

SOME HELPFUL HINTS FOR HOUSEWIVES FOR BOUDOIR, TOILETTE AND KITCHEN

ONE-PIECE EFFECT PROVES POPULAR

The 1909 one-piece effect will be achieved with one length of fabric fitted to the figure; not in the facile manner of last season, when a blouse and skirt were combined under a belt, a panel being added in front to suggest a one-piece effect.

The 1909 dress is a much more serious proposition for the inexperienced dress maker to undertake, for it must fit apparently without fitting, and only the master hand can accomplish this effect without bungling.

This fancy for one-piece frocks amounts to a veritable craze in Paris. Every couturier is vying with all the others to turn out a model so individual in style that it shall make a talker of the name behind it.

In linen there are particularly pretty one-piece dresses; one charming rose colored model by the unsurpassed Cheruit looking for all the world like a simple little pinaflore, covering the wearer from neck to ankles and being strapped at the back under a big fancy button.

But the deceitful little simple pinaflore will prove a puzzling problem to the woman who tries to copy the wonderful sloping cut of this graceful frock the front gore being a triangle, the back a straight panel and the sides fitting around and under the other portions like a section of a jigsaw puzzle.

Perhaps the smartest of all the one-piece dresses are the new polonaises, which button from neck to hem and hang in long, simple lines which outline without accentuating the curves of the figure.

BE ATTRACTIVE ON RAINY DAYS.

Even on inclement days the girl of to-day wants to look her best. She does not wear any old hat and frock for fear of the rain, but she dresses herself from head to foot in a costume built for the weather.

It is now her custom to save her good and expensive fish net veils for dry weather, so on wet days she wears a close face veil of deep rose, pink chiffon and over this a thin veil of gray sewing silk.

These are snugly pinned over her hat, covering the trimming and neatly tucked into place at the nape of the neck at the top.

BRIGHT GIRL CHEMIST MAKES A DISCOVERY

A girl who has learned all sorts of queer things in the chemistry class says that one can make electric light globes look like frosted glass with alcohol and shellac.

Take a little white shellac, thin with alcohol, dip the globe into it and hang to dry.

It is a good imitation of frosted glass.

If a color is desired, get egg dyes and dissolve the mixture in wood alcohol and mix it into a little shellac. Dip the globes into the mixture, and you get a pretty shade.

If at any time you wish to have the clear globe again, the color can be removed by soaking the globe in wood alcohol.

This is a clever idea for coloring globes when a color scheme is desired during a party or special entertainment.

LINEN TUNERS.

Embroidered linen tuners and Dutch collars of linen or lace are here in a charming variety.

WOMEN'S CLOTHES ARE LESS ORNATE.

We are constantly admonished that there will, sooner or later, be a revolution from the over-ornate in women's clothes and a reversion to the simple.

This is not to be doubted, if we are to judge by the history of fashions that have passed.

Rumor has it that a certain relief is experienced by the wearer of the plain jabot. This is described as a perfectly unornamented strip of handkerchief linen, and pleated into the most perfect of frills.

Somehow it seems to have a comfortable, clean and satisfactory sound from start to finish. It suggests no searching for the lace, no wonderful pattern to master, no long hours of fine stitching and no sham battle with the laundress.

WANDERING MINDS ARE UNSUCCESSFUL

"No absent-minded woman can be a success socially," remarked a young matron from this city.

"It's this way," she started to explain. "The secret of being popular lies in concentrating your mind on what the person who is talking to you is saying. You must appear engaged, almost enraptured and hang on every word. Did you ever see an absent-minded person who could keep that up long?"

"No, indeed! Her mind wanders, and you see it in her eye. Now, if there is anything more insulting than to talk to a woman who wears that expression I would like to know what it is; that's all! No wonder the absent-minded lady is unpopular!"

PROTECT YOUR EYES; HOW TO SAVE THEM.

If you want good eyes never read facing the light with the head lowered on a moving train, while you are rocking, when you are weary and hungry nor immediately before dusk.

Don't use your eyes when they smart; smarting means that they are calling for rest.

Beware of a dazzling sunshine or a high wind on a very dusty day; even if you boast of strong eyes, under such conditions better protect them with glasses.

Don't squint; it weakens the lids. Neither must you wink unconsciously.

All these precautions are within your control, and will repay you to heed them.

POWDER THE SLIPPERS AND SAVE STOCKINGS

Girls will not be half so apt to dance holes in their delicate silk stockings if only they will have slippers powdered inside.

This simple operation permits the silk and shoe to rub together with much less friction, and the wear is thus not so great.

THICKENING GRAVIES.

When thickening gravies, some cooks get better results by melting the butter in saucapan, adding the flour and pouring the boiling milk into the thickening instead of vice versa.

MANY MAIDENS SEEK HUSBANDS

Belgian Girls Prepare for Their Annual Fair at Hainaut.

BRUSSELS, April 27.—The matrimonial breeze is blowing over Belgium. The maidens of Ecaussinnes, in the province of Hainaut, have issued their annual invitation "to all available bachelors in the world" to come and marry them.

A party will be given to such bachelors as accept the invitation on Whit Monday and an opportunity will be given them to make a choice among the feminine youth and beauty of the village. This yearly party at Ecaussinnes was organized seven years ago and has proved most successful. All the members of the original committee have long been married to bachelors who came from distant places and their advice to their sisters is to go and do likewise.

This year the festival will begin on Whit Monday, at 10 o'clock, when the maidens will meet arriving bachelors at the station and take them to the town hall to sign the golden book. In the afternoon there will be in the market place a pageant of bachelors, who will be addressed by the president of the maidens' committee. Afternoon tea will be served by the girls, and a concert and ball will conclude the day's festivities.

On the other hand, the bachelors of a neighboring village, Ronqueres, announce a similar feté for White Sunday, and all maiden ladies are invited to attend. Whitsuntide in Belgium seems to offer special opportunities to any one in the world who wants to get married. The only necessary formality is to send in one's name to the president of either organization before May 15, and an invitation will be forthcoming.

MRS. CLAUDIA HAINS MAY TESTIFY

The Defense is Perturbed Over the Prospect—Eleventh Juror is Secured.

FLUSHING, L. I., April 27.—Council for the defense of Capt. Peter C. Hains, is worried to-day over a report that Claudia Hains is in New York, awaiting the call of the prosecution to appear as a witness. She left Boston a week ago and is said to be ready to give testimony to establish premeditation and thus shatter the defense of insanity.

General Hains said to-day that he would bring the children of Hains to court to-morrow believing that the slight may make Captain Hains realize his position.

The eleventh juror, Emst Leftner, was secured to-day.

ELEPHANT'S FOOT FOR ROOSEVELT.

LONDON, April 27.—While Colonel Roosevelt is in Africa he will have an opportunity of tasting that delicious dish, baked elephant's foot.

The Elephas indicus or Elephas (Loxodon) Africanus walks on his toes and the balls of his feet. The real foot of an elephant extends up some distance from the ground. Like the "trotter" of the hog, the foot of the elephant is full of gluten, and the flesh, if properly baked, is very tender, tasting something between pork and chicken. From a freshly killed elephant the foot is cut off at the ankle and baked in a hole in the ground which has previously been heated with hot stones. The hole must be real hot and a few heavy stones left in the bottom. The foot having been put into the hole, which is made just about big enough to receive it—some natives line the hole with green leaves—sand is shoveled over it and left to cook. One must not be in a hurry for his dinner. When taken out and the thick skin peeled away a delicious morsel awaits the epicure.

BRANDENBURG PLANS FIGHT

Says He Will Yet Prove Authenticity of Cleveland Letters.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—Broughton Brandenburg, who was arrested last night soon after his arrival in the Overland train, is determined to fight extradition to New York.

He claims that he will prove his innocence and demonstrate the authenticity of the alleged Cleveland article. The following telegram was received to-day by Chief of Police Cook from District Attorney Jerome: "We will forward by special delivery this morning exemplified copy of indictment against Broughton Brandenburg. In case application be made 'for bail, please ask for high bail.'"

After a conference with his attorney, Jacob Meyer, Brandenburg declared not to attempt any habeas corpus proceedings or resist being held, but to centre his fight against extradition at Sacramento.

Accordingly Meyer hurried to the capital city to attempt to force the New York authorities to make a showing before the Governor honors the requisition.

Rheumatism.

More than nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles, due to cold or damp, or chronic rheumatism. In such cases no internal treatment is required. The free application of Chamberlain's Liniment is all that is needed, and it is certain to give quick relief. Give it a trial and see for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain and soreness. The medicine usually given internally for rheumatism are poisonous or very strong medicines. They are worse than useless in case of chronic and muscular rheumatism. For sale by R. H. Jordan & Co.

BRIDAL TOILET.

The dignity and grace of this princess model recommends it for a bridal toilet. It was made up in soft, white satin. The skirt, opening over a panel of point lace, is slightly draped at the waist and sweeps far behind the wearer in the conventional bridal train. A long strand of orange blossoms at the side conceals the closing. The high point of the skirt, reaching to the yoke, is bound with wide bias bands of the satin. The bodice and upper sleeves are cut in one piece and made of the point lace. Collar, yoke and the lower part of the sleeves are of tacked chiffon.
