CONCERNING THE POPULATION. The United States Department of Commerce and Labor has made public some preliminary statistics concerning the population of this country as compiled in the last census.

THE ASSASSIN'S ATTACK. Regardless of political affiliation the people of the State will feel keenly the fact that a presidential candidate has been the object of attempted assassination.

THE CHARLOTTE FAIR. Charlotte is well informed concerning the coming annual fair. The advertising has been planned and executed with good result.

NORTH CAROLINA EMERALDS. Mr. Lovat Frazer, writing The Manufacturers Record from Shelby in reference to the North Carolina emerald mining, says: "The emeralds are found in pagmatite veins, cutting through a greenish hypersthene-hornblende rock."

AS IT SEEMED TO HIM. When Colonel Roosevelt made his recent trip through the South The New York Times had a staff representative on the train. The report sent by this observant writer from North Carolina said that the Republican party was practically dead in this State.

BRIGHT AND BREEZY. (New York Globe.) Mrs. Datus—Is your daughter marrying well? Mrs. Argo—M' dear, she'll never need to worry where the gasoline is coming from.

A Brother in the Same Fix. While visiting relatives a few weeks ago an amusing experience befell my hostess, who had just engaged a new Swedish cook, says a writer in The New York American. The cook had been on duty only since shortly before Easter and during her brief term of service had seemed to take a great liking to her mistress' young son, for whom she had made several toothsome delicacies.

How sad it is that the last lap of a joy ride for some is taken in the patrol wagon. Henry Blount, the word painter of Wilson, is down in this part of the State often these days and will entertain the people of Newell's tonight.

THE SKETCHER. Mr. Lockhart has weighed the Governor in the balances and found him wanting. No need to be surprised at this. He has held public offices for several years and is now wanting the Senate, and if that and the whole balance were given him, he would still be wanting.

WIN WITH WILSON. A dozen reasons why I should vote for next President Wilson, because: 1. He is the only candidate for President who represents the real, the vital and the effective progressive forces in this country.

THE ASSASSIN'S ATTACK. (Continued) It is true that it is the work of a demented and in some measure an irresponsible creature and yet the fact that the possibility of such characters having the opportunity of inflicting injury causes serious contemplation.

THE CHARLOTTE FAIR. (Continued) The management has worked hard and constantly and with the coming of the appointed time it behooves every Charlotte booster to help in the work of publicity.

WIN WITH WILSON. (Continued) 2. He stands for tariff revision downward in the interest of lower prices and the elimination of monopoly.

AS IT SEEMED TO HIM. (Continued) "A temporary track and hand dump car are now at use in the cut, but a steel track and a larger car will be installed later. Some means will be devised for washing the surface dirt rapidly and permitting of thorough examination. Possibly a pump will be installed which will elevate the water 30 to 50 feet to a tank and the surface washed in that manner, with revolving screens and picking belts below."

BRIGHT AND BREEZY. (Continued) Mrs. Datus—Is your daughter marrying well? Mrs. Argo—M' dear, she'll never need to worry where the gasoline is coming from.

A Brother in the Same Fix. (Continued) The young fellow suddenly left home, and the big Swede apparently took his departure to heart, and moped about gloomily for several days. Finally she asked her mistress: "Where bane your son? I not seeing him 'round no more."

How sad it is that the last lap of a joy ride for some is taken in the patrol wagon. (Continued) Henry Blount, the word painter of Wilson, is down in this part of the State often these days and will entertain the people of Newell's tonight.

A DREAM OF LONG AGO. (By Mae Lucile Smith.) Old Ned's hair is white as cotton. Peedle is his step and slow. But his mind unclouded travels To the days of Long Ago.

NEWS AND VIEWS. (Newbern Sun.) We went to Vanceboro to hear Governor Kitchin speak and to give our readers an account of that speech, but we would go many miles further than that to hear the Governor debate the trust question with State Senator Lockhart!

NEWS AND VIEWS. (Statesville Landmark.) Mr. W. F. Kilpatrick of Bethany Township was showing The Landmark a sample of his Irish potato crop a few days ago. He planted the "Irish Cobbler" variety and the potatoes are immense, about a dozen of them filling a peck measure.

NEWS AND VIEWS. (Thomasville Davidsonian.) We can modestly claim for Thomasville the brightest prospect within the next decade of any town of its class in the State. Its growth has always been steady and substantial, and its financial basis is as solid as a rock.

NEWS AND VIEWS. (Gastonia Gazette.) There must be a lot of snakes in Anson County—either that or the Ansonites do not figure that Tom Settle is going to be elected Governor on his "wet" ticket.

NEWS AND VIEWS. (Whiteville News-Reporter.) We are for Senator Simmons on his record as a citizen, as a leader of the people from under the domination of ignorance, as the man who planned and effected the liberation of the white people from oppressive and humiliating conditions, as a man who has known the tolls and difficulties of the great mass of farmers by personal experience as one of them, as a man who while in the office can be found at his post of duty, as a man of powerful influence with his fellow Senators, as a man who has done something as a Senator, and who will when returned thereto greater things for North Carolina in particular and the general public. We are for him to succeed himself because there is not another man in the State who can go there and take his place and accomplish the same results in the same length of time.

NEWS AND VIEWS. (Concord Times.) Senator Simmons has advocated and is now supporting the following measures: The income tax. Election of United States Senators by the people. Tariff revision downward to a revenue basis. Parcels post. Extension of rural free delivery. The farmers' free list bill (as passed by the Democratic House). Tariff reform bills (as passed by the Democratic House). The bill (now a law) to prevent corrupt practices in elections. Every measure to prevent trusts and monopolies. To restrict foreign immigration. To improve and develop the rivers and harbors of North Carolina. To build the inland waterway. To protect and preserve the forests and the waterpowers of North Carolina. Government aid to post roads. He opposed the Sherwood dollar-a-day pension bill.

NEWS AND VIEWS. (New York Sun.) Jilting Him—Maud Muller was raking the hay. "I'm an intelligent agriculturalist at the very time you are in danger of the recall," she explained in refusing the judge.

NEWS AND VIEWS. (New York Sun.) J. W. Copeland, of Dayton, Ohio, purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for his boy who had a cold, and found it before all used the boy's cold was gone. It is not better than to pay a five dollar doctor's bill? For sale by all dealers.

UGH! NOT CALOMEL, OIL OR SALTS, BUT DELICIOUS "SYRUP OF FIGS" Give Your Stomach, Liver and 30 Feet of Bowels Thorough Cleansing Without Gripe or Nausea. End Headache, Bloating, Indigestion and Constipation.

This wonderful fruit laxative acts as a liver and bowel cleanser—tonic. It is as efficient as any of the natural and gentle—no gripping. It is delicious—no greasing. It is positive and prompt—no waiting. If your stomach is sour and filled with vile gases, your head aches, or you are bilious, nervous, dizzy, half sick, your tongue coated, your thirty feet of bowels clogged with waste not properly carried off—don't wait. Surely take a teaspoonful of delicious Syrup of Figs tonight, and in the morning all constipated waste, sour bile, gases and poisons will move on and out of the system, gently but thoroughly—no gripping—no nausea—no weakness. In the old days people let these matters run until they needed a large dose of physic, then they took something severe, like castor oil, salts or cathartics, that meant abuse to the bowels. These are the days of the gentle and natural—Syrup of Figs being composed entirely of choice figs, senna and aromatics, does not cause injury. Ask your druggist for "Syrup of Figs" and Ellixir of Senna, and look for the name, California Fig Syrup Company on the label. This is the genuine—old reliable. Any other so-called Fig Syrup is an imitation, and will deceive you. Return such with contempt.

North Carolina Senators. (Webster's Weekly.) It having been charged against The Weekly that it was trying to get the Senator Simmons to Senator Overman's coat-tails, it may not be amiss to say that either of them is abundantly able to stand on his own bottom. Both enjoy a National reputation, and while they have differed at times, as did Vance and Ransom, yet they make a magnificent team. The Asheville Gazette-News in its issue of June 4, 1910, said of their work on the railroad rate bill: "At this distance one gets the impression that the North Carolina Senators have distinguished themselves, doing, at the same time, the country a good turn. While the railroad bill which passed yesterday with practical unanimity, was under consideration, Senator Overman succeeded in having adopted his provision regulating the issuance of injunctions, an important legal consideration, while Senator Simmons, apparently by close application to duty, and going short on ration, brought about the adoption of his amendment with respect to water rates. A correspondent of a New York newspaper says this is one of the important amendments, and that the North Carolina Senator took advantage of the lunch hour, when the Republican Senators who were in charge of the bill were regaling themselves in the Senate restaurant to put through his amendment relating to water transportation. This amendment provides that when a lesser rate for a longer than for a shorter haul is allowed by the Interstate Commerce Commission on account of water competition the rate thus allowed shall not be less than a competitive water rates plus 10 per cent of the water rate."—Asheville Gazette-News, June 4, 1910.

Chance to Make the Pastor Useful. (Kansas City Star.) A few days ago a little boy who lives on the West Side swallowed a coin and his frantic mother immediately called the family doctor. When he arrived the mother was in hysterics, thinking her son was about to die. The physician looked the smiling youngster over and in a solemn voice asked: "Who is your pastor?" This caused more tears, and in a trembling tone she inquired: "Oh, doctor, is it as serious as that?" The doctor repeated the question and this time the mother replied: "I go to the Christian Church." The physician looked puzzled for a moment and then said: "Yes, I know your pastor. Better get him; he is the best man to take your money that I know."
