ORGANIZE SOCIETY AGAINST USELESS GIVING.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15 .- Mrs. Aulons of Mississippi vinegar constituted gust Belmont, Miss Anne Morgan and other prominent New York women are among the founders of a new organization, "the society for the prevention of useless giving."

The society will do its utmost to abolish the "exchange" system of Christmas giving among those who can ill afford it.

"Instead of being a season of true and supreme pleasure making," said constitutionality of the Mississippi act Mrs. Belmont, "Christmas has come to be a serious burden to thousands of working girls. The Christmas giving custom may have originated in the mind of some kind person, but it results in trouble and hurt feelings."
