THURSDAY, JUNE 24

FATHER Worth's brain has been at work for sometime, and from it has at last emerged, in all its glistening beauty, the Sheriff's Institute. The Father and State Treasurer calls the Sheriffs of the State, from Cherokee to Currituck, to come together in solemn conclave at Morehead City July 27, where the Father, while the salt sea ripples up the beach, will instruct them in "how they should ought to do."

A working model of a scaffold should be on exhibition, and its practical use should be demonstrated. There may be days devoted to "How to Collect Taxes," and the discussion of the question, "Should Chicken Thieves be Chased in the Dark of the Moon?"

The institute ought to be interesting and profitable

ACCORDING to the records of the Spaniards on file at Havana, the statistics of Spanish victories are as follows:

Insurgents killed Insurgents wounded Insurgent officers killed Insurgent officers wounded Horses killed 13,120 Horses wounded Horses captured Prisoners taken Insurgent camps captured Rifles captured Rounds ammunition captu'd 677,632 Machetes captured Insurgents "presented" themselves for amnesty According to their own statement they have killed and wounded nearly the Island of Cuba

And those that the Spanish have failed to kill are still kicking up a dust in the lower edge of the Island.

THE Review of Reviews, one of the ablest periodicals in the country,

"The redemption of the public must lie in the public opinion of the West and South. The East has fallen under the bad spell of money; and even the pulpit takes its tone largely from those elders and vestrymen and pillars of religion and philanthropy who do business in Wall street. It is a hard truth, and one shocking to the sensibilities; but true it is, nevertheless, that there is often a more genuine ring of patriotism and higher sentiment for national honor in Tammany Hall itself than in Wall street."

COL. MARCUS AURELIUS HANNA and some of his satellites held banquet in Washington this week, at which they recalled the incidents of the St. Louis convention and the promises of prosperity they made the people, and the "prosperity" that has resulted from McKinleysome purpose.

NEITHER SIDE CAN WIN.

The Cuban Insurgents are No Stronger But Spain is Weaker.

Mr. Charles Pepper, the Cuban correspondent of the Washington Star, writing of the situation in the island says: "I was told by insurgent sympathizers in Havana that in a military sense the insurrection was stronger than ever. My observation of the campaigning did not justify this assertion. The insurrection is perhaps stronger because relatively Spain is weaker.
