

The Charlotte Democrat.

THIS PAPER IS 43 YEARS OLD

CHARLOTTE, N. C., FRIDAY, MAY 1, 1896.

VOLUME XLIII.—NUMBER 2241

THE CHARLOTTE DEMOCRAT
PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY
TERMS—One Dollar cash in advance
Entered at the Post Office in Charlotte, N. C., as second class matter.

DRS. MOCOMBS & GIBBON,
DESIRE TO INFORM THE PUBLIC,
That they have this day entered into a partnership for the
PRACTICE OF MEDICINE, AND SURGERY.

March 1, 1895. March 15, 1895
JOHN FABRIOR,
30 4 SOUTH TRYON STREET, CHARLOTTE, N. C.
WATCHMAKER AND JEWELER,
—DEALER IN—
Diamonds, Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Silver and Plated Silver Ware.
Special attention given to Fine Watch Repairing.
Jan 25, 1895.

BURWELL, WALKER & CANSLER,
Attorneys-At-Law,
ROOMS NOS 5, 6, AND 18, LAW BUILDING,
CHARLOTTE, N. C.
Jan 4, 1895.

DR. E. P. KEERANS,
DENTIST,
CHARLOTTE, N. C.
Office—7 West Trade Street
Nov. 2, 1894

DR. GEORGE W. GRAHAM,
OFFICE, 7 WEST TRADE ST.
Practice limited to Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.
April 3, 1896.

JOHNSON & POPE,
—30-43 South College St—
The largest stock of cotton gins, rollers, presses, saw mills, mowing machines, Harvesters and pumps. Come in or write. All kinds of machinery.
JOHNSON & POPE.
April 3, 1896 2 m.

HUGH W. HARRIS,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law,
Office, Nos. 14 and 16 Law Building,
CHARLOTTE, N. C.
July 6, 1895.

OSBORNE, MAXWELL & KEERANS,
Attorneys at Law,
CHARLOTTE, N. C.
Offices 1 and 3 Law Building.
Will practice in the State and Federal Courts.
Oct 20, 1895.

DRS. M. A. & C. A. BLAND,
Dentists,
CHARLOTTE, N. C.
No. 21 TRYON STREET.
Jan 3, 1896.

CLARKSON & DULS,
Attorneys at Law,
CHARLOTTE, N. C.
Prompt attention given to all business intrusted. Will practice in all Courts of the State.
Office No. 12 Law Building.
Oct. 7, 1896.

H. N. PHARR,
ATTORNEY AT LAW.
Office No. 14. Law Building.
Prompt attention to all business intrusted. Special attention given to claims. Practices in State and Federal Courts.
Jan. 6, 1895.

Cattle Owners!
Listen! The best possible Cattle Food is MANGEL WURZEL BEETS
We have the seed of Lane's Imperial and White Sugar. Plant now!
R. H. JORDAN & CO.,
Prescriptionists.
April 17, 1896

GO TO ALEXANDER'S DRUG STORE,
NO. 216, NORTH TRYON STREET.
Keeps a well assorted stock of all articles usually kept in a Drug House
J. B. ALEXANDER.
The Poor prescribed for free.
April, 8, 1895.

QUEEN CITY HOTEL.
In visiting Charlotte, Don't fail to stop at the Queen City Hotel, Corner East Fifth and College Sts, Everything first-class.
RATES, $1.00 PER DAY.
July 6, 1895. W. J. MOORE, Prop'r.

E. NYE HUTCHISON,
FIRE INSURANCE.
Very Superior Douglas kid spring heel Button and lace, price $1.50.
These shoes are good fitting, good wearing, and stylish, nothing better at the price. Our stock of low quarters is complete, very cheap, and unsurpassed, for style, quality and assortment.
GILLREATH & CO.

General Washington's Other Name.
A large company of persons was started recently by the inquiry for General Washington's other name. A wag asked the question, but in a manner that betrayed no humorous intent. It was evident that the company had never heard of the Father of his Country had ever assumed an alias. The wag was compelled to tell his fellow guests that our first President's other name was "George." Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the name of the world-renowned remedy for all blood disorders, liver complaints, and consumption (or lung scrofula) in its early stages. It has no other name and no rival, because it's the only medicine for these maladies, sold by druggists, that can be implicitly relied upon.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.
By virtue of a deed of trust made to me on the 23 day of March 1895, by John W. Goodman, I will sell at public auction at the court house door in the city of Charlotte, to the highest bidder, for cash, all that property hereinafter described, being Lot No. 33, map of W. R. Myers, which map is registered in Book 74, page 61, in the register of deeds office for Mecklenburg county, N. C.
This sale is made to satisfy the debt secured by said deed of trust.
April 24, 1896. A. R. STOKES, Trustee. 5 w.

NOTICE.
We will sell one black horse mule, 5 years old, 18 hands high, at 12 o'clock, on May 11, 1896, in front of the court house door, in the city of Charlotte, unless sooner reclaimed by the owner, who is known. Said mule was imported by us April 18th, 1896. Terms of sale—cash.
Pineville, N. C., April 24th, 1896.
T. J. SMITH,
N. G. MOORE.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.
By virtue of a deed of trust made to me on November 31, 1891, by Nannie McCree, I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder at the Court House door, for cash, on Monday, the 18th day of May, 1896, all that lot of land hereinafter described, being Lot No. 33, map of W. R. Myers, which map is registered in Book 74, page 61, in the register of deeds office for Mecklenburg county, N. C.
Said land is sold to satisfy the debt secured by said deed of trust.
April 17 5w WALTER BREM, Trustee.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.
By virtue of a deed of trust made to me on the 1st day of Jan'y, 1891, by G. S. Solomon, I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder on Monday, the 18th day of May, 1896, at the Court House door in Mecklenburg county, N. C. for cash, all that property hereinafter described, being Lot No. 66 in W. R. Myers' map, and said map is registered in the office of the register of deeds for Mecklenburg county, N. C.
Said land is sold to satisfy the debt secured by said deed of trust.
April 17 5w C. F. BREM, Trustee.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.
By virtue of a deed of trust made to me on the 15th day of May, 1891, by Green Lee, I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder on Monday, the 18th day of May, 1896, at the Court House door in Mecklenburg county, for cash, all that property hereinafter described, being Lot No. 16, map of Walter Brem, which is registered in Book 74, page No. 16, in the office of the register of deeds for Mecklenburg county, N. C.
Said land is sold to satisfy the debt secured by said deed of trust.
April 17 5w C. F. BREM, Trustee.

Administrator's Notice.
Having qualified as Administrator with the will annexed of Mary Jane Griffin, deceased, notice is hereby given to all persons having claims against the Estate of said deceased to present the same to me for payment, proving verified, on or before the 13th day of March 1897, or this notice will be plead in bar of their recovery.
All persons indebted to the said Estate will please make prompt payment.
This March 12th 1896.
M. W. GRIFFIN, Administrator,
With will annexed of Mary Jane Griffin, deceased.
March 12th, 1896 6w

Notice of Administration.
Having qualified as administrator of the estate of the late J. G. Potts, deceased, all persons holding claims against said estate are hereby notified to present the same to me, underdressed on or before the 30th day of March 1897, or this notice will be plead in bar of recovery.
This March 18th, 1896.
Administrator of Estate of J. G. Potts, dec'd.
March 20 1896. 6w

MELLON & SHELTON
ED. MELLON. TOM. SHELTON.
BOYS, BOYS, BOYS!

SPRING SUITS,
STRAW HATS
BY THE THOUSANDS.

SUITS, UP TO DATE.
New and Pretty.
SHIRTS,
UMBRELLAS,
Socks, Collars and Cuffs.

MEN'S
BEAUTIFUL SUITS,
The Best Goods and Low Prices.
COME TO SEE US.
NEXT DOOR TO H. BARUCH
May 1, 1896.

SPRING-HEEL SHOES
Very Superior Douglas kid spring heel Button and lace, price $1.50.
These shoes are good fitting, good wearing, and stylish, nothing better at the price. Our stock of low quarters is complete, very cheap, and unsurpassed, for style, quality and assortment.
GILLREATH & CO.

Spring Song.
The boughs are heavy with blossom,
The grass grows deep on the lawn—
Sweeter and ever sweeter
The blackbird pipes to the dawn.
The paths lie pale in the twilight,
As pale as a ring-dove's breast,
The birchwood is blue and silver—
A faint rose fades in the west.

O, air of the April gloaming,
O, wind of the linnet's wing—
There is little else to be glad for.
But my heart is glad for the spring.
—Rosamond Marriott-Watson in April Scribner's.

Injuries by Electricity.
Scientific American.
The use of electricity has become so general and accidents are so frequent that everybody should be advised how to extend aid to a person injured by an electrical current. A German medical publication gives the following suggestions:
1. The current should be shut off at once if the means are at hand and the person called upon understands how to do it.
2. If this cannot be done, be careful not to touch the injured person's body with the hand. If no India rubber gloves are at hand, the body should be dragged away from the wires by the coat tails, or the coat should be taken off and folded (a dry cloth may be used for the purpose), when the injured person may be grasped through it and dragged away.
3. When it is not possible to remove the injured person from the wires, raise that part of the body that is in contact with the earth or the wire from it, using the covered hand. This will break the current, and it will generally be possible then to get the body away.

4. If this cannot be done, take a dry cloth and place it between the body and the ground, and then disentangle the body from the wires.
5. If the body is freed from the wires, remove all the clothing from the neck and treat the injured person as one drowned. Open the mouth and grasp the tongue, which should be covered with a cloth; then pull the tongue forward and gradually allow it to fall back; this movement should be repeated sixteen times a minute. Take care that the root of the tongue is thoroughly moved.
6. The bystanders should not be allowed to give the injured person wine or liquors.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.
By virtue of a deed of trust made to me on the 1st day of Jan'y, 1891, by G. S. Solomon, I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder on Monday, the 18th day of May, 1896, at the Court House door in Mecklenburg county, N. C. for cash, all that property hereinafter described, being Lot No. 66 in W. R. Myers' map, and said map is registered in the office of the register of deeds for Mecklenburg county, N. C.
Said land is sold to satisfy the debt secured by said deed of trust.
April 17 5w C. F. BREM, Trustee.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.
By virtue of a deed of trust made to me on the 15th day of May, 1891, by Green Lee, I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder on Monday, the 18th day of May, 1896, at the Court House door in Mecklenburg county, for cash, all that property hereinafter described, being Lot No. 16, map of Walter Brem, which is registered in Book 74, page No. 16, in the office of the register of deeds for Mecklenburg county, N. C.
Said land is sold to satisfy the debt secured by said deed of trust.
April 17 5w C. F. BREM, Trustee.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.
By virtue of a deed of trust made to me on the 1st day of Jan'y, 1891, by G. S. Solomon, I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder on Monday, the 18th day of May, 1896, at the Court House door in Mecklenburg county, N. C. for cash, all that property hereinafter described, being Lot No. 66 in W. R. Myers' map, and said map is registered in the office of the register of deeds for Mecklenburg county, N. C.
Said land is sold to satisfy the debt secured by said deed of trust.
April 17 5w C. F. BREM, Trustee.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.
By virtue of a deed of trust made to me on the 15th day of May, 1891, by Green Lee, I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder on Monday, the 18th day of May, 1896, at the Court House door in Mecklenburg county, for cash, all that property hereinafter described, being Lot No. 16, map of Walter Brem, which is registered in Book 74, page No. 16, in the office of the register of deeds for Mecklenburg county, N. C.
Said land is sold to satisfy the debt secured by said deed of trust.
April 17 5w C. F. BREM, Trustee.

Administrator's Notice.
Having qualified as Administrator with the will annexed of Mary Jane Griffin, deceased, notice is hereby given to all persons having claims against the Estate of said deceased to present the same to me for payment, proving verified, on or before the 13th day of March 1897, or this notice will be plead in bar of their recovery.
All persons indebted to the said Estate will please make prompt payment.
This March 12th 1896.
M. W. GRIFFIN, Administrator,
With will annexed of Mary Jane Griffin, deceased.
March 12th, 1896 6w

Notice of Administration.
Having qualified as administrator of the estate of the late J. G. Potts, deceased, all persons holding claims against said estate are hereby notified to present the same to me, underdressed on or before the 30th day of March 1897, or this notice will be plead in bar of recovery.
This March 18th, 1896.
Administrator of Estate of J. G. Potts, dec'd.
March 20 1896. 6w

MELLON & SHELTON
ED. MELLON. TOM. SHELTON.
BOYS, BOYS, BOYS!

SPRING SUITS,
STRAW HATS
BY THE THOUSANDS.

SUITS, UP TO DATE.
New and Pretty.
SHIRTS,
UMBRELLAS,
Socks, Collars and Cuffs.

MEN'S
BEAUTIFUL SUITS,
The Best Goods and Low Prices.
COME TO SEE US.
NEXT DOOR TO H. BARUCH
May 1, 1896.

SPRING-HEEL SHOES
Very Superior Douglas kid spring heel Button and lace, price $1.50.
These shoes are good fitting, good wearing, and stylish, nothing better at the price. Our stock of low quarters is complete, very cheap, and unsurpassed, for style, quality and assortment.
GILLREATH & CO.

THE VANCE MONUMENT.
The Baltimore Sun Pays the Great Carolinian a Tribute, and Says Baltimore's Contribution for a Monument to His Memory Should be Generous and Prompt.
The movement to erect a monument to the late Senator Vance, of North Carolina ought to commend itself to the sympathy and generous aid not only of the people of his own State, but those of all sections of the country who remember with admiration the brilliant intellectual gifts and the brave and sterling moral qualities for which the great North Carolinian was so eminently distinguished. It is something of a reflection upon the patriotism and appreciation of his countrymen that such a memorial should still be lacking. In many respects Senator Vance deserves to rank with the foremost men in our public history. His delightful and perennial flow of humor, which captivated even his political enemies, measurably concealed from the popular view the greater traits and talents that he possessed in so large a degree. He was not merely an accomplished orator, but a statesman in the best sense of that word. He had a peculiar endowment of sagacity, very shrewdness, and combined rare executive ability with broad political wisdom. He was a typical American, and his straightforward, homely, unpretentious character was democratic to the core and brought him into sympathetic touch with the people and made him the fearless and earnest champion of their rights and interests. It was his love of justice and fair play, as well as his genuine admiration of Hebrew greatness, that inspired his striking and eloquent lecture on "The Scattered Nation," a lecture which he delivered in many parts of the United States and which had a powerful influence in dissipating the strong and unworthy prejudices against the historic and heroic Hebrew race. While all the admirers of simple and unadorned decorum and of true Americanism should be eager to pay their tribute of respect to his memory, the "Scattered Nation," whose ancient glories he so vividly described and whose present right to equal consideration and respect he so earnestly maintained, owe him an especial debt of gratitude, which they will no doubt, be glad to have an opportunity to acknowledge. Baltimore's contributions to this noble and generous and prompt and such as will give creditable expression to the public estimate of the intellectual and moral worth of Senator Vance. Dr. Thomas J. Boykin of this city, is a member of the committee authorized to make collections in Baltimore. The names and amounts contributed will be published in the News and Observer, of Raleigh, N. C., if desired.

LOOK AT THIS.
TABLES AT
$8 50 8 50 $8 50
$8 50!
Would not be bad on a table, especially when you can get a $19 50 Table for only $8 50! That is just what you get at E. M. ANDREWS'.
The grandest display of ever shown in our history. The prices, notwithstanding the advance in many lines, are lower than ever before in our history.
Buying in such large quantities enables us to get
THE - BEST - PRICE!
We do not buy just one of a kind, but 10, 20, 40, 50 and 1,000. If the firm has made AN INDUCEMENT!
—O— BEAUTIFUL —O—
For the little folks. Useful, Ornamental, Appropriate! The display is ready. See them Doll Carriages, Doll Sets, Doll, Bedsteads, Volicques, Express Wagons, Children's Desks Rockers, Chairs, Music Racks and an endless variety that you must see

OUR LEADER IS COUCHES
10, 12, 22.75, 18, 18, 22.50, 25 and $50 They are
WHAT YOU WANT!
E. M. ANDREWS,
Largest Furniture Dealer in the STATE.
Feb. 7, 1896.
NEW REMEDIES
GREAT VALUE
AT
DR. J. B. ALEXANDER'S DRUG STORE.
Special Tonic Tablets, Postillars
Woman's Friend, The Great Renovator. Enquire of the Doctor about these Remedies.
May 18, 1895 316 N. TRYON ST.

THE VANCE MONUMENT.
The Baltimore Sun Pays the Great Carolinian a Tribute, and Says Baltimore's Contribution for a Monument to His Memory Should be Generous and Prompt.
The movement to erect a monument to the late Senator Vance, of North Carolina ought to commend itself to the sympathy and generous aid not only of the people of his own State, but those of all sections of the country who remember with admiration the brilliant intellectual gifts and the brave and sterling moral qualities for which the great North Carolinian was so eminently distinguished. It is something of a reflection upon the patriotism and appreciation of his countrymen that such a memorial should still be lacking. In many respects Senator Vance deserves to rank with the foremost men in our public history. His delightful and perennial flow of humor, which captivated even his political enemies, measurably concealed from the popular view the greater traits and talents that he possessed in so large a degree. He was not merely an accomplished orator, but a statesman in the best sense of that word. He had a peculiar endowment of sagacity, very shrewdness, and combined rare executive ability with broad political wisdom. He was a typical American, and his straightforward, homely, unpretentious character was democratic to the core and brought him into sympathetic touch with the people and made him the fearless and earnest champion of their rights and interests. It was his love of justice and fair play, as well as his genuine admiration of Hebrew greatness, that inspired his striking and eloquent lecture on "The Scattered Nation," a lecture which he delivered in many parts of the United States and which had a powerful influence in dissipating the strong and unworthy prejudices against the historic and heroic Hebrew race. While all the admirers of simple and unadorned decorum and of true Americanism should be eager to pay their tribute of respect to his memory, the "Scattered Nation," whose ancient glories he so vividly described and whose present right to equal consideration and respect he so earnestly maintained, owe him an especial debt of gratitude, which they will no doubt, be glad to have an opportunity to acknowledge. Baltimore's contributions to this noble and generous and prompt and such as will give creditable expression to the public estimate of the intellectual and moral worth of Senator Vance. Dr. Thomas J. Boykin of this city, is a member of the committee authorized to make collections in Baltimore. The names and amounts contributed will be published in the News and Observer, of Raleigh, N. C., if desired.

THE VANCE MONUMENT.
The Baltimore Sun Pays the Great Carolinian a Tribute, and Says Baltimore's Contribution for a Monument to His Memory Should be Generous and Prompt.
The movement to erect a monument to the late Senator Vance, of North Carolina ought to commend itself to the sympathy and generous aid not only of the people of his own State, but those of all sections of the country who remember with admiration the brilliant intellectual gifts and the brave and sterling moral qualities for which the great North Carolinian was so eminently distinguished. It is something of a reflection upon the patriotism and appreciation of his countrymen that such a memorial should still be lacking. In many respects Senator Vance deserves to rank with the foremost men in our public history. His delightful and perennial flow of humor, which captivated even his political enemies, measurably concealed from the popular view the greater traits and talents that he possessed in so large a degree. He was not merely an accomplished orator, but a statesman in the best sense of that word. He had a peculiar endowment of sagacity, very shrewdness, and combined rare executive ability with broad political wisdom. He was a typical American, and his straightforward, homely, unpretentious character was democratic to the core and brought him into sympathetic touch with the people and made him the fearless and earnest champion of their rights and interests. It was his love of justice and fair play, as well as his genuine admiration of Hebrew greatness, that inspired his striking and eloquent lecture on "The Scattered Nation," a lecture which he delivered in many parts of the United States and which had a powerful influence in dissipating the strong and unworthy prejudices against the historic and heroic Hebrew race. While all the admirers of simple and unadorned decorum and of true Americanism should be eager to pay their tribute of respect to his memory, the "Scattered Nation," whose ancient glories he so vividly described and whose present right to equal consideration and respect he so earnestly maintained, owe him an especial debt of gratitude, which they will no doubt, be glad to have an opportunity to acknowledge. Baltimore's contributions to this noble and generous and prompt and such as will give creditable expression to the public estimate of the intellectual and moral worth of Senator Vance. Dr. Thomas J. Boykin of this city, is a member of the committee authorized to make collections in Baltimore. The names and amounts contributed will be published in the News and Observer, of Raleigh, N. C., if desired.

THE VANCE MONUMENT.
The Baltimore Sun Pays the Great Carolinian a Tribute, and Says Baltimore's Contribution for a Monument to His Memory Should be Generous and Prompt.
The movement to erect a monument to the late Senator Vance, of North Carolina ought to commend itself to the sympathy and generous aid not only of the people of his own State, but those of all sections of the country who remember with admiration the brilliant intellectual gifts and the brave and sterling moral qualities for which the great North Carolinian was so eminently distinguished. It is something of a reflection upon the patriotism and appreciation of his countrymen that such a memorial should still be lacking. In many respects Senator Vance deserves to rank with the foremost men in our public history. His delightful and perennial flow of humor, which captivated even his political enemies, measurably concealed from the popular view the greater traits and talents that he possessed in so large a degree. He was not merely an accomplished orator, but a statesman in the best sense of that word. He had a peculiar endowment of sagacity, very shrewdness, and combined rare executive ability with broad political wisdom. He was a typical American, and his straightforward, homely, unpretentious character was democratic to the core and brought him into sympathetic touch with the people and made him the fearless and earnest champion of their rights and interests. It was his love of justice and fair play, as well as his genuine admiration of Hebrew greatness, that inspired his striking and eloquent lecture on "The Scattered Nation," a lecture which he delivered in many parts of the United States and which had a powerful influence in dissipating the strong and unworthy prejudices against the historic and heroic Hebrew race. While all the admirers of simple and unadorned decorum and of true Americanism should be eager to pay their tribute of respect to his memory, the "Scattered Nation," whose ancient glories he so vividly described and whose present right to equal consideration and respect he so earnestly maintained, owe him an especial debt of gratitude, which they will no doubt, be glad to have an opportunity to acknowledge. Baltimore's contributions to this noble and generous and prompt and such as will give creditable expression to the public estimate of the intellectual and moral worth of Senator Vance. Dr. Thomas J. Boykin of this city, is a member of the committee authorized to make collections in Baltimore. The names and amounts contributed will be published in the News and Observer, of Raleigh, N. C., if desired.

THE VANCE MONUMENT.
The Baltimore Sun Pays the Great Carolinian a Tribute, and Says Baltimore's Contribution for a Monument to His Memory Should be Generous and Prompt.
The movement to erect a monument to the late Senator Vance, of North Carolina ought to commend itself to the sympathy and generous aid not only of the people of his own State, but those of all sections of the country who remember with admiration the brilliant intellectual gifts and the brave and sterling moral qualities for which the great North Carolinian was so eminently distinguished. It is something of a reflection upon the patriotism and appreciation of his countrymen that such a memorial should still be lacking. In many respects Senator Vance deserves to rank with the foremost men in our public history. His delightful and perennial flow of humor, which captivated even his political enemies, measurably concealed from the popular view the greater traits and talents that he possessed in so large a degree. He was not merely an accomplished orator, but a statesman in the best sense of that word. He had a peculiar endowment of sagacity, very shrewdness, and combined rare executive ability with broad political wisdom. He was a typical American, and his straightforward, homely, unpretentious character was democratic to the core and brought him into sympathetic touch with the people and made him the fearless and earnest champion of their rights and interests. It was his love of justice and fair play, as well as his genuine admiration of Hebrew greatness, that inspired his striking and eloquent lecture on "The Scattered Nation," a lecture which he delivered in many parts of the United States and which had a powerful influence in dissipating the strong and unworthy prejudices against the historic and heroic Hebrew race. While all the admirers of simple and unadorned decorum and of true Americanism should be eager to pay their tribute of respect to his memory, the "Scattered Nation," whose ancient glories he so vividly described and whose present right to equal consideration and respect he so earnestly maintained, owe him an especial debt of gratitude, which they will no doubt, be glad to have an opportunity to acknowledge. Baltimore's contributions to this noble and generous and prompt and such as will give creditable expression to the public estimate of the intellectual and moral worth of Senator Vance. Dr. Thomas J. Boykin of this city, is a member of the committee authorized to make collections in Baltimore. The names and amounts contributed will be published in the News and Observer, of Raleigh, N. C., if desired.

THE VANCE MONUMENT.
The Baltimore Sun Pays the Great Carolinian a Tribute, and Says Baltimore's Contribution for a Monument to His Memory Should be Generous and Prompt.
The movement to erect a monument to the late Senator Vance, of North Carolina ought to commend itself to the sympathy and generous aid not only of the people of his own State, but those of all sections of the country who remember with admiration the brilliant intellectual gifts and the brave and sterling moral qualities for which the great North Carolinian was so eminently distinguished. It is something of a reflection upon the patriotism and appreciation of his countrymen that such a memorial should still be lacking. In many respects Senator Vance deserves to rank with the foremost men in our public history. His delightful and perennial flow of humor, which captivated even his political enemies, measurably concealed from the popular view the greater traits and talents that he possessed in so large a degree. He was not merely an accomplished orator, but a statesman in the best sense of that word. He had a peculiar endowment of sagacity, very shrewdness, and combined rare executive ability with broad political wisdom. He was a typical American, and his straightforward, homely, unpretentious character was democratic to the core and brought him into sympathetic touch with the people and made him the fearless and earnest champion of their rights and interests. It was his love of justice and fair play, as well as his genuine admiration of Hebrew greatness, that inspired his striking and eloquent lecture on "The Scattered Nation," a lecture which he delivered in many parts of the United States and which had a powerful influence in dissipating the strong and unworthy prejudices against the historic and heroic Hebrew race. While all the admirers of simple and unadorned decorum and of true Americanism should be eager to pay their tribute of respect to his memory, the "Scattered Nation," whose ancient glories he so vividly described and whose present right to equal consideration and respect he so earnestly maintained, owe him an especial debt of gratitude, which they will no doubt, be glad to have an opportunity to acknowledge. Baltimore's contributions to this noble and generous and prompt and such as will give creditable expression to the public estimate of the intellectual and moral worth of Senator Vance. Dr. Thomas J. Boykin of this city, is a member of the committee authorized to make collections in Baltimore. The names and amounts contributed will be published in the News and Observer, of Raleigh, N. C., if desired.

THE VANCE MONUMENT.
The Baltimore Sun Pays the Great Carolinian a Tribute, and Says Baltimore's Contribution for a Monument to His Memory Should be Generous and Prompt.
The movement to erect a monument to the late Senator Vance, of North Carolina ought to commend itself to the sympathy and generous aid not only of the people of his own State, but those of all sections of the country who remember with admiration the brilliant intellectual gifts and the brave and sterling moral qualities for which the great North Carolinian was so eminently distinguished. It is something of a reflection upon the patriotism and appreciation of his countrymen that such a memorial should still be lacking. In many respects Senator Vance deserves to rank with the foremost men in our public history. His delightful and perennial flow of humor, which captivated even his political enemies, measurably concealed from the popular view the greater traits and talents that he possessed in so large a degree. He was not merely an accomplished orator, but a statesman in the best sense of that word. He had a peculiar endowment of sagacity, very shrewdness, and combined rare executive ability with broad political wisdom. He was a typical American, and his straightforward, homely, unpretentious character was democratic to the core and brought him into sympathetic touch with the people and made him the fearless and earnest champion of their rights and interests. It was his love of justice and fair play, as well as his genuine admiration of Hebrew greatness, that inspired his striking and eloquent lecture on "The Scattered Nation," a lecture which he delivered in many parts of the United States and which had a powerful influence in dissipating the strong and unworthy prejudices against the historic and heroic Hebrew race. While all the admirers of simple and unadorned decorum and of true Americanism should be eager to pay their tribute of respect to his memory, the "Scattered Nation," whose ancient glories he so vividly described and whose present right to equal consideration and respect he so earnestly maintained, owe him an especial debt of gratitude, which they will no doubt, be glad to have an opportunity to acknowledge. Baltimore's contributions to this noble and generous and prompt and such as will give creditable expression to the public estimate of the intellectual and moral worth of Senator Vance. Dr. Thomas J. Boykin of this city, is a member of the committee authorized to make collections in Baltimore. The names and amounts contributed will be published in the News and Observer, of Raleigh, N. C., if desired.

THE VANCE MONUMENT.
The Baltimore Sun Pays the Great Carolinian a Tribute, and Says Baltimore's Contribution for a Monument to His Memory Should be Generous and Prompt.
The movement to erect a monument to the late Senator Vance, of North Carolina ought to commend itself to the sympathy and generous aid not only of the people of his own State, but those of all sections of the country who remember with admiration the brilliant intellectual gifts and the brave and sterling moral qualities for which the great North Carolinian was so eminently distinguished. It is something of a reflection upon the patriotism and appreciation of his countrymen that such a memorial should still be lacking. In many respects Senator Vance deserves to rank with the foremost men in our public history. His delightful and perennial flow of humor, which captivated even his political enemies, measurably concealed from the popular view the greater traits and talents that he possessed in so large a degree. He was not merely an accomplished orator, but a statesman in the best sense of that word. He had a peculiar endowment of sagacity, very shrewdness, and combined rare executive ability with broad political wisdom. He was a typical American, and his straightforward, homely, unpretentious character was democratic to the core and brought him into sympathetic touch with the people and made him the fearless and earnest champion of their rights and interests. It was his love of justice and fair play, as well as his genuine admiration of Hebrew greatness, that inspired his striking and eloquent lecture on "The Scattered Nation," a lecture which he delivered in many parts of the United States and which had a powerful influence in dissipating the strong and unworthy prejudices against the historic and heroic Hebrew race. While all the admirers of simple and unadorned decorum and of true Americanism should be eager to pay their tribute of respect to his memory, the "Scattered Nation," whose ancient glories he so vividly described and whose present right to equal consideration and respect he so earnestly maintained, owe him an especial debt of gratitude, which they will no doubt, be glad to have an opportunity to acknowledge. Baltimore's contributions to this noble and generous and prompt and such as will give creditable expression to the public estimate of the intellectual and moral worth of Senator Vance. Dr. Thomas J. Boykin of this city, is a member of the committee authorized to make collections in Baltimore. The names and amounts contributed will be published in the News and Observer, of Raleigh, N. C., if desired.

THE VANCE MONUMENT.
The Baltimore Sun Pays the Great Carolinian a Tribute, and Says Baltimore's Contribution for a Monument to His Memory Should be Generous and Prompt.
The movement to erect a monument to the late Senator Vance, of North Carolina ought to commend itself to the sympathy and generous aid not only of the people of his own State, but those of all sections of the country who remember with admiration the brilliant intellectual gifts and the brave and sterling moral qualities for which the great North Carolinian was so eminently distinguished. It is something of a reflection upon the patriotism and appreciation of his countrymen that such a memorial should still be lacking. In many respects Senator Vance deserves to rank with the foremost men in our public history. His delightful and perennial flow of humor, which captivated even his political enemies, measurably concealed from the popular view the greater traits and talents that he possessed in so large a degree. He was not merely an accomplished orator, but a statesman in the best sense of that word. He had a peculiar endowment of sagacity, very shrewdness, and combined rare executive ability with broad political wisdom. He was a typical American, and his straightforward, homely, unpretentious character was democratic to the core and brought him into sympathetic touch with the people and made him the fearless and earnest champion of their rights and interests. It was his love of justice and fair play, as well as his genuine admiration of Hebrew greatness, that inspired his striking and eloquent lecture on "The Scattered Nation," a lecture which he delivered in many parts of the United States and which had a powerful influence in dissipating the strong and unworthy prejudices against the historic and heroic Hebrew race. While all the admirers of simple and unadorned decorum and of true Americanism should be eager to pay their tribute of respect to his memory, the "Scattered Nation," whose ancient glories he so vividly described and whose present right to equal consideration and respect he so earnestly maintained, owe him an especial debt of gratitude, which they will no doubt, be glad to have an opportunity to acknowledge. Baltimore's contributions to this noble and generous and prompt and such as will give creditable expression to the public estimate of the intellectual and moral worth of Senator Vance. Dr. Thomas J. Boykin of this city, is a member of the committee authorized to make collections in Baltimore. The names and amounts contributed will be published in the News and Observer, of Raleigh, N. C., if desired.

THE VANCE MONUMENT.
The Baltimore Sun Pays the Great Carolinian a Tribute, and Says Baltimore's Contribution for a Monument to His Memory Should be Generous and Prompt.
The movement to erect a monument to the late Senator Vance, of North Carolina ought to commend itself to the sympathy and generous aid not only of the people of his own State, but those of all sections of the country who remember with admiration the brilliant intellectual gifts and the brave and sterling moral qualities for which the great North Carolinian was so eminently distinguished. It is something of a reflection upon the patriotism and appreciation of his countrymen that such a memorial should still be lacking. In many respects Senator Vance deserves to rank with the foremost men in our public history. His delightful and perennial flow of humor, which captivated even his political enemies, measurably concealed from the popular view the greater traits and talents that he possessed in so large a degree. He was not merely an accomplished orator, but a statesman in the best sense of that word. He had a peculiar endowment of sagacity, very shrewdness, and combined rare executive ability with broad political wisdom. He was a typical American, and his straightforward, homely, unpretentious character was democratic to the core and brought him into sympathetic touch with the people and made him the fearless and earnest champion of their rights and interests. It was his love of justice and fair play, as well as his genuine admiration of Hebrew greatness, that inspired his striking and eloquent lecture on "The Scattered Nation," a lecture which he delivered in many parts of the United States and which had a powerful influence in dissipating the strong and unworthy prejudices against the historic and heroic Hebrew race. While all the admirers of simple and unadorned decorum and of true Americanism should be eager to pay their tribute of respect to his memory, the "Scattered Nation," whose ancient glories he so vividly described and whose present right to equal consideration and respect he so earnestly maintained, owe him an especial debt of gratitude, which they will no doubt, be glad to have an opportunity to acknowledge. Baltimore's contributions to this noble and generous and prompt and such as will give creditable expression to the public estimate of the intellectual and moral worth of Senator Vance. Dr. Thomas J. Boykin of this city, is a member of the committee authorized to make collections in Baltimore. The names and amounts contributed will be published in the News and Observer, of Raleigh, N. C., if desired.

THE VANCE MONUMENT.
The Baltimore Sun Pays the Great Carolinian a Tribute, and Says Baltimore's Contribution for a Monument to His Memory Should be Generous and Prompt.
The movement to erect a monument to the late Senator Vance, of North Carolina ought to commend itself to the sympathy and generous aid not only of the people of his own State, but those of all sections of the country who remember with admiration the brilliant intellectual gifts and the brave and sterling moral qualities for which the great North Carolinian was so eminently distinguished. It is something of a reflection upon the patriotism and appreciation of his countrymen that such a memorial should still be lacking. In many respects Senator Vance deserves to rank with the foremost men in our public history. His delightful and perennial flow of humor, which captivated even his political enemies, measurably concealed from the popular view the greater traits and talents that he possessed in so large a degree. He was not merely an accomplished orator, but a statesman in the best sense of that word. He had a peculiar endowment of sagacity, very shrewdness, and combined rare executive ability with broad political wisdom. He was a typical American, and his straightforward, homely, unpretentious character was democratic to the core and brought him into sympathetic touch with the people and made him the fearless and earnest champion of their rights and interests. It was his love of justice and fair play, as well as his genuine admiration of Hebrew greatness, that inspired his striking and eloquent