AMUSEMENTS

"Ecuse Me," Tonight. The Academy of Music offers as its attraction for today matinee and night an up-to-date farce by Rupert A. at This Time. Mr. Hughes has hit upon a novel idea in the field of farce. The three acts of the play are crowded with ludicrous complications and uproariously humorous episodes, through all of which run several unique and amusing love stories. There are half a dozen counter plots, all of the laugh-provoking variety. "Excuse Me," was written solely with the idea of affording two and three-quarter hours of laughter and the author has fully realized his purpose. The piece was staged by George Marion, which means that every detail of technique has been observed. Mr. Savage has provided a production of scenic attractiveness and has assembled one of the most notable ompanies of comedians ever gathered the folly of keeping mongrels and are n one organization. Runs of nine months in New York, six months in Chicago and four months in Boston prove how "Excuse Me," hits popular enthusasm.

TURNER RECOVERS BELT BY DEFEATING GREEK WRESTLEI

Both Men Put Forth Their Utmost Effort to Secure Title to the Honor of the Evening.

Joe Turner, local favorite on the mat, last night recouped his somewhat broken record, when he threw Jim Poulois, the Greek middleweight, thereby recovering the Police Gazette bet for the middeweight champion of

The event was watched by one of the biggest gatherings of spectators of the season and was exciting from

Turner won the first fall in 29 minutes on a body and crotch hold. The second fall went to the Greek in 14 minutes on a body scissors hold and Turner got the third fall in 8 minutes of fast work all over the mat, using a leg hold and body weight. The contest was one of the most spirited and fastest pulled off on the local mat in many months and both men were in good form.

Before the Turner-Poulois match there was a contest of one hour between Billy Collins and Tony Caproni, who after 60 minutes' ineffectual effort to pin one another's shoulders to the mat, were called off in order to make way for the match between Turner and the Greek.
