GIANTS CRUSH RED SOX HOPES

With Wood Hammered to The Bench In First Inning, Hall Was Called

PALLID-HOSED PLAYERS GREATLY OVERPOWERED

Tesreau Was Erratic But Pitched in Stellar Style When Men Became Perched Upon The Paths, 12 Bostonians Lingered to Death on The Sacks—Smoky Joe Wood No Puzzle for Giants in Opening Round of Battle.

Fenway Park, Boston, Oct. 15.—The New York Giants, pennant winners of the National League, administered a crushing defeat to the Boston Americans today by a score of 11 to 4 in the seventh game of the world's series. Tonight finds the Giants and the Red Sox waiting to engage in the final combat here tomorrow, that is expected to determine which team shall be the world's champions of 1912.

The series now stands: Boston 3 games won, New York 3 games won; one contest a tie. Wood a Broken Reed.

"Smoky Joe" Wood, the Red Sox star twirler, who already had beaten the Giants twice in the series, was sent out to pitch the Red Sox into the world's championship. His end was so swift and so sudden that the 30,000 spectators sat in silence at Fenway Park as they saw his delivery batted to all parts of the field and six Giants were over the home plate before the last New Yorker was put out in the first inning. The Red Sox never recovered from that first inning and though they peppered away fitfully at Tesreau's moist ball, they never came within threatening distance of the Giants. Manager McGraw, in the coacher's box down off third base, directed the attack on Wood. He gave orders to hit the first ball pitched, and pitched an errorless all of the nine men who batted in the first inning, rapped the first ball sent up. This shower of hits, combined with the double steal, paved the way to New York's six runs. Thereafter Wood was a broken reed and Charlie Hall, Boston's relief pitcher, was sent into the box.

The Red Sox later Hugh Bennett ready to go on the firing line tomorrow in the deciding game with Wood prepared to go to his assistance, while the Giants will depend on Mathewson with Marquard held in reserve.

Tesreau Masterful. Tesreau held the whip hand throughout today's game. His moist ball broke sharply over the plate and the Red Sox were unable to fathom his delivery when hits would have scored runs.

Twelve red-legged players were left anchored on bases. Although New York had a commanding lead throughout the game, McGraw kept Mathewson warmed up to relieve Tesreau in case he weakened.

After making six runs in the first inning, the Giants scored another tally in the second, two more in the sixth, one in the seventh and one in the ninth innings. The Red Sox got their first run in the second inning, when Gardner shot a screaming home run into the right field seats, the first circuit drive of the series. Two more runs were scored in the seventh and another in the eighth by the home club.

Captain Doyle drove the ball into the crowd in right field for a home run in the sixth, sending in Devore ahead of him. There were seven strike outs in the game. Herzog was the only man on the Giant team to fan. The Red Sox who were struck out were: Hooper twice, Yerkes, Gardner, Wagner, and Cady once each. The game was loosely played in the field, while a game made it difficult for the fielders to get under fly balls. Play was suspended frequently when dense clouds of dust whirled across the diamond.

Red Sox Have Broken. Manager McGraw said tonight: "The Red Sox have broken and are on the run." He added that with the same aggressive attack made tomorrow, the Giants would be carried to victory. McGraw said his club was thoroughly inflamed with fighting spirit and that the players showed a return to the form that had won them so many victories in the National League in the Spring and early Summer.

Manager Stahl remarked: "All clubs have form reversals but the rebound is always violent. Tomorrow will tell another story for the Red Sox."

The attendance at today's game was 32,894, while the receipts amounted to $57,195. Of this sum each club receives $25,745.25. The National Commission's share is $5,719.60. The weather up to noon was mild, but toward 2 o'clock a wild storm came up accompanied by heavy dark clouds and the temperature fell, making it uncomfortable to spectators and players alike. Thick clouds of dust swept across the field when the game began.

Reception to Wood. Joe Wood was given a hearty reception when he stepped into the pitcher's box. His first offering to Devore was called a ball and the next ball pitched was hit toward Wagner. The shortstop could not field it in time and the runner was safe. Doyle drove a single to center and Devore advanced to second. On the next ball pitched Devore and Doyle caught the Red Sox pitcher napping as they pulled off a double steal. Snodgrass here came to time with a rattling two-base hit to right field and Devore and Doyle came across with New York's first runs. Murray sacrificed, Stahl making the out unassisted, Snodgrass taking third. Devore and Doyle came to left field, but the stiff wind carried it toward the infield and the ball fell safe for a single. Snodgrass scored on the play and Merkle took second on the throw in. Herzog chopped a grounder to Wood and Merkle was run down between second and third base, Wagner getting an assist and Gardner the put out. Herzog took second on the play. "Chief" Meyers singled to left and Herzog scored New York's fourth run. Fletcher cracked a single to right and Hooper made a perfect throw to third to head off Meyers but Gardner muffed the ball, Meyers was safe, and the New York shortstop took second on the throw in. Big "Jeff" Tesreau, ninth New Yorker to go to the plate in the inning, singled past Wood and Meyers came home with the fifth run. Fletcher and Tesreau then attempted a double steal, but Tesreau was caught between the bags, but not before Fletcher slid across the plate with New York's sixth run.

The Giants added another run to the score in the second inning. Hall went in to pitch for Boston and promptly issued a base on balls to Devore, who again stole second on the first ball pitched. Doyle was also given a free pass on four balls, but a moment later Hall caught Devore napping, Wagner taking the throw. Snodgrass shot a single into right field and Doyle moved to the middle bag. Hall tried to repeat the play he made on Devore and he throwing to catch Doyle off the bag, hurled the ball to center field and the New York captain came home, Snodgrass reaching third on the error. Murray sent a fly to Wagner and Merkle closed the inning by grounding out Wagner to Stahl.

Gardner Hits Home Run. Boston scored its first run in the second. Gardner smashed a terrific drive to right center field, the ball bounding over the 3-foot fence into the crowd for a home run, the first made in the series. Stahl sent up a fly to Wagner and Merkle closed the inning by grounding out Wagner to Stahl.

The Giants garnered their tenth run in the seventh inning. Merkle opened with a single to center. Herzog went out on a drive to Lewis. Yerkes hit Gardner's choice on Meyers' grounder, Merkle, was safe at second, as was also Meyers at first. Fletcher flied out to Speaker. Tesreau cracked a single to right field and Merkle scored while Wilson grounded to second. Devore flied out to Lewis.

Lucky Seventh. The "lucky seventh" brought two more runs to the Red Sox. Wilson, in this inning, succeeded Meyers' sacrifice fly to Snodgrass, Yerkes hit and was out at first. Speaker singled to center and went to third on Lewis' two-base hit to left field. Gardner grounded out, Fletcher to Merkle, and Speaker scored. Doyle fumbled Stahl's easy grounder and Lewis came across the plate with Boston's second run of the inning. Wagner was out on strikes.

Boston's fourth run was put together in the eighth inning. Doyle muffed Cady's high fly after he thought one of the other fielders was after it. Hall hit to right field and Cady took third base while Devore slightly fumbled the ball. Hooper then sent Cady home by driving out a sacrifice fly to Snodgrass. Yerkes hit to Tesreau, who deflected the ball and Fletcher, scooping it up, threw Hall out at second. Tesreau uncorked another wild pitch and Yerkes went to second while Hooper was sent when Speaker grounded out, Doyle to Merkle.

New Yery got its last run in the ninth. Herzog received a base on balls, went to third on Wilson's single and scored on Speaker's bad throw to head him off at that bag. Fletcher sent up a fly to Speaker who ran in and touched second base and doubled up Wilson who did not know that the ball had been caught. Tesreau received a base on balls and Devore was out at Yerkes to Stahl.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE FOR STATE PERFECTED.

Raleigh, Oct. 15.—Thirty representatives of chambers of commerce and boards of trade in various cities of the State in adjourned session today here perfected the organization of the North Carolina Chamber of Commerce, preliminary steps for the organization of which were taken recently in Greensboro. Officers elected today are president, Fred N. Tate, High Point; vice presidents, Gen. J. S. Carr of Durham, H. A. Ramsour of Fayetteville, and A. K. Joy of Hickory; secretary and organizer, Fred A. Olds, Raleigh; treasurer, John O. Elliott, Raleigh; executive committee, the president and secretary. The president and secretary are E. W. Thompson of Charlotte, F. I. Sutton of Kinston, R. C. Hood of Greensboro. In perfecting the organization today one or more representatives were here from Greensboro, Charlotte, Winston-Salem, High Point, Fayetteville, Hickory and Statesville.

Following the organization there was an informal discussion of freight rate discriminations and the contemplated fight in the Legislature, and other subjects, against such conditions. Among the speakers were R. D. Douglas and R. C. Hood of Greensboro. A. K. Joy of Hickory, W. S. Creighton of Charlotte and J. L. Ludlow of Winston-Salem. The first business meeting is to be in Raleigh in January. Each of the commercial organizations in the State that joins the State association is to elect a member of the board of directors.

Geo. T. Craddock, Ruble, Ark., says: "I was bothered with lumbago for seven years so bad I could not work. I tried several kinds of kidney medicine which gave me little or no relief. Two bottles of Foley Kidney Pills cured me and now I can do any kind of work. I cheerfully recommend them to my friends." Bowen's Drug Store e-o-d

OFFICE OF Mechanics' Perpetual Building & Loan Association Charlotte, N. C., Sept. 25, 1912. WE APPRECIATE Very much the confidence of this community, another testimonial of whose good-will we have had in the sale of 2,500 shares in our last series--the 60th. This means $250,000 added to the wealth of the community and is a gratifying endorsement of our record, of the continuance of which we are jealous.

Our books are still open and we welcome new shareholders, whether large or small. Impartiality in all our dealings is and has always been our rule and our smallest shareholder can feel sure of equal consideration with the largest. We are strictly mutual and have no favorites. We hope to make this series one of our largest and cordially invite the whole community to help us make this an accomplished fact. Our books will be open until December 1st, and applications for loans will be received at any time until that date. Again expressing our appreciation of your continued confidence and help, we are Yours very truly J. H. WEARN, President. R. E. COCHRANE, Sec. & Treas.

You Can't Do Better, Sam. than take a few shares right now with Ed Keesler in the Mutual. You promised a year ago to take 10 shares, but four series have opened, and most of our friends went in and are delighted, yet we are still out, and are poorer than when we were married. "Well, Mollie, I'll take some next year, but I'll not do it with Keesler, I'll go into the Virginia or Alabama concern. They're not always giving us rot about home, and the babies, the next egg, rainy days. That are my kind--not advising us how to conduct our private affairs, what kind of liquor to drink, cussing out a fellow if he gets behind in his accounts, or has a little pleasure in life." "LISTEN TO ME, SAM!" Before marriage and since you've done little but "have your little pleasure," God knows you've not supported me or your children. I had taken advice of this same Ed Keesler I'd never have married you and might today be happy instead of the miserable creature you've made me. Now, I've taken my first stand, I'm going into the Mutual. From this hour I cease to support you, and I'll have a home for my little ones or die in the attempt. I'll get it through the Mutual, which makes homes possible, and which is eternally and everlastingly fighting the things that destroy them. The Almighty's with Mollie, boys, and no human agency can beat that combination. E. L. KEESLER, Sec. & Treas. Phone 344. 25 S. Tryon Street
