Goldsboro Messenger: The negro Elijah Battle, whose shooting we chronicled last week, died last Thursday night from his wounds, and coroner Dr Tom Hill held an inquest Friday morning resulting in a verdict that Battle came to his death from gun shot wounds inflicted by Dempsey Lewis, colored. The evidence is pretty strong against the negro.

Wilson Advance: A friend at Faison writes us that there was a good deal of excitement in one of the graded school rooms Tuesday. It seems that one of lady teachers went to the piano, and finding there was something wrong, as it would not play, looked in and saw a large snake. She gave the alarm, the room was quickly cleared of all except the principal and a few larger boys, who succeeded in capturing and killing his snakeship, which measured 42 inches in length.

MOONSHINER METHODS.

A North Carolina correspondent tells how the moonshiners sell illicit whisky: "On the roadside a big horn is hung to a tree. You blow a blast, and a girl steps out and tells you to put your hand into her pocket. You comply. You drop some money in the pocket, and take out your bottle and go. Flirting is at your peril; for a six-foot moonshiner is in point blank range with his hand on the trigger of his pursuader."

A witness in a "moonshine" case, tried in Louisville on Tuesday last, told how the whiskey trade is carried on down on Green river: "I wanted a few gallons, and went to Davis and told him how much I wanted." "Did Davis let you have the whiskey?" the prosecutor inquired. "Oh, no," the witnes replied. "Did you take it away from the still yourself?" "No. indeed." "Well, how did you get it?" "I went away and re-is that I got my liquor."

Saved From a Horrible Death.

Up to May last I had spent at least five hundred dollars for treatment by many of the best medical men, without any benefit. I suffered excrutiatingly, and all my best friends advised me that the icy hand of death was fast apploaching. I caught at 5. S. S. like a drowning man at a straw after taking two bottles I could feel a change for the better. The sores began to discharge freely and the rheumatism to abate. When I had taken six bottles every sore had healed and my skin began to assume a natural appearance. I persisted until I had taken twelve bottles, large size and there is not a symptom of the disease remaining, and I feel as well as I ever did. I have gained twenty-one pounds in sesh, and my friends wonder at my improved condition. I have recommended it to many, and in every instance with complete success. I believe that d. S. S. has saved me frem a horrible death.

Some People.

"I wish to gracious some people would learn when they need a doctor and when they den't," exclaimed Doctor E-, as he entered his house in a cosy little village in the interior of the State of New York, after a tedious night ride of many miles. "I have been down among the mountains to see a man, who, the messenger said, was very sick and not likely to live 'til morning, unless he had immediate help; and found him suffering from a rather sharp attack of colic, which his famlly might have relieved in ten minutes, if they had a grain of sense and two or three simple remedies in the house But no; they must remain ignorant as pigs, and when the least ache or pain takes them, send for a doctor, whether they ever pay him or not "

"Why, Doctor, what kind of simple remedies, as you call them, do you expect people to keep in the house?" asked the wife, as she poured him a cup of hot tea,

"In this case," answered the Doctor, "if they had only put a BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER on the man's stomach, he would have been all right in an hour, and saved me a drear; ride"

In all ordinary complaints it cures at once.
All diseases are eliminated from the system by what may be roughly called expulsion or extrac tion, or by a union of the two processes. Benson's Plaster promotes both. It incites the torpid organs to act, and sends its soothing influence through the myriad pores of the skin. All other plasters oblige the patient to wait. They give him hope for to morrow. Benson's plaster gives him help to-day. Which is better, do you think? Buy the CAPCINE and keep it in the house. Price, 25
