Tesreau Pitched Sensational Ball Until Seventh When He Blew Up

JOE WOOD WAS MASTER EXCEPT IN TWO FRAMES

Giants Made Wonderful Rally in Ninth But Wood's Blinding Speed Dismayed the Hopes of New York

New York, Oct. 8.—The Boston Americans overcame the New York Nationals by a score of 4 to 3 today before more than 35,000 people in the first game of the world's series. The contest was nip and tuck all the way. The Giants made a thrilling rally in the ninth inning when they nearly tied the score but "Smookey" Woods' terrific speed turned two Giant batters back to the bench on strikes for the last two put outs and the Red Sox carried off the honors.

When victory perched on the banners of the Red Sox post, the Boston delegation marched across the field and Mayor Fitzgerald of Boston who was a guest of Mayor Gaynor led in the cheers for the players of both teams. Governor Foss of Massachusetts and Governor Tener of Pennsylvania saw the contest.

Dramatic Finish. Rarely, if ever, has any world's series game provided such a dramatic finish. Two runs behind, Giant supporters had given up hope. Hundreds were leaving the stands when Merkle sent a single to the outfield after one man was out. A Texas leaguer by Herzog followed by a hit by Meyers which sent Merkle home put the stands in a flame of excitement.

With Giants on second and third, thousands stood in their seats and yelled. Fletcher swung his bat nervously while Joe Wood seemed anxious. The Red Sox twirler patted the grass, hitched his belt, rubbed the ball and adjusted his cap. This delay seemed to unsettle Fletcher and he swung futilely at Wood's fast-breaking shoots three times.

Crandall, a strong man in the pincers, came up. Wood put over two strikes and then three balls. The Red Sox twirler then shot over a high fast in-shoot. Crandall swung, missed and the game was over.

The Fatal Seventh. It was a battle of managerial wits in the selection of pitchers. Manager McGraw planned his faith in Tesreau who held the Red Sox hitless until the sixth inning when Speaker's three-bagger broke the ice. Tesreau weakened in the seventh inning and before the fusillade of Boston hits was over, three scores were made, and the Red Sox had a lead of two runs.

Manager Stahl placed his star pitcher, Joe Wood, on the mound, and in only two innings was the Red Sox pitcher hit hard. His dazzling speed continued undiminished until the last man had struck out. Wood fanned 11 and gave only 2 bases on balls.

Murray Stars. The Giants scored first. In the third inning after Tesreau had fanned Mrs. Peter Holan, 1101 Buckeye Rd., Cleveland, O., says: "Yes, indeed I can recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. My little boy had a bad case of whooping cough, sometimes he was blue in the face. I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and it had a remarkable effect and cured him in a short time." Devore worked the Red Sox boxman for a base on balls. Doyle put up a high fly to left which fell too far back for either Gardner or Wagner to reach. Doyle reached second on the hit but Devore was held at third. Then Murray proved the Giants' hero of the day. The man who went hitless through last year's world's series connected with one of Wood's in-shoots and sent the ball skimming over second for a single and brought Devore and Doyle over the plate.

Tesreau was supreme until the sixth inning. Twenty Red Sox players had faced his quick-breaking spiball before the first hit was made. That was a long drive for 3 bases by Speaker who came home for the first run for the American Leaguers on an infield out by Duffy Lewis.

Tesreau's Finish. The seventh inning saw the end of Tesreau. Three singles and a double sent a Red Sox player home and Manager McGraw was quick to see that the Boston players had at last scored. The Red Sox twirler started the trouble for Tesreau in the seventh after Stahl had been retired. Cady followed with a line drive to center and the Boston delegations in the stand turned loose a lusty cheer. Wood's delivery was not so good as Hooper's shot a double past Merkle, putting Wagner across the plate and sending Wood to third. Yerkes responded with a sharp drive over second and before the ball could be returned to the infield Hooper and Wood had scored. With a lead of 2 runs the Giants had to take the offensive and nobly they responded with their ninth-inning rally which failed by one run of tying the score.

How the Managers View It. "We won as we thought we would, but the Giants gave us a great fight," remarked Manager Stahl as he led his players aboard an early evening train for Boston. "Joe Wood carried us up to victory with fine pitching and our players were ready with their bats when his meant runs."

"The series is just beginning," said Manager McGraw. "We are by no means discouraged by today's defeat. The Athletics were defeated in the first game of the world's series last year but they captured the title of champions."

Business was at a standstill in the financial district while the game was in progress. Traders on the stock exchange and in brokerage houses forsook the stock tickers and hung around the news tape which carried the record of the game. Scores of bankers took a holiday while directors of the Missouri Pacific Railway advanced a directors' meeting one hour that several of them might see the game.

For New York "Larry" Doyle shone with his usual brilliancy. He made two hits in four trips to the plate, one of them being for two bases. He was all over the field and nothing got past him. Herzog also was very much in the game, getting two hits and helping New York to make the third run.

But one attempt was made to steal a base and that came in the second inning, when, after reaching first base on a force, Stahl started down and was flagged by Meyers with a perfect throw to Doyle.

Seventeen Struck Out. Seventeen men struck out. For New York Fletcher fell a victim three times to Wood's "smokey" balls. Tesreau fanned twice and Devore, Snodgrass, Merkle, Herzog, Meyers and Crandall each struck out once. Stahl went out twice on strikes as did also Third Baseman Gardner. Hooper and Speaker struck out once. The umpiring was of the highest order.

When all the preliminary conferences had been concluded, and the photographers had taken pictures of the rival players, the men took their positions amid a storm of cheers, Mayor Gaynor threw out the first ball which Meyers caught and the game was on.

Tesreau gave Hooper, the first Red Sox man up, a base on balls. He took Sick headache is caused by a disordered stomach. Take Chamberlain's Tablets and correct that and the headache will disappear. For sale by all dealers.

second and third on Yerkes' and Speaker's outs, both of which were fast grounders, and was left on the paths when Lewis sent a high fly to Snodgrass.

Wood struck out Devore, the first New Yorker at bat. Doyle shot a grounder to Wagner who threw the New York captain out at first. Snodgrass brought the stands to their feet by driving a single over second, the first hit. Wood passed Murray, but Merkle popped out to Wagner.

In the second inning Fletcher fumbled Gardner's grounder. Stahl hit to Tesreau, who threw Gardner out at second, Stahl reaching first. In trying to steal second Stahl was thrown out. Wagner was given his base on balls and Cady followed by sending a high fly to Murray.

There was very little action in New York's second inning. Herzog sent up a pop fly that Stahl caught and Meyers and Fletcher struck out.

Wood Gets Reception. Wood was given a fine reception by the crowd as he slowly walked to the plate in the third inning. He received a base on balls and Hooper sent him down to second on a neat sacrifice. Tesreau to Merkle. Yerkes again went out. Doyle to Merkle. Wood taking third where he remained as Lewis closed the inning, after Speaker had been purposely passed, with a high fly that Fletcher had to run backward to get.

In New York's biggest inning, the third, Tesreau, the first man up, struck out. Devore walked and a single later pulled up at third when Doyle hit for two bases. Wood appeared to be weakening but he fooled Snodgrass into striking out. Murray singled to center, bringing both Devore and Doyle home with the first runs of the game. Speaker threw home to head off Doyle at the plate but he was too late as Murray was trying to take second on the throw-in was thrown out by Cady, ending the inning.

It was one, two, three for the Bostonians in the fourth inning. Gardner fouled to Herzog, Stahl struck out and Wagner sent up a foul to Merkle. For New York Merkle fanned. Herzog lifted a single to centerfield and went to second on Meyers' weak grounder that Wood got and shot over to Stahl ahead of the Indian. Fletcher struck out for the second time.

In the fifth Cady was an easy out. Doyle to Merkle. Wood rolled an easy grounder to Merkle that the latter scooped up and touched the bag and Hooper for a victim to strike out. Tesreau, the first man up for New York, struck out. Devore sent a high one to Lewis and "Larry" Doyle again brought the stands to their feet by shooting a smart fair which Gardner knocked down. It could not handle. Doyle rounded first as Gardner got the ball and was thrown out at second trying to stretch the hit, Wagner making the out.

Yerkes fled out to Snodgrass in the sixth. Speaker drove one to deep left center. Snodgrass sprinted after the ball and Devore, who had the center fielder apparently had the ball sighted, stopped. Snodgrass ran with the ball and was only able to get his finger on it as he sped toward the centerfield wall. When the ball was returned to the infield Speaker was on third. The Boston outfielder then came home and Lewis' easy out. Doyle to Merkle. Gardner struck out.

New York's sixth inning was quickly over. Wagner fumbled Snodgrass' grounder, the tempting sacrifice. Murray sent up a little pop fly that Stahl gathered in and doubled Snodgrass at first. Wood taking the toss, Merkle ended the inning with a fly to center. The sphere rolled toward the centerfield wall. When the ball was returned to the infield Speaker was on third. The Boston outfielder then came home and Lewis' easy out. Doyle to Merkle. Gardner struck out.

Crandall Gets in Game. In the eighth inning with Crandall pitching, Lewis went out Fletcher to Merkle and Gardner and Stahl struck out. The Giants in their half of the eighth also were quickly disposed of. Devore and Doyle both went out. Wagner to Stahl, and Snodgrass sent a pop fly to Gardner.

Hooper opened the ninth for the Red Sox with a slashing double to left. He went down to third on Cady's sacrifice. Herzog to Merkle, and was held there while Crandall was throwing out Wood to first. Hooper sent a little fly to Doyle. Then followed the dramatic climax when the Giants made a run and failed to win on what promised to be a successful rally.

It was learned tonight that Wagner, the Boston shortstop, hurt his hand when Murray slid into second and was touched out by Wagner in the third inning. Wagner continued playing, however, and it is not believed the injury will prove serious.

DRIVERS AND CORONER THINK RACE TRACK TOO NARROW

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 8.—Opinions expressed by drivers in the Vanderbilt automobile race last week that the road on which the race was driven was too narrow and otherwise unsafe, are in accord to some extent with the report of Coroner H. L. Nathan, on the death of David Bruce Brown, who was killed when his machine went into a ditch prior to the race. The report, says that from the testimony it appears the course was too narrow for two machines to pass and that the surface was rough and soft. The report continues:

"In view of these facts I will say that had the course been constructed on a more solid foundation, the crown smoother and harder and the course wider and the edges more even, this catastrophe might have been avoided."

The report recommends that the American Automobile Association be compelled to formulate laws governing road construction for automobile racing purposes that will preclude deficiencies such as are alleged in this instance.
