THIS AND THAT. "I hate to have a tax bill poked in my face," said the young woman when the assessor attempted to snatch a kiss...

"Can your wife drive?" one Somerville man asked another. "Drive?" what? "Drive a horse, of course."

When a man kums to me for advice I find out the kind of advice he wants, and I give it to him; this satisfies him that he and I are two smart men as there is living.—Josh Billings.

"The dynamite party," exclaimed Mrs. Shooey, who was reading over the papers. "Dear me, August, we'll have to give one right away, before those Smiths hear of it. I wonder what it's like."

"Let us play we are married," said little Edith, "and I will bring my doll and say, 'See baby, papa.' "Yes," replied Johnny. "And I will say, 'Don't bother me now; I want to look through the paper.'"

"You said you were going to vote for me," indignantly exclaimed a defeated candidate, addressing Mike, the well-known Irishman. "An didn't I vote for ye?" "No, you didn't." "Well, so in that event, there's only one conclusion that I kin arrive at. 'And what is that?"

There is not a dude in Finland. "Finland dudes," says the historian, "never live long enough to be completed. They are used for a crab bait before their buttons be disclosed, and are thus sensibly utilized in the liquid morn and dew of youth before contagious ailments become imminent.—The Cranks' Gazette.

Things one would not have said: Mrs. A.—"Come and lunch with us tomorrow. You will be interested in the schoolmaster's bride." Mrs. B.—"Oh, yes, how you like her?" Mrs. A.—"Oh, yes, well, only she's a little unused to the ways of society. Shouldn't like to ask her to meet nice people."—E. change.

POLITICAL OPINION. In apprehension of the probable fate of the Republican party, it is believed that Mr. Ingross will revise his views on futurity.—San Francisco Examiner, Dem.

The elections of this year are merely the skirmish lines of the battle for presidential nominations. The real battle for position preliminary to the election itself will be fought in the next session of Congress. If the Democrats wish to secure the key to the situation, they will reduce the war tariff taxes, prune the appropriations and support civil service reform.—Boston Herald, Ind.

Neverbefore was the newspaper man so great a helpmeet of justice as at present. As an agency in the rooting out of crime, in the exposure of frauds and the detection of criminals, his usefulness has long been recognized. Of later years he has become an important feature of the courts, and on his testimony has hung the decision of many trials. His functions range from the detective to the judge, and in all he is equally good.—Baltimore American, Rep.

Southern Democrats must be pardoned if they persist in taking a Democratic instead of a Republican view of the situation in the ancient commonwealth. They regard Butler as the fittest of all men to be Governor of that State. He is no worse now than he was 20 years ago. Indeed he is the self-same person. If it was an envying sight to see the people of Maryland and Louisiana dance to his music a score of years ago, it is no less animating and far more appropriate to see the Republicans of Massachusetts dance to his music in these dull, sluggish days.—St. Louis Republican, Dem.

The Kentucky Turf. LOUISVILLE, Oct. 10.—There were six events on the card to day. The first race for beaten horses at a mile was won by Sovereign, Pat Wallflower second, time 1:44.

The third race was won by Aztec, Arcino second, time 1:50 1/2. The fourth race, three quarter mile heats for all ages at selling allowances, was won by Collab, Bonnie Bird second, time 1:15.

The fifth race, a handicap for two year olds at five furlongs, was won by Conking, Ester second, time 1:38 1/2. The sixth race, a handicap for all ages by a mile and a half, was won by Effie H. Mattie, Rapture second, time 1:51 1/4.

A Democratic View of Butler. The Hon. Henry B. Payne, of Cleveland, Ohio, in conversation regarding the Democratic nomination for President, said of Gov. Butler: "I think it is simply absurd to name him in such a connection. He has no chance whatever. He could not carry a single Northern State, not mentioning the South, where he is not cherished with feelings of pleasure. He could not carry Massachusetts in a presidential contest. I consider it the height of foolishness for the papers to associate him with the Democratic nomination for President."

In Favor of a Bankrupt Law. At a meeting of bank presidents at Boston yesterday a resolution was adopted "that it is the opinion of the Bank Presidents' Association of Boston that a speedy enactment by Congress of a national bankrupt law, equitable in its provisions for the debtor and creditor, in all sections of the country, is indispensable to the maintenance of confidence between banks and their constituents, and we engage and approve of the law, so called, with possibly some needed amendments, as the most expedient and best adapted to the wants of the people." It was also voted to send delegates to the convention to be held in Washington in aid of the bill.

The Logan Boom. Washington Post (Dem.) The Logan boom is understood to have been laid away in a cedar chest and sprinkled with some of Col. Don Platt's celebrated anti-moth preparation to await further developments in relation to President Arthur's candidacy. If the Virginia election seals the fate of the coalition, the Illinois Senator will regard the result as equivalent to the abdication of the Arthur boom.

Morseford's Acid Phosphate. In Right Sweets and Prostration. Dr. B. Stuchalter, St. Louis, Mo., says: "I have had in dyspepsia, nervous prostration, in right sweets, with good results."
