

The Journal-Observer.

THE DAILY CHARLOTTE JOURNAL, AND THE DAILY CHARLOTTE OBSERVER, CONSOLIDATED MARCH 27, 1883.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1883.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

Daily Charlotte Observer, established January 26, 1850.
Daily Charlotte Journal, established August 19, 1850.

Daily Journal-Observer BAY STATE DEMOCRACY.

THE CONVENTION MEETS AND NOMINATES BUTLER BY ACCLAMATION.

The Republican Party Arranged in Vigorous English, Followed by a Volcanic Platoon, and a Speech from Bold Ben who Accepts and Promises to Make a Lively Campaign.

SPRINGFIELD, MASS., Sept. 26.—The Democratic State convention was called to order at 12 1/2 o'clock this afternoon by Col. Josiah H. French, and Rev. Volney N. Simons invoked the Divine blessing.

Col. French after congratulating the delegates on the auspicious outlook arranged the Republicans for shirking the national issue in their recent platform. He denounced the Republican party for supporting the spoils system during twenty years of power; for congressional extravagance and for keeping up the spoils system in the face of the present representatives of the State in the United States Senate.

He claimed when the present State administration was inaugurated the Mill convicts at Concord were almost all freed, and that the ball cartridges had to be served out to protect the citizens of Concord. Gov. Butler superseded the incompetent warden and no further releases have been reported from Concord. Gov. Butler also reformed gross abuses in the insurance department in the face of executive opposition. Col. French claimed that the Governor proved his courage in the Newburg case and has reformed that institution in spite of the most violent opposition from other branches of the government.

Hon. Edward Avery of Braintree was called on to preside as permanent chairman of the convention in all respects. His speech was a long and pleasing one, but confined for the most part to generalities.

The various committees were then named. The committee on credentials came in and reported that 346 cities and towns were represented by 1,597 delegates. The committee on resolutions which are now being discussed and amended. A committee was appointed which after a few minutes consultation reported the following names as members at large of that committee, Mr. Josiah H. French, Gloucester, Josiah G. Abbott, Boston, Henry Walker and Reuben Noble, Woburn, M. C. Cannon, Boston, P. F. Shepley, Boston, N. A. Fitzpatrick, Worcester, J. W. Coventry, Cambridge, J. W. Field, Lowell.

A. G. Drinkwater, moved that the Hon. Benjamin F. Butler be placed in nomination for re-election by acclamation, and it was seconded amid thundering cheers by Frank Grant, an old collector of Boston, Mr. Wm. A. Simmons. The motion was carried without an opposing voice. The platform as reported by the committee on resolutions which will be adopted by the convention at the conclusion of Gov. Butler's remarks, who is now being escorted into the hall by the cheering and conquering hero comes, "is substantially as follows:

It declares that the outlook in National and State politics is encouraging and it reaffirms the platform adopted at Cincinnati in 1880 and that adopted at Boston last year. The Democratic party of Massachusetts believes in the supremacy of the Nation and the integrity of the State, in equal rights as between the sexes, in the reduction of the civil service, in a tariff limited in amount to a sum necessary for revenue, in the abolition of excessive war taxes and in the reduction of the cost of extravagant State expenditures.

It opposes all summary laws which infringe upon the personal liberty and favors the introduction of laws which contribute for the purpose of reconciling difficulties between employers and the employed in order that a better understanding may exist between capital and labor.

It declares that investigation of the affairs at Tewksbury disclosed a want of proper system in the use of public money and an indifference to human feelings and suffering by subordinates which strike the people of Massachusetts with grief and indignation. It denounces the greed and avarice of the few who have secured the wealth of the Commonwealth and the poverty and sickness which have afflicted the masses. It demands that the rights of the poor and unfortunate, interested in the individual liberty and the equality of all before the law.

It has protested to the fullest extent of the individual liberty and the equality of the poor and unfortunate, interested in the individual liberty and the equality of all before the law.

It has protested to the fullest extent of the individual liberty and the equality of the poor and unfortunate, interested in the individual liberty and the equality of all before the law.

It has protested to the fullest extent of the individual liberty and the equality of the poor and unfortunate, interested in the individual liberty and the equality of all before the law.

It has protested to the fullest extent of the individual liberty and the equality of the poor and unfortunate, interested in the individual liberty and the equality of all before the law.

It has protested to the fullest extent of the individual liberty and the equality of the poor and unfortunate, interested in the individual liberty and the equality of all before the law.

It has protested to the fullest extent of the individual liberty and the equality of the poor and unfortunate, interested in the individual liberty and the equality of all before the law.

It has protested to the fullest extent of the individual liberty and the equality of the poor and unfortunate, interested in the individual liberty and the equality of all before the law.

It has protested to the fullest extent of the individual liberty and the equality of the poor and unfortunate, interested in the individual liberty and the equality of all before the law.

It has protested to the fullest extent of the individual liberty and the equality of the poor and unfortunate, interested in the individual liberty and the equality of all before the law.

It has protested to the fullest extent of the individual liberty and the equality of the poor and unfortunate, interested in the individual liberty and the equality of all before the law.

It has protested to the fullest extent of the individual liberty and the equality of the poor and unfortunate, interested in the individual liberty and the equality of all before the law.

It has protested to the fullest extent of the individual liberty and the equality of the poor and unfortunate, interested in the individual liberty and the equality of all before the law.

It has protested to the fullest extent of the individual liberty and the equality of the poor and unfortunate, interested in the individual liberty and the equality of all before the law.

It has protested to the fullest extent of the individual liberty and the equality of the poor and unfortunate, interested in the individual liberty and the equality of all before the law.

It has protested to the fullest extent of the individual liberty and the equality of the poor and unfortunate, interested in the individual liberty and the equality of all before the law.

It has protested to the fullest extent of the individual liberty and the equality of the poor and unfortunate, interested in the individual liberty and the equality of all before the law.

It has protested to the fullest extent of the individual liberty and the equality of the poor and unfortunate, interested in the individual liberty and the equality of all before the law.

It has protested to the fullest extent of the individual liberty and the equality of the poor and unfortunate, interested in the individual liberty and the equality of all before the law.

The Democratic Clans Gathering.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 26.—The city is thronged with strangers nearly 200 having come from New York alone. This number will be increased by the Irving Hall delegation which arrives at 10 p. m. Hon. Jno. Kelly said to a United press reporter "so far as I am able to determine there is every prospect of a harmonious convention, but of course there is no telling what the committee on conducting delegates may do." There has been considerable talk of a pro rata representation from the three delegates from New York City, but that's a matter yet to be settled. The State committee meets at 4 p. m. to settle on temporary officers of the convention.

Washington, Sept. 26.—The contests in the regatta on the Potomac today, which attracted a large crowd, were won as follows: Junior four, Potomac of Washington; Junior single, White, of the Annapolis of Washington; Senior four, Potomac of Washington; Senior single, Denham of Annapolis; Philadelphia; light weight, four Potomacs of Washington; double sculls, Cropley and Warden, of the Potomac of Washington; Four oars, Columbia of Washington; special singles, Seniors of Annapolis. Consolation singles, Kerwin of the Neptune of Lynn, Mass. Eight oared race, Columbia of Washington.

An Opera Singer in Bad Flight.
MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 26.—Judge McKeown, in a suit against the opera singer, Miss Julia F. May, an opera singer who lately joined the Hess Opera Company, May was seriously prostrated and took an electric bath. An ignorant attendant rubbed her body with croton oil instead of alcohol taking all the opposition out of her in a most pitiable plight, so that her life is in danger.

Opposed to Both of Them.
BALTIMORE, Sept. 26.—The printers assembly of the Knights of Labor of this city publishes a card in the Day, this evening advising its workmen to abstain from voting for Ferdinand C. Latrobe or Wm. J. Hooper, the Democratic and Republican candidates respectively for the Mayorality nomination at the coming primaries on the ground that these two gentlemen are the tools of those who would crush all wage workers.

A Groom of 80 and a Bride of 70.
DOWNSVILLE, Delaware county, N. Y., Sept. 26.—Mr. Jacob Hess, aged 80, of Downsville and Mrs. Smith, a widow living near Harvard, were married a few evenings ago. The aged couple were very much excited on the afternoon of the marriage, fearing that the minister would not appear at the appointed time, 7 1/2 o'clock. The marriage is said to be a love match, and there are many romantic incidents connected with it.

The New Market Races.
LONDON, Sept. 26.—At the New market first race today the Welter Handicap race was won by Vanderhulst, Concord second and Mr. J. B. Keenes' Belera third.

The great annual handicap race was won by Amy Melville, Narcessa second, and Executive third. The race for the Granby stakes for two year olds was won by Savilla, Mr. P. H. Williams' Mirvana second, and Diadema third.

Fed and Confed Reunion.
MARTINSVILLE, Me., Sept. 26.—An immense crowd of Federal and Confederate soldiers reunion here today. This city was elaborately decorated, over 5,000 veterans were present, and the prominent officers were Gen. Marmaduke, Col. George W. Anderson of St. Louis. The reunion close to-morrow night.

A Clergyman Charged with Embezzlement.
RID BANK, N. J., Sept. 26.—The Rev. J. C. Noble, of Atlantic Highlands, was arrested today on a charge of embezzlement, Justice Lawrence, of Freehold, took bail for his appearance before the grand jury. The friends of Mr. Noble have the utmost confidence in his integrity.

Death of a Journalist.
NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—Col. Thomas Knapp, of St. Louis, proprietor of the Missouri Republican, died on board the steamship Peninsula, on route to New York, from Anvers. He had been in Europe several months and was very feeble when he went on board the ship.

Matt Carpenter's Estate.
MILWAUKEE, Sept. 26.—At the time of Senator Matt Carpenter's death the statement was widely circulated that his family had been left destitute, but an appraisal of the personal estate filed in the Probate Court to-day, shows that bonds, securities and real estate in Milwaukee and Washington, now held by the widow, aggregate $100,000.

Shot by a Sporting Man.
FOXBURY, MO., Sept. 24.—J. M. Everett, a prominent merchant, was shot and killed on Saturday night in an altercation with Albert G. Layton, a sporting man, who then fled. A reward of five hundred dollars is offered for his apprehension by Everett's family.

The Washington Monument.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Work on the Washington monument which has for the past two months been temporarily suspended, will be resumed on Monday. It is expected that by the end of the working season this year the shaft will have reached a height of 410 feet.

Respected.
SAVANNAH, Ga., Sept. 26.—George Wallace a negro, who had been arrested here on Friday for the murder of Martin L. Jones was to-day respited indefinitely by Gov. McDaniel so as to allow investigation into his alleged insanity.

Frost in Nebraska.
LINCOLN, Sept. 26.—Frost was general throughout the State last night. The damage to corn, however, was comparatively light, as the corn is fully matured.

A Brakeman Killed.
ROCHESTER, Sept. 26.—Joseph Robinson, a brakeman on the Central railway, was killed this morning at Newark by his head coming in contact with the rods and Southern railway bridge.

Sentenced to Death for Treason.
DURHAM, Sept. 24.—The rebellious chief, Manpower and Maphoch, were sentenced to death for treason by a court martial.

Robbery.
DURHAM, Sept. 24.—A robbery was committed at Durham, Sept. 24. A man named John Smith was robbed of his money and watch.

Robbery.
DURHAM, Sept. 24.—A robbery was committed at Durham, Sept. 24. A man named John Smith was robbed of his money and watch.

Robbery.
DURHAM, Sept. 24.—A robbery was committed at Durham, Sept. 24. A man named John Smith was robbed of his money and watch.

Robbery.
DURHAM, Sept. 24.—A robbery was committed at Durham, Sept. 24. A man named John Smith was robbed of his money and watch.

Robbery.
DURHAM, Sept. 24.—A robbery was committed at Durham, Sept. 24. A man named John Smith was robbed of his money and watch.

Robbery.
DURHAM, Sept. 24.—A robbery was committed at Durham, Sept. 24. A man named John Smith was robbed of his money and watch.

Robbery.
DURHAM, Sept. 24.—A robbery was committed at Durham, Sept. 24. A man named John Smith was robbed of his money and watch.

Robbery.
DURHAM, Sept. 24.—A robbery was committed at Durham, Sept. 24. A man named John Smith was robbed of his money and watch.

Robbery.
DURHAM, Sept. 24.—A robbery was committed at Durham, Sept. 24. A man named John Smith was robbed of his money and watch.

Robbery.
DURHAM, Sept. 24.—A robbery was committed at Durham, Sept. 24. A man named John Smith was robbed of his money and watch.

Robbery.
DURHAM, Sept. 24.—A robbery was committed at Durham, Sept. 24. A man named John Smith was robbed of his money and watch.

Robbery.
DURHAM, Sept. 24.—A robbery was committed at Durham, Sept. 24. A man named John Smith was robbed of his money and watch.

THE CITY.

Arrival and Departure of Trains.

RICHMOND AND DANVILLE.
Leave 8:15 a. m. and 4:30 p. m.
Arrive 2:00 a. m. and 1:00 p. m.

AIR LINE.
Leave 2:30 a. m. and 3:10 p. m.
Arrive 9:30 a. m. and 4:10 p. m.

CHARLOTTE, COLUMBIA AND AUGUSTA.
Leave 2:10 p. m. and arrive 4:30 p. m.

C. C. & A.—T. & O. DIVISION.
Leave 4:50 p. m. and arrive at 10:00 a. m.

CAROLINA CENTRAL.
Leave 7:45 a. m. and 7:10 p. m.
Arrive 7:30 a. m. and 3:30 p. m.

C. C.—SHELBY DIVISION.
Leave 6:30 a. m. and arrive 5:40 p. m.

Index to New Advertisements.
Bryce & Hurlinger—Ready for the fall trade.
W. H. Gray—New chairs, etc.
Moyn, Wedding & Co.—Hardware, etc.

Indications.
South Atlantic, fair weather, stationary or slight rise in temperature, northeast to southeast winds, becoming variable with gales in northern portion by following barometer.

LOCAL RIFLES.
—Dr. Thon J. Moore, of Richmond, is in the city on a visit among his friends.

—We regret to learn that Mr. H. B. Hammond, one of our oldest citizens has been prostrated by a stroke of apoplexy and his condition is regarded as serious.

—John B. Sidle has been appointed postmaster at Louest Hill, N. C. The mail messenger service on the at. and S. Narrow Gauge road to Milton has been discontinued.

—Mr. John Snyder, of Salisbury, is on a visit to his brother Frank, in this city. To amuse his friends here, he brought along a pocket full of gold ore and gold buttons from Rowan mines.

—The following fines were imposed at the mayor's court yesterday morning: W. M. Lethco, drunk and down, $5.25; Charles Wilson, assault and battery, $10; and Martin Oehler, contempt of court, $1.

—Capt. T. S. Clark's train on the Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta road went out yesterday crowded from baggage car to rear platform. Yesterday was the biggest day for travel the railroad has ever seen this year.

—Capt. Harry Johnston has returned from his trip to the Louisville Exposition and is once more on his old round between Charlotte and Shelby. His friends along the road are glad to see that his trip has left no traces of sorrow on his face.

—Colonel Nelson Slough, sheriff of Cabarrus county, passed through this city yesterday on his return from Raleigh, where he had been with the moonshiner Fraley and Americus Smith, colored, to the penitentiary. He carried Fraley and Smith to Raleigh handcuffed together.

—Mr. Nat. Brown, of Raleigh, is in the city putting up the bills for the State fair. He has titled the whole country from here to Shelby, and starts to-day towards Asheville. The approaching fair will be a big one. Over $5,000 in cash premiums are offered.

—The present session of Trinity College has opened up most favorably. A note from one of the professors says that "we are giving the internal work of the college a thorough reorganization and are going to make it one of the very best institutions of learning in the State."

—Col. Chas. R. Jones returned from St. Louis yesterday and reports that Judge Gilmer and Solicitor Osborne are clearing up the docket right along. The only case of any interest to be tried this week is the State vs. Dr. E. A. Anderson, of Big Lick, on charge of the murder of Charlie Cox, last spring.

The First Fall Opening.
T. L. Seigle & Co.'s grand fall opening brought the ladies out in full force yesterday, and the store was thronged every hour during the day. The fall goods are perfectly dazzling, and the display made by Seigle has never been equaled in the city. The ladies were charmed with the display of velvets, plushes and silks and dress goods. The line of ladies' wraps was very fine. A novelty in the orange colored kids. There were too many beautiful things to be described in a local, but the opening will be continued to-day, and if there are any in the city who did not attend yesterday, they can see it to-day.

Tried and Acquitted.
Mr. W. L. Harkey, of Mount Pleasant, the young man who was arrested in Asheville about two weeks ago on the charge of committing a rape upon the person of a colored girl, has been tried, acquitted and discharged. It is claimed that the charge was trumped up against him for blackmailing. There was no evidence whatever that a rape had been committed and at the investigation not a single thing could be said by his accusers to sustain the charge and the case was accordingly dismissed by the court. Mr. Harkey's friends will be glad to know that the charge was, as they had anticipated, false.

Some Home from Fort Hill.
Mrs. Elizabeth Collier, aged 87 years, dropped dead in the garden of Mr. A. Graham, near Fort Hill last Sunday. She had been in apparently good health up to the time of her death. Heart disease was the cause of it.

—Mr. Lewis Wilson, of the same neighborhood, had a little daughter bitten through the arm last week by a dog which was thought to be mad. The dog was killed.

—A little colored girl named Mary Bonner, going to the colored graded school, had a very painful experience this week by swallowing a piece of glass. In her dinner basket one day last week, she carried a glass of jelly and the glass somehow became broken. She swallowed a piece of the glass while eating the jelly and for several days afterwards she suffered the most excruciating pains. She was taken to the hospital and the glass was removed. The girl is now recovering.

—A little colored girl named Mary Bonner, going to the colored graded school, had a very painful experience this week by swallowing a piece of glass. In her dinner basket one day last week, she carried a glass of jelly and the glass somehow became broken. She swallowed a piece of the glass while eating the jelly and for several days afterwards she suffered the most excruciating pains. She was taken to the hospital and the glass was removed. The girl is now recovering.

—A little colored girl named Mary Bonner, going to the colored graded school, had a very painful experience this week by swallowing a piece of glass. In her dinner basket one day last week, she carried a glass of jelly and the glass somehow became broken. She swallowed a piece of the glass while eating the jelly and for several days afterwards she suffered the most excruciating pains. She was taken to the hospital and the glass was removed. The girl is now recovering.

—A little colored girl named Mary Bonner, going to the colored graded school, had a very painful experience this week by swallowing a piece of glass. In her dinner basket one day last week, she carried a glass of jelly and the glass somehow became broken. She swallowed a piece of the glass while eating the jelly and for several days afterwards she suffered the most excruciating pains. She was taken to the hospital and the glass was removed. The girl is now recovering.

—A little colored girl named Mary Bonner, going to the colored graded school, had a very painful experience this week by swallowing a piece of glass. In her dinner basket one day last week, she carried a glass of jelly and the glass somehow became broken. She swallowed a piece of the glass while eating the jelly and for several days afterwards she suffered the most excruciating pains. She was taken to the hospital and the glass was removed. The girl is now recovering.

—A little colored girl named Mary Bonner, going to the colored graded school, had a very painful experience this week by swallowing a piece of glass. In her dinner basket one day last week, she carried a glass of jelly and the glass somehow became broken. She swallowed a piece of the glass while eating the jelly and for several days afterwards she suffered the most excruciating pains. She was taken to the hospital and the glass was removed. The girl is now recovering.

—A little colored girl named Mary Bonner, going to the colored graded school, had a very painful experience this week by swallowing a piece of glass. In her dinner basket one day last week, she carried a glass of jelly and the glass somehow became broken. She swallowed a piece of the glass while eating the jelly and for several days afterwards she suffered the most excruciating pains. She was taken to the hospital and the glass was removed. The girl is now recovering.

—A little colored girl named Mary Bonner, going to the colored graded school, had a very painful experience this week by swallowing a piece of glass. In her dinner basket one day last week, she carried a glass of jelly and the glass somehow became broken. She swallowed a piece of the glass while eating the jelly and for several days afterwards she suffered the most excruciating pains. She was taken to the hospital and the glass was removed. The girl is now recovering.

—A little colored girl named Mary Bonner, going to the colored graded school, had a very painful experience this week by swallowing a piece of glass. In her dinner basket one day last week, she carried a glass of jelly and the glass somehow became broken. She swallowed a piece of the glass while eating the jelly and for several days afterwards she suffered the most excruciating pains. She was taken to the hospital and the glass was removed. The girl is now recovering.

A MORMON GONE.

Death of One of the Missionaries at Whitakers—Stricken with Malarial Fever, he Relies on the Olive Oil Treatment and Dies—Some Items About the Mormon Work in Our Christian Land.

Chas. E. Robeson, one of the Mormon missionaries who passed through Charlotte some time since, and who got the benefit of a one column broadside from this paper, died yesterday morning in Whitakers, S. C. The golden cord that bound him to earth was severed at half past 1 o'clock and his immortal spirit was "carried to Abraham's bosom."

The deceased was a Mormon divine sent sometime ago from Southern Idaho to the country surrounding Rock Hill, S. C., to make converts to the Mormon faith. What has been the reward of his labor we are unable to say, except that he contracted malarial fever from which he died. We suppose his death is attributable to his treatment. According to the statement of a Mormon convert a physician is not recognized in their midst. The "elders" are their "great physicians;" they anoint with oil and it cures any disease, no matter how malignant. For their anointing purposes they use olive oil, and in the case of this unfortunate missionary it proved worthless. It would no doubt be a wise movement on the part of the elders to change the brand, and as a good substitute, we would recommend Winsand oil, which has the reputation of having wrought many cures, while olive oil had no virtue as a panacea since the days of the apostles.

Our informant says that he does not think the Mormons are making many converts in that vicinity, although there are half a dozen or more "synagogues" laboring incessantly within one and two miles of Whitakers. They can be found only among the most ignorant class of people who, having poor advantages, can be very easily deceived by these oily-tongued "Latter-Day Saints."

Our informant has seen families brought to the station and put aboard the train for their distant Mormon homes. His heart would almost cease to beat on beholding a little child in its mother's arms being carried away from a home of purity to be made a demon. He has also seen a fair and blushing maiden, though simple yet dear to our people, carried to the degraded realms of Mormonism. These Mormon elders tell the ignorant and credulous people that they can give eyes to the blind, ears to the deaf, make the lame leap, and even raise the dead.

The good people in that section of the country in which these Mormons are working, are considerably excited about the presence of the Mormons. To do good work Christian missionaries do not need to go far from home.

Marriage of a Popular Jewish Couple.
The event in the city yesterday was the marriage of Mr. Willie Gans, of Baltimore, to Miss Ricks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Frankenthal. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Levy, of Charleston, according to the Jewish rites, at the residence of the bride's parents. In celebration of the event the interior of the house was most handsomely decorated with festoons of flowers and evergreens, and the large front window was ornamented with the United States colors. The ceremony was set for one o'clock, p. m., and by that time the house was fairly filled with the invited guests who ranged themselves around the room and made way for the entrance of the bridal party, as the organ struck up Mendelssohn's grand wedding march. First in the bridal party came the younger sisters and brother of the bride, followed by Mr. Charles Gans, of Baltimore, and Miss Josie Frankenthal, Mr. Aaron Drucker and Miss Fannie Frankenthal, Mr. S. Landecker and Miss Rose Lieberman, of Atlanta, Mr. Joe. Hirsh and Miss Julia Morris, of Washington, N. C., the groom and Mrs. Frankenthal, and the bride on the arm of her father.

The bride and groom left on the afternoon train for the North and after visiting all the principal Northern cities, will reside in Baltimore, the home of the groom. The wedding festivities were kept up last night by the Union Circle giving their first hop, at the Pleasure Club rooms, complimentary to the visiting young ladies—Miss Julia Morris, of Washington, N. C., and Miss Rose Lieberman, of Atlanta. The 12 o'clock game was led by Mr. A. L. Drucker and Miss Rose Baumgarten, and was continued until early morning.

Some Home from Fort Hill.
Mrs. Elizabeth Collier, aged 87 years, dropped dead in the garden of Mr. A. Graham, near Fort Hill last Sunday. She had been in apparently good health up to the time of her death. Heart disease was the cause of it.

—Mr. Lewis Wilson, of the same neighborhood, had a little daughter bitten through the arm last week by a dog which was thought to be mad. The dog was killed.

—A little colored girl named Mary Bonner, going to the colored graded school, had a very painful experience this week by swallowing a piece of glass. In her dinner basket one day last week, she carried a glass of jelly and the glass somehow became broken. She swallowed a piece of the glass while eating the jelly and for several days afterwards she suffered the most excruciating pains. She was taken to the hospital and the glass was removed. The girl is now recovering.

—A little colored girl named Mary Bonner, going to the colored graded school, had a very painful experience this week by swallowing a piece of glass. In her dinner basket one day last week, she carried a glass of jelly and the glass somehow became broken. She swallowed a piece of the glass while eating the jelly and for several days afterwards she suffered the most excruciating pains. She was taken to the hospital and the glass was removed. The girl is now recovering.

—A little colored girl named Mary Bonner, going to the colored graded school, had a very painful experience this week by swallowing a piece of glass. In her dinner basket one day last week, she carried a glass of jelly and the glass somehow became broken. She swallowed a piece of the glass while eating the jelly and for several days afterwards she suffered the most excruciating pains. She was taken to the hospital and the glass was removed. The girl is now recovering.

—A little colored girl named Mary Bonner, going to the colored graded school, had a very painful experience this week by swallowing a piece of glass. In her dinner basket one day last week, she carried a glass of jelly and the glass somehow became broken. She swallowed a piece of the glass while eating the jelly and for several days afterwards she suffered the most excruciating pains. She was taken to the hospital and the glass was removed. The girl is now recovering.

—A little colored girl named Mary Bonner, going to the colored graded school, had a very painful experience this week by swallowing a piece of glass. In her dinner basket one day last week, she carried a glass of jelly and the glass somehow became broken. She swallowed a piece of the glass while eating the jelly and for several days afterwards she suffered the most excruciating pains. She was taken to the hospital and the glass was removed. The girl is now recovering.

—A little colored girl named Mary Bonner, going to the colored graded school, had a very painful experience this week by swallowing a piece of glass. In her dinner basket one day last week, she carried a glass of jelly and the glass somehow became broken. She swallowed a piece of the glass while eating the jelly and for several days afterwards she suffered the most excruciating pains. She was taken to the hospital and the glass was removed. The girl is now recovering.

—A little colored girl named Mary Bonner, going to the colored graded school, had a very painful experience this week by swallowing a piece of glass. In her dinner basket one day last week, she carried a glass of jelly and the glass somehow became broken. She swallowed a piece of the glass while eating the jelly and for several days afterwards she suffered the most excruciating pains. She was taken to the hospital and the glass was removed. The girl is now recovering.

—A little colored girl named Mary Bonner, going to the colored graded school, had a very painful experience this week by swallowing a piece of glass. In her dinner basket one day last week, she carried a glass of jelly and the glass somehow became broken. She swallowed a piece of the glass while eating the jelly and for several days afterwards she suffered the most excruciating pains. She was taken to the hospital and the glass was removed. The girl is now recovering.

—A little colored girl named Mary Bonner, going to the colored graded school, had a very painful experience this week by swallowing a piece of glass. In her dinner basket one day last week, she carried a glass of jelly and the glass somehow became broken. She swallowed a piece of the glass while eating the jelly and for several days afterwards she suffered the most excruciating pains. She was taken to the hospital and the glass was removed. The girl is now recovering.

—A little colored girl named Mary Bonner, going to the colored graded school, had a very painful experience this week by swallowing a piece of glass. In her dinner basket one day last week, she carried a glass of jelly and the glass somehow became broken. She swallowed a piece of the glass while eating the jelly and for several days afterwards she suffered the most excruciating pains. She was taken to the hospital and the glass was removed. The girl is now recovering.

—A little colored girl named Mary Bonner, going to the colored graded school, had a very painful experience this week by swallowing a piece of glass. In her dinner basket one day last week, she carried a glass of jelly and the glass somehow became broken. She swallowed a piece of the glass while eating the jelly and for several days afterwards she suffered the most excruciating pains. She was taken to the hospital and the glass was removed. The girl is now recovering.

—A little colored girl named Mary Bonner, going to the colored graded school, had a very painful experience this week by swallowing a piece of glass. In her dinner basket one day last week, she carried a glass of jelly and the glass somehow became broken. She swallowed a piece of the glass while eating the jelly and for several days afterwards she suffered the most excruciating pains. She was taken to the hospital and the glass was removed. The girl is now recovering.

—A little colored girl named Mary Bonner, going to the colored graded school, had a very painful experience this week by swallowing a piece of glass. In her dinner basket one day last week, she carried a glass of jelly and the glass somehow became broken. She swallowed a piece of the glass while eating the jelly and for several days afterwards she suffered the most excruciating pains. She was taken to the hospital and the glass was removed. The girl is now recovering.

—A little colored girl named Mary Bonner, going to the colored graded school, had a very painful experience this week by swallowing a piece of glass. In her dinner basket one day last week, she carried a glass of jelly and the glass somehow became broken. She swallowed a piece of the glass while eating the jelly and for several days afterwards she suffered the most excruciating pains. She was taken to the hospital and the glass was removed. The girl is now recovering.

—A little colored girl named Mary Bonner, going to the colored graded school, had a very painful experience this week by swallowing a piece of glass. In her dinner basket one day last week, she carried a glass of jelly and the glass somehow became broken. She swallowed a piece of the glass while eating the jelly and for several days afterwards she suffered the most excruciating pains. She was taken to the hospital and the glass was removed. The girl is now recovering.

—A little colored girl named Mary Bonner, going to the colored graded school, had a very painful experience this week by swallowing a piece of glass. In her dinner basket one day last week, she carried a glass of jelly and the glass somehow became broken. She swallowed a piece of the glass while eating the jelly and for several days afterwards she suffered the most excruciating pains. She was taken to the hospital and the glass was removed. The girl is now recovering.

—A little colored girl named Mary Bonner, going to the colored graded school, had a very painful experience this week by swallowing a piece of glass. In her dinner basket one day last week, she carried a glass of jelly and the glass somehow became broken. She swallowed a piece of the glass while eating the jelly and for several days afterwards she suffered the most excruciating pains. She was taken to the hospital and the glass was removed. The girl is now recovering.

—A little colored girl named Mary Bonner, going to the colored graded school, had a very painful