Vol. I. CHARLOTTE, N. C., TUESDAY MORNING SEPTEMBER 28, 1869. No. 2012.

PLANTATION BITTERS.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid, it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

Wherever it is introduced it becomes a standard article—a medicinal staple. It is to-day the best and purest tonic, and the most popular medicine in the civilized world—be sure and get the genuine. Sold by all Druggists, Grocers and Country Stores.

THE NORFOLK JOURNAL, Published Daily, Tri-Weekly and Weekly. Reading Matter Largely Increased!

NO INCREASE IN SUBSCRIPTION PRICE!

The JOURNAL is devoted to the development of the material interests of North Carolina and Virginia; is the advocate of reconstruction under the programme enunciated by Congress; contains reliable and interesting reports of the prices current in North and in the principal centres of trade in the United States and Europe, and during the sessions of the Legislature and of Congress will contain interesting and spicy letters from Raleigh, Richmond and Washington.

Besides a full detail of all the current news of the day, it will give attention to articles for the benefit of truckers, fruit growers, and agriculturalists generally. Miscellaneous articles, local topics, poetry, and other matter will make the JOURNAL a most readable, and, we trust, a most welcome visitor to the family circle, as well as to the business and working man.

In a few weeks the JOURNAL will be presented to its patrons in a HANDSOME DRESS OF NEW TYPE, and enlarged by FOUR additional columns, without increase of subscription price.
