little fellow awoke in the morning bright and hap-py. The mother was delighted with the sudden and wonderful change, and although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has con-tinued to use the Syrup, and suffering crying bables and restless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet failed to relieve the baby, and overcome the prejudices of the mother. Sold by all Druggists. 25 cents a bottle.

A Down Town Merchant, Having passed several sleepless nights, disturb ed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, pro-cured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homeopathy. That night the child parsed in suffering, and the parents without sleep. Re'urning home the day following, the father found the baby still worse; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties, and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a por-tion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands sleept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and hapin fact they were less than the operating expenses. The plaintiff further alleges that January, 1882, the defendants induced him by repeated representations of the enormous value of the stocks to buy some of them; that he acquired 600 shares on which he lost the sum which he now seeks to recover by the present suit. Three other actions of a similar IMPORTANT TO THE MEN, character have been begun by other persons.
