Watt on East Ninth street. —The vocal and instrumental graduating recital given by Misses Cornelius and Griffith in the auditorium of the Presbyterian College on Monday night was one of special interest, both young ladies having been in the college for several years and are both deservedly popular. The interpretation of the works of the great masters by these young ladies was excellent. Miss Griffith's instrumental numbers were enthusiastically received by the large audience that thronged forth repeated rounds of applause. —Miss Cornelius has a pure beautiful soprano voice of fine range, flexibility and sweetness and came as a revelation to her audience, who heard her for the first time. The accompaniments by Mrs. Anderson, violin and Miss Carr, piano were highly entertaining and greatly appreciated by the audience. —This morning at 9 o'clock at the Brevard Street Methodist church parsonage, Mr. D. WITNESS IN ASYLUM CASE WAS DRUNK

South Carolina Legislative Commission Holds First Meeting to Hear Testimony. —The first meeting of the legislative asylum investigation commission to hear testimony was held to-day, when one of the witnesses turned up so drunk that he was twice ordered away. —The entire session was taken up in the examination of an ex-patient from Charleston, a man of fine family and splendid education, who had been in twice, five years apart. His testimony developed nothing serious or very interesting. He found no particular fault with the food or the treatment. He recited a few instances of harsh treatment by nurses against patients who could not be controlled. He said the only amusement furnished by the State was dancing and card playing. He was a baseball fan and thought the management did not properly encourage the sport.

Art Exhibit To-Night.

There will be an art exhibition in Miss Anthony's studio at the Presbyterian College this evening from 9 o'clock until 10:30. —The public is cordially invited to attend and inspect the work of the young lady art students. The exhibit contains a large number of excellent pieces of work, and to be a fine index of the nature of the work accomplished by the art department during the past scholastic year.

NEW ALDERMEN; EXECUTIVE BOARD

Aldermen Take Oath of Office at 3 O'Clock This Afternoon—Names of Those Suggested for Places on Executive Board of Five, Which is the Main Subject of Discussion on the Streets To-Day. —The new board of aldermen and Mayor-elect T. W. Hawkins were sworn in this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the city hall, by retiring Mayor T. S. Franklin. —The new board consisting of 21 members, immediately after being sworn in, the mayor thereupon named the executive board of five members. —Ward 1—W. I. Henderson, J. A. Fore, W. H. Hall, J. B. McLaughlin. —Ward 2—Plummer Stewart, T. C. Toomey and W. A. Watson. —Ward 3—Thomas Garibaldi, Z. T. Smith and A. M. Guillet. —Ward 4—E. S. Williams, Col. W. W. Phifer and J. C. Hunter. —Ward 5—Lewis Anderson. —Ward 6—D. A. Johnson. —Ward 7—E. L. Macdonald. —Ward 8—E. R. Smith and Paul C. Whitlock. —Ward 9—Dr. J. C. Montgomery. —Ward 10—David Kistler. —Ward 11—L. W. Wingate. —The new board of school commissioners is composed of the following named: W. H. Belk, W. A. Neal, J. H. Ross, T. T. Smith, W. L. Nicholson, E. F. Creswell, J. Hirsinger, W. F. Harding, S. F. Tomlinson, E. F. Gato, J. A. Smith, F. R. Carter, F. M. Osborne, J. L. Sexton, J. L. Phillips, R. O. Robinson and W. J. Gray. —The new board of aldermen will contain in its personnel only two lawyers, including the mayor, there will be one physician on the board, the remainder being business men of the city. —The Executive Board. —The new board will have the power to meet immediately after being sworn in this afternoon, and selecting the new executive board of five members, but it is hardly thought that this board will be agreed upon before to-morrow, or a day or two later. —Among those who have been mentioned in connection with places on the executive board are Messrs. J. K. Wolfe, Herbert Irwin, G. G. Scott, Joe Garibaldi, D. Parks Hutchison, Pat Phelan, John R. Pharr, P. M. Cave, T. J. Davis and others. —It is reported that a caucus of a majority of the new aldermen had been held already and that they had agreed to support Messrs. J. K. Wolfe and Herbert Irwin as the two members of the executive board, but this report is not substantiated. —Another proposition that some of the members of the board are discussing is that the aldermen shall name a number of members whom they are willing to support for the places, and submit the names to the mayor. —Mr. T. W. Hawkins, and request him to select the five men to constitute the board. There are numerous plans afoot, however, for the forming of the board, and its creation will probably be the most interesting thing in connection with the entire municipal campaign and the subsequent change of city officials. —City Clerk and Treasurer. —The new board of aldermen has the power to appoint several other city officials, including a city clerk and treasurer. Mr. Arthur H. Wear, the present occupant of the office, it is stated, will be re-elected without opposition. Mr. Wear has proven perhaps the most capable of any other official in the city. He has been in the office since he was elected, and his record is very generally accepted as certain. —As to the recordership nothing has been heard whatever to intimate that there will be any change whatever. —Mr. D. E. Smith, now filling the office of recorder, is a man of high ability, having every chance of remaining undisturbed in office. His work since he was installed in this position has proven highly satisfactory. —There will be other heads of departments to be chosen after on, but until the executive board is formed, these positions are not receiving any great degree of public attention as yet. —Another matter of importance which will come up before the new board most likely at the first meeting, will be the election of a city attorney to succeed Mr. J. A. McRae, who has served the city for two years in a highly satisfactory manner. —It has been understood that Mr. Brevard Nixon would likely get this position when the board took the matter up, and up to the present this has not been contradicted. Mr. T. A. Adair applied for the position, he has stated that he would be in the race about three weeks ago. This matter is an important one and will be thoroughly considered by the board when formal action is taken in the matter. —The aldermen's friends have urged upon him that he be in the race. As it is possible that the board will meet to-night, the election of a city attorney may be disposed of at this meeting.

SALVATION RESCUE HOME.

Capt. and Mrs. Winchester Ask That the People of Charlotte Contribute to the Support of This Institution. —The American Salvation Army has in the State of North Carolina a large rescue home for women and girls, located at Raleigh. The home is in charge of Mrs. Capt. Frances Winchester. As this is State work and not city work alone Charlotte is included among the cities of North Carolina that will be benefited by this institution and we ask the support of the citizens of Charlotte to help carry on the work we have begun. The cost of the home when furnished completely will be $500, of which amount $100 has been raised by subscription. All checks and money orders are to be made payable to Capt. F. Winchester and are to be sent to the American Salvation Army Girls Boarding and Industrial Home, No. 419 South Dawson street, at Raleigh. The American Salvation Army has within the last year served over 10,000 people absolutely gratis. The home has provided shelter for over 60,000 people free of charge and 30,000 women girls and babies have passed through our various rescue homes in the United States. Does not work like the above deserve the good will of all. Respectfully, CAPT. AND MRS. F. WINCHESTER.

CULTIVATING GOBLER'S DOMESTIC HABITS.

Out east of town is a turkey gobbler "sitting" contentedly on a big bunch of eggs with good prospects. The owner of the eggs was unable to get the hen to do the mothering, so the gobbler content the owner is serving him with a ration of whiskey soaked corn, keeping the gobbler so jugged that he is unable to walk off and leave the "setting".

MISS FOIL'S RECITAL

Talented Pianist and Teacher Gives Graduating Recital at Presbyterian College in a Delightful Entertainment—A Difficult Programme of Well Contrasted Selections Skillfully Rendered. —Professor Anderson Takes Part. —Miss Helen Foil, whose reputation as a pianist and teacher is so well established in Charlotte, has been giving a course of recitals under Professor Anderson, of the Presbyterian College. Miss Foil gave her graduating recital in the college auditorium last evening. —The programme was so well planned and so well executed that it was a real treat to the audience. Miss Foil's playing was characterized by ease and accuracy, the effect on the audience being very pleasurable. —Miss Foil was fortunate in being assisted in her recital by Prof. Henry Anderson. His rich and cultivated baritone voice added immensely to the enjoyment of the program. —Possessed from Gounod's "Faust" was his first selection—interpreted cleverly and sung delightfully. —Miss Foil was heard again in a Concert Overture, Chromatic Fantasy and a Fugue in G minor. She brought out the beauties of the selection without any difficulty, pedaling and managing organ stops gracefully and very effectively. —Orders Grey, Reeve and "Cullene Rhu." Bliss, were two well contrasted selections sung by Professor Anderson in captivating style, bringing out rich tones of "Mediation," d'Evry, and "Le Cgyne," Saint Saens, made the melodies of the great, big organ come out forcefully under the skillful playing of Miss Foil. —The audience greeted the appearance of Professor Anderson with hearty applause. He sang Prologue (Il Pagliacci) Leon Carello. It was sweet as music and there was dramatic. With pleasing stage presence and a good baritone voice the wonder is that Professor Anderson is not on the concert stage. So gifted as a vocalist the wonder is that Professor Anderson is not professionally vocal teacher. The Presbyterian College and the Charlotte public are satisfied to have matters as they are and avail themselves of Professor Anderson's piano and organ accomplishments. The young ladies of the college surely have an eye for producing artistic stage effects—maybe never designed—they gave Professor Anderson white carnations and white roses. —Miss Foil's closing number was Widor's "Toccata" (from Sixth Symphony), a tremendously difficult and intricate composition, requiring very careful technique, delicate fingering, as well as great strength in fingers, arms and wrist. —Miss Foil excelled herself in this number, which was considered by a number of music lovers in the audience the best of all her selections. —Papers were filed in the clerk's office covering realty deals to-day as follows: —R. B. Turner to W. H. Turner, lot on South Poplar street, consideration $750. —M. C. Quinn to C. B. Miller, lot on Charlotte Consolidated Construction Company to T. H. Merritt, residence and lot in Dilworth, on Rensselaer avenue, 50 feet frontage, consideration $1,953. —Next Term of Court. —The next term of Superior Court in Mecklenburg county will convene on Monday, May 31, when a week will be devoted to the trial of criminal cases on the docket. On Monday, June 7, a two-week term of civil court will begin. Judge Council will preside at these three weeks' terms, there is some unforeseen change arranged for holding the court here. —Mr. John J. Parker, of Greensboro, was among the Charlotte visitors yesterday, stopping at the Buford.
