 Presidential postmasters to appoint in this State. Honestly, have you ever before seen such a wild scramble for office?

Mr. Bryan spoke in Raleigh Sunday for peace which was very apropos, considering the fact that the Democrats were to take over all the offices within two days.

Mr. Bryan talks for peace, but how can there be any peace until there is an office created for every Democrat?

A million dollar bond issue may sound very small to the Democratic office-holder, but it sounds very big to the tax-payers back home.

Those London suffragettes have even dispositions—they're mad all the time.—Detroit Free Press.

If they ever get the laws so that liquor will actually be hard to get then is when you will hear a real howl.—Durham Herald.

If a member introduces a bill in the Legislature that would accomplish the purposes for which it was intended, some one has to tack on an amendment robbing it of its power.—Durham Herald.

The order of the Gideons will place 5,000 Bibles in the hotels of Washington for use of Democrats during the inauguration. The idea is good so far as it goes but those wicked Democrats will need more Bibles than that.—Union Republican.

But then the Democrats are collecting more than double the amount of taxes that the Republicans collected out of the people and the Republicans paid all of their debts and left more than $185,000 in the treasury. The Democrats spent all of this money and are now in debt all over, after more than doubling our taxes.—Clinton News-Dispatch.

Robeson County Girl Eats Match Heads Which Prove Fatal.

Lumberton, N. C., March 1.—As the result of eating match heads yesterday afternoon, Dorothy Britt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vester Britt, residing near McDaniel's, in this county, died this morning. The little girl was in her fifth year.

A sensation was created in professional circles in Greensboro Tuesday when Dr. J. L. Moorefield was indicted for retailing liquor. He is a practicing physician and operates a drug-store at Pomona.

WHISKEY BOTTLES IN THE CAPITOL.

Building Has Been so Abused and Defaced as to Become a Disgrace to the State.

Recognized by connoisseurs of architecture and art the country over as one of the most beautiful public buildings in the United States, the Capitol of North Carolina is without doubt one of the worst kept public buildings in the world. Its corridors are filled with trash, tools and implements of all sorts, empty boxes, discarded furniture and other articles that ought to be relegated to the trash heap. Its closets and toilet rooms are filthy and indecent. In one of them a bucketful of empty whiskey bottles, the accumulation of a single night, was seen. In one of the corridors while the snow was melting Saturday, it was necessary to set buckets to catch the water that literally flowed through leaks in the roof. The walls, ugly enough at best with dingy brown paint, the door-facings, the window frames, and other parts of the interior have been so abused, marked up and cut up as to have become disgraceful to the State.—Raleigh Times.

The above from the Raleigh Times shows a pretty bad condition of affairs, and that the Democrats do not make good custodians of the State's property and other affairs. Wonder if those whiskey bottles were found under the "search and seizure act"? It would seem that they have sufficient labor around the Legislature to keep the building clean. Really it appears that it is time to turn out the Democrats, clean up and white-wash the State House and put the machinery of the State into new hands.

Muskrat Attacks Young White Man at Kinston.

A Kinston, N. C., dispatch Tuesday says: Just after dark last night, J. M. Littleton, a young man of Jacksonville, N. C., was attacked by a muskrat in front of the Norfolk Southern depot, on Queen street, and had a lively time in beating off the vicious rodent. Littleton's queer assailant probably came from a sewer somewhere in the vicinity. When the young man sauntered up the pavement toward the depot the muskrat leaped upon him from a dark spot on the street, and sunk its teeth into his trousers. His pants were badly torn before he could choke the animal off, and it was not until he had kicked it to death that all the fight was out of the rat, which was of abnormal size. Littleton sold the skin for enough to pay his passage to Jacksonville. The affair was witnessed by a number of people. Several years ago a negro man was attacked by one of the rodents in the same neighborhood, under similar circumstances. The home of the animals, which is very near the centre of the city, cannot be located.

A North Carolina Freak Visits Tennessee.

(From the Johnson City Staff.)

Nunny Tipton, of Relief, N. C., was a visitor in the city Wednesday. Nunny is nineteen years of age and is perhaps one of the greatest freaks of nature in the human family. He was born without any arms. From the right shoulder is a small projection which represents two toes, says physicians, while from the left shoulder is a similar projection representing two fingers. Outside of these deficiencies young Tipton is a normal man in features and has remarkable intelligence. With his toes and feet he has learned to write and can throw rocks with apparently perfect ease.

Mob Breaks Up Meeting of London Suffragettes.

London, March 2.—The public temper is rising against the suffragettes. Wild scenes were witnessed in Hyde Park this afternoon when a mob of several thousand broke up a suffragette meeting held under the leadership of "General" Mrs. Flora Drummond.

Several free fights occurred and masses of turf torn from the ground were hurled at the speakers. It required a strong body of police to protect the suffragettes and escort them to a place of safety.

Similar scenes marked a meeting at Wimbledon Common. In both cases women were knocked down and bruised.

Atlanta, Ga., March 1.—How the average farmer, using ordinary farm tools, at an expense of only $65, can construct a silo with a capacity of fifty-five tons—enough silage to feed twenty cows forty pounds per day for four months—is told in a booklet just gotten out by the Live Stock Department of the Southern Railway, a copy of which will be mailed free to any farmer addressing request for same to Mr. F. L. Word, Live Stock Agent, Southern Railway Building, Atlanta, Ga.

BEST KNOWN COUGH REMEDY.

For forty-three years Dr. King's New Discovery has been known throughout the world as the most reliable cough remedy. Over three million bottles were used last year. Isn't this proof? It will get rid of your cough, or we will refund your money. J. J. Owens, of Allendale, S. C., writes the way hundreds of others have done: "After twenty years, I find that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and colds that I have ever used." For coughs or colds and all throat and lung troubles, it has no equal. 50c. and $1.00 at your druggist.

MILLION DOLLAR BOND ISSUE

Bill Introduced by Senator Long to Meet Deficit and Other Expenses—The Revenue and Machinery Act—Committee Opposes Working Convicts on New Railroads in Payment for Stock—Would Place Convicts on the Public Roads—The Search and Seizure Act.

THURSDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

The Senate and House were busy considering the machinery act and what other methods would be necessary in order to raise enough revenue to meet the demands of this administration. Some even in favor of a reassessment, while others were favoring a million dollar bond issue.

The House passed on final reading by roll-call the six-months' school term bill as amended by the Senate and it is ordered enrolled for ratification.

The bill to amend and consolidate the military laws of the State and carrying $50,000 appropriation—$15,000 increase—passed second reading.

Torrens land title bill, similar to the one that has already passed the House, went through the Senate and sent to House for concurrence in several amendments. It leaves the adoption of the Torrens system of titles optional and puts the machinery in the Superior Courts in the counties, instead of in a State Torrens System Court.

Search and Seizure Act.

The House search and seizure bill passed the Senate Friday afternoon by a vote of 38 to 9, with an amendment making it operative April 1, 1913, after a spirited debate that resulted in the adoption of the committee amendments proposed.

The House spent most of the day in committee of the whole, passing on sections of the revenue bill in preparation for final passage, making a number of changes. Especially notable is a new section—72—imposing a $500 license tax on every automobile manufacturer, with $5 duplicate licenses to agents.

The tax on express companies was fixed at $3 a mile, municipalities to impose a local tax act. The House concurred in the Senate amendments to the House anti-trust bill, and it was ordered enrolled for ratification.

SATURDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Among the new bills introduced in the House was one by Porter, of Forsyth, to amend the constitution by fixing the compensation of members of the General Assembly at $600 for members and $1,000 for officers for the term providing that there shall be no allowance for special sessions. Also that the ten-cent mileage be continued.

The House spent an hour or longer in committee of the whole on final consideration of the revenue bill. An agreement was reached for the franchise tax on corporations to be reduced from one-tenth of one per cent on capital stock paid in to one-fiftieth of the per cent the minimum tax to be $7.50.

An amendment to reduce the license tax on real estate dealers from $50 fixed in the bill, to $20 and $25 according to population of towns, was gotten through by Representative Roberts.

The House voted down a motion to double the tax on professional men. The tax on sewing machines was cut from $500 to $250.

As amended the revenue bill passed final reading and was ordered engrossed and sent to the Senate. The House adjourned to 8 o'clock tonight.

An unfavorable report came from the committee on the liquor traffic for the Kellum bill to permit Wilmington and New Hanover County to license beer saloons under rigid restrictions prescribed.

MONDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

After spending an hour in spirited discussion of the measure, the House passed on the second reading Monday afternoon the committee substitute bill for compulsory school attendance, but with an amendment by Speaker Connor providing that it shall apply to counties only through adoption by the County Boards of Education, making its operation optional with the counties.

Another amendment adopted was by Gaither and provides that the fees of the truant officer must be derived from the payment of costs in the cases in which there are convictions for violation of the law.

The Senate passed the bill from the House authorizing the State Department of Agriculture to take steps to provide for furnishing lime to farmers for agricultural purposes at cost, and to use convicts in connection therewith.

The House at the night session passed on final reading the compulsory school attendance bill by a practical unanimous vote with slight amendment from the statute of the bill as it came through second reading at the afternoon session. One further amendment adopted was by Grier, of Iredell, still further letting down the bars as to application to counties after adoption by the County Boards of Education, as amended by Connor. The Grier amendment would allow the County Boards of Education to change provisions of the act whenever deemed necessary.

An amendment by Bolick makes it apply to children eight to fifteen years of age in his county; also to Mitchell County. An amendment by Deltinger proposes to limit the pay of truant officers to $100 a year. Another by Williams, of Cabarrus, proposed that the State furnish needy children with books and clothing. Both of these were voted down. The bill was then sent to the Senate.

For More Than a Million Dollar Bond Issue.

Senator Long introduced in the Senate tonight bills providing for a bond issue of $1,142,500 to meet the existing deficit, to provide for permanent improvements at the State institutions, equipping, furnishing and painting the new State building, rearranging and refurnishing the present Supreme Court building and establishing a central heating plant for the capitol and other State buildings. The apportionment is as follows:

- Deficit, $600,000; equipping new State building, $75,000; central heating plant, $40,000; rearranging old Supreme Court building, $40,000; Morganton Hospital, $50,000; Goldsboro Hospital, $25,000; A. & M. College, $25,000; University, $100,000; State Normal, $50,000; A. & M. at Greensboro, $17,500; Appalachian Training School, $15,000; Cullowhee Institute, $15,000; East Carolina Training School, $40,000; Tuberculosis Hospital, $20,000; new site for School for Blind, $30,000.

The Senate passed the committee bill assigning quarters to the various State departments in the new State building and old Supreme Court building, in accordance with the report of the special committee, with an amendment giving to the Department of Agriculture, in addition to its present quarters, the rooms now used by the Corporation Commission.

TUESDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

The special House committee appointed to investigate and report the extent to which convicts are being worked on the various railroads of the State, submitted its report to the House, with the recommendation that after the outstanding obligations and contracts are complied with no more contracts be entered into with railroads to furnish convicts for grading purposes.

Declaring that they believe it should be the policy of the State to place penitentiary convicts on the public roads, the committee submitted the following recommendations:

"We, therefore, recommend that the House declare, the Senate concurring, that it is the policy of the State of North Carolina to furnish the convicts sentenced to the penitentiary to the various counties under such terms as is just to the counties to be used by said counties in working the public roads; and that as soon as the State has fulfilled all moral obligations under the law and under the contracts now existing, that the State enter into no more contracts with railroad companies to furnish convicts to be worked on said railroads, to be paid for in stock.

The Committee on Appropriations reported unfavorably bills to establish a southeastern and a western teachers' training school.

The Committee on Penal Institutions reported favorably bill to establish a Juvenile School of Correction in Asheville.

Mr. Gordon introduced a bill prohibiting smoking of cigarettes in Guilford County.

The following bills passed final reading:

Allowing children living out of high school districts to attend such high school without paying tuition.

To prohibit and punish hazing in high schools and colleges of this State. Hazing as defined in this bill is humiliating and heaping indignities upon students for the purpose of sport. The hazer shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

The following bills passed final reading in the Senate:

House bill authorizing Raleigh to sell market house building and lot.

House bill authorizing Wake County Commissioners to sell present site of court house and jail and county home site.

Adjournments of this kind are usually in honor, or in memory of the dead. However, it may be that the Democrats considered Wilson and Marshall dead politically when they assumed the responsibility of running this government.

Kill Cotton Tare Bill.

In the Senate some time was consumed in debate on the McBryde cotton tare bill, which passed the House several days ago, the measure was killed. As the bill passed the House, it carried a thirty-pound allowance to the grower. Senator McLean, chairman of the Senate Committee on Agriculture, offered a substitute approved by the committee, with a twenty-six-pound rate, the present rate being approximately twenty-two pounds. After long discussion, in which neither the House bill nor the Senate committee substitute had many supporters, both were defeated by big majorities, the opposition being forceful and fierce.

After much argument, the House passed the State Bankers' Association bill to amend, codify and consolidate the laws relating to banking and currency.

WEDNESDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

On motion of Senator Daniel, the State road bond bill, which proposes to make the State the borrower for the various counties, as set as a special order in the Senate for today (Thursday) at noon. The bill passed on second reading. The vote on second reading was very close and a few changes in the vote would result in defeating the measure.

The Senate passed many minor bills, the measures being rushed through their readings without much consideration. The revenue bills, machinery bills and other important measures are yet to be acted upon.

Senator McLean introduced a bill to reduce tonnage tax on fertilizer to fifteen cents a ton.

Long, Joint resolution directing State's prison directors to pay in railroad stock $150,000 to the State's fund.

The Legislature is making slow progress with the more important measures and it will probably be the middle of next week before the lawmakers wind up their work and adjourn.
