The Sigma Theta class of Tryon Street Methodist church will be entertained this evening by Miss Hannah West at her home on North Howard street.

The second recital to be given by members of the graduating class of Elizabeth College Conservatory of Music will be given by Misses Usher and Bryant last night, who played before a most enthusiastic audience.

The work of these two young musicians proved exceedingly enjoyable to those present and demonstrated the careful training which they had undergone under the direction of Mr. Zehm.

Miss Usher's playing was always artistic and refined and upon occasions spirited and energetic with plenty of technique, as in her last selection, Liszt's "Second Rhapsody."

Little Misses Marie and Josephine Gonzalez, at the home of their father, Mr. Charles Gonzalez, 113 South A street, entertained in a most delightful manner their friends and schoolmates to an Easter egg hunt yesterday afternoon.

Miss Bell Sawyer of Summit Point, W. Va. is visiting her brother, Mr. Luther Snyder, at his home on Elizabeth Heights.

An attractive feature of the Easter edition of The Philadelphian Record Sunday was a description of the unique celebration by the Moravians of Salem, which, as usual, were attended by a number of Charlotte people.

Mrs. W. H. Jennings of Shelby, was a visitor in the city yesterday, a guest at the Central.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Boykin, who have been residing in Charlotte for the past few months have returned to their old home of Chatham, Va. where they will reside in the future.

Mrs. E. L. Bussey will entertain Charlotte Chapter, Daughters of the Revolution, at her home on North Tryon street, Friday afternoon.

Mrs. A. B. Wingfield will entertain at bridge-to-morrow afternoon at her home on East Boulevard, complimenting her guests, Miss Daisy Durando and Mr. D. B. Edmunds, of Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mrs. Joseph Ross will entertain at bridge Thursday and Friday afternoons, complimenting to her guests, Miss Mary F. Alexander, of Fayetteville.

Mrs. Louie Gibson, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Draper, on Elizabeth avenue, for the past two weeks, has returned to her home in Lexington, Ky.

Miss Kathleen Minus, of Winthrop College, is visiting Mrs. M. H. Stewart, at her home on Mint street.

Mrs. Charles McManaway will entertain the Treble Clef, at her home on East Sixth street to-morrow afternoon. Following is the programme to be rendered:

Question box (Chapter 11). Leader, Mrs. O. B. Saine. Paper—Dance Forms and Their Meets in the Gayette, Waltz, Mazurka, etc. Mrs. McManaway. Discussion and Miscellaneous programme, illustrating the Prelude, Intermzzo, Trio, Coda, Theme, etc.

Mrs. H. A. Beach. The Lyric Form. Author Footes Poems of Tone, after Omar Khayyam, Miss Sallie Dixon.

One of the most brilliant social events of the season was the Bachelors' Ball held in the ball room at the Selwyn last night. A delightful course

THE POLITICAL POT—SIMMERS NO MORE

Mr. Hawkins Now Has a Clear Field in Majority Race—City Attorney McRae Will Not be in the Running Again.

Serene—quiet—almost innocuous—these characteristics that characterize the political pot as recorded by the stenographer and other shake-up recording instruments yesterday morning.

The report that there would be another candidate afield to-day to take the place which was urged so diligently upon Mr. J. D. McCall, but was refused, would not have been surprising if it had not been so.

Mr. T. W. Hawkins' nomination and election now seems a matter of certainty, and the average citizen is almost jubilant over the prospect of a noiseless campaign, free from oratorical mud-slinging and reputational bashing that is often characteristic of the average campaign.

Mr. J. D. McRae, who has made for the city a conscientious and faithful city attorney for two years past, is not a candidate for re-election to the hands of the board of aldermen, and those who know Mr. McRae, understand that this is final with him.

Mr. Nixon who has been instrumental in bringing about the fusion of all factions in politics, is not a candidate for mayor, will be the next city attorney, it is generally understood.

The discussions political to-day were centered largely on the question of who shall be nominated for aldermen on the harmony which has proven so popular, with Mr. Hawkins heading the list.

—The voters in Ward 8 will meet to-night over the Dilworth Drug Store for the purpose of naming an aldermanic ticket in the coming municipal primary.

—The University baseball club arrived in the city this morning and is stopping at the Selwyn. Fans of the city are looking forward with a great deal of interest to the game with St. Johns College.

—No mass meeting of the friends of Mr. T. W. Hawkins, who is the avowed candidate for mayor, was held last night. Headquarters have been established at No. 17 West Fifth street, where all voters are invited to call during the next ten days.

At a meeting of the steering committee of the Republican city organization last night, it was agreed that the central committee that a full ticket from mayor down shall be put out. This would probably have the effect of stimulating the Democrats to the contest.

—The Masonic bazaar is the biggest and best display ever seen. All the amusement and entertainment features good and the refreshments are better.

—Hot supper served from 7 to 10:30 and you get your money's worth. Do not fail to see Bob Keesler's show and hear his spic.

—Mrs. Duckworth, wife of Mr. H. D. Duckworth, who has been very ill at her home in Severalls for some weeks, is now convalescing and hopes to be entirely recovered within a short time.

supper was served, the ball room was artistically decorated in decorations appropriate to the season. Souvenirs in the form of silver hat brushes bearing the inscription "Bachelors' were given.

The dance was led by Miss Louise Jones and Mr. George White. The others dancing were Miss Annie Wilson with Mr. T. R. Brem; Miss Sarah Brockenbrough with Mr. J. A. Patton; Miss Lucy Robertson with Mr. H. W. Moore; Miss Catherine Ray, of McAdenville, with Mr. J. W. Moore; Miss Lillian Wood with Mr. H. N. Pharr; Mrs. and Mrs. C. Nalle, Mr. and Mrs. J. Draper, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Lassiter, Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie Sadler, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Burwell, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. McAden, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. VanNess, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Alexander, Dr. and Mrs. C. I. A. Dodsword, Dr. and Mrs. M. G. Hunter, Dr. and Mrs. B. S. Moore, Mrs. J. H. Tallafiero with Mr. F. L. Caldwell.

TO-DAY'S MOVEMENTS OF THE MARKETS

QUOTATIONS ON COTTON, STOCKS, GRAIN PRODUCE

The Chronicle's Financial and Commercial Review of the Prices Current.

INTERESTING MARKET FEATURES ARRANGED FOR BUSY READERS

COTTON

NEW YORK. NEW YORK, APRIL 13.—A renewal of the buying movement at the opening of cotton forced prices up 4 to 8 points. It was simply a strong bull market, ignoring everything but the force of buying orders. Opening: May, 10.07; July, 10.08; October, 9.96.

NEW YORK STOCKS. NEW YORK, APRIL 13.—The stock market opened irregularly. Some few stocks in which there was concentrated buying showed advances while the majority of the list showed a loss. The leading stocks were under pressure, Union Pacific selling down 3-4, and others 1-4 to 1-2.

Chicago Grain and Provisions. CHICAGO, APRIL 13.—Strong and excited European markets with sharp advances in both spot and futures and a liberal decrease in European visible, and light Northwest receipts caused strong and higher wheat, advances ranging from 7-8 to 1-3-4 over there. Opening: Wheat, May 1277-8; July, 1181-2; Corn, May 663-4; Oats, May 545-8; Pork, July 181-2.

Table with columns for prices, High, Low, Close. Rows include Charlotte Grain, Wheat, Corn, Oats, Meal, Cotton, etc.
