NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES. The Lincoln Progress says: On last Saturday as Mr. J. H. Wooley, a prominent citizen of Cherryville, was attempting to clear his gin of motes, his hand was caught by the saws and his arm drawn into the machine. His hand and arm to the elbow were horribly mangled .--- Sarah Hause, a married woman, whose intimacy with a boy named Eli Helms, gave rise to an indictment and conviction of Helms for fornication and adultery, at the last term of Lincoln Superior Court, has eloped with the boy since his term of imprisonment expired. They went to some point in South Carolina and have not been heard of since. Joseph Hause, husband of the woman, has taken preliminary steps towards securing a divorce.

The Asheville Citizen says: Major Herndon with his wife visited the Southern Exposition, and returned from Louisville with some valuable trophies of his trip. He brought back a second premium 2 year old stallion; a first premium 2 year old black filly from the Shelby county fair, and also two other fillies, and also a registered Jersey heifer. All these are valuable acquisitions, which stock men and others will appreciate.

The Spirit of the South says that George Brown, a colored boy about 16 rears of age, was shot at Old Hundred last Sunday by Frank Williams, colored, and died from the effects of the wound received a few hours afterwards. Arthur Bennett, colored, was lodged in jail here Monday by Deputy Sheriff Livingston as accessory to the murder, Williams making his escape.—Last Tuesday Mr Martin Rush, one of Montgomery county's oldest and best citizens, was so severely injured by his horse running away with him near his residence (he had started to Troy court) that he died the following day.

I am not in rectice, but am my sole family physician, and advise in many 8,200 chronic coses, Over a year ago i recommended your Hop Bitters to my invalid wife, who has been under medical treatment of Albany's best physicians several years. She has become thoroughly cured of her various complicated diseases by their use. We both recommend them to our friends,

Abraham and Joshua had been invited to a splendid dinner. It was impossible for Joshua not to make capital out of such an opportunity; accordingly he managed to slip a silver spoon into Abraham was green with envy at Joshua's success, for he had not even manipulated a salt-snoon Rut an ide struck him. "My frents," he cried. "1 will show you some dricks." Then taking up a spoon he said. "You zees dees spoon? Vell, it ees gone?" he cried, passing it up his sleeve. "You will find it in Joshua's bood." It was found.

Dry Tetter. For years I was afflicted with dry tetter of the most obstinate type. Was treated by many of the best physicians; took quantities of mercury, potsh and arsenic, which, instead of curing the tetter, crippled me up with mineral poison and rheumatism. The tetter continued to grow worse, and the itching almost made me crazy. In this condition I was induced to take Swift's Specific and the iching almost made me crazy. In this condition I was induced to take Swift's Specific, and the result was as astonishing as it was gratifying. In a few months the tetter was entirely well, the mercurial poisoning all out of my system, and I was a well man-and due only to Swift's Specific. All like sufferers should take it, JAMES DUNNING,

Owning a whole Coal Mine.

From Detroit Post and Tribune. About two miles north of Grand Ledge, in the heart of a large old forest, lives an eccentric but happy fellow named Dick Luke. His daily labors are devoted to the interest of a coal mine, which extends 500 feet into the side of a hill, and wherein, by the aid of the rays of a lard-oil lamp, Dick Luke has for ten years past crouched on his side and back and slowly picked the treasure from the mother earth The tunnel is only about three feet in diameter, and Dick's companions are his long clay pipe and pick-axe. About one and one half tons of coal per day are extracted from Dick's one-man power mine, which is sold at the mine for $3.50 per ton. Nothing Like It. No medicine has ever been known in the South so effectual in the cure of all those diseases arising from an impure condition of the blood as kosadalis, the Great Southern Bemedy. for the cure of Scrofula. White Swelling, Rheumatism. Pimples, Blotches, Rruptions, Venereal Seres and Diseases. Consumption, Goitre, Boils, Cancers, and all kindred diseases. Bosadalis purifies the the system, brings color to the cheaks and restores the sufferer to a normal condition of health and vigor.

gor. It is asserted that the ordinary cosmetics used by ladies are productive of great mischief. We believe this is so, and that a better means of securing a beautiful complexion is to use some good blood medicine like Rosadalis, the Great Southern Bemedy, which cleanses the blood and gives per manent beauty to the skin.

HARGRAVE & ALEXANDER,

Old and Only in the Way.

'We're poor, we're old, and only in the way!'

"As we walk through the street, how often we meet, some Poor old man, whose life is naught but woe; With age his form is bent, in his pocket not a cent, And for shelter do not know where to go. With relations by the score, who keep him from the door, And meeting on the street they pass them by; If you ask them why it's done, they will answer you and say,-

"There was a time I hear, when the young were not so queer, But since that time there's come an awful change: Young men in health and might, their old parents they will strike, And it happens every day; it's nothing strange.

For death I'm sure he oftentimes does pray: Himself and faithful wife, after toiling all their life, When old, they find that they are in the way!"

"My little song, I'm sure, is for rich as well as poor, For take a rich man when he's growing old; His friends will shake his hand, his relations round him stand, Awaiting him to die, they want his gold. Then let us from this hour do all that's in our power To make the road for old folks light and gay; And if they trouble on us cast, why let this be our last To say, that they are old, and in the way.

Take this poor wreck of toil, his children him do spurn,

So let us cheer them on. They won't be with us long, Don't let us sneer because they're old and gray; And remember while we're young

The days to us may come,
When we will be old and only in the way:"
