The Daily Observer

VOL. 1. CHARLOTTE, N. C., FRIDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 3, 1869. No. 189.

Selected Story

A QUEER OLD LADY.

One of the best writers in America makes a good picture of a popular old lady. Will our young readers tell us what her name is? How different people appear at different times, as when we are sick or well, rejoicing or mourning, laughing or weeping.

sive dressing—things that ladies must have, even if their husbands fail. Here are diamond pins and rings—just the things to stir up envy and create extravagance.

A correspondent of the Country Gentleman says that hand friction—always rubbing down—will certainly keep wind galls from increasing.
