FOR MEN WHO KNOW.

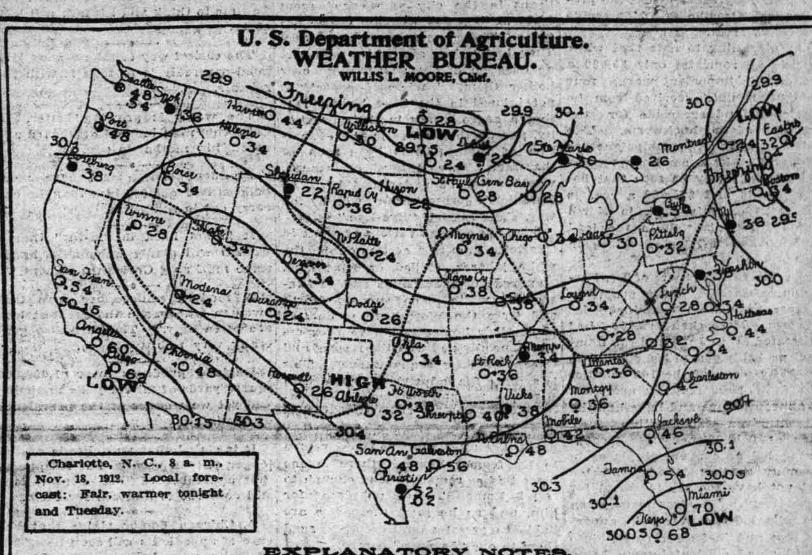

(Miss Sophie Kelan.)

NEW YORK.-Miss Sophie Keblan, who was one of the most popular girls in New York University, is now a lawyer, ready and willing to take off her hat, which is the feminine equivalent for taking off one's coat, and fight before the courts of the city and State. Unassisted by the members of her family this plucky young girl won a diploma and a place at the bar. She worked as a book-keeper by day, so as to enable her to continue her studies at night. When she first entered the night law school she was in short skirts, and the other students dubbed her the 'Kindergarten Kid." Miss Keblan is anxious to begin the practice of her profession at once. And now that she has thus far succeeded new friends have volunteered to give her every aid possible in launching her on a most
