Who Wants Christmas Money? Who Wants Good Salespeople?

Young women who want to earn some Christmas money can find the way by watching Chronicle want ads. Caterers to the Christmas trade want extra salespeople. And you men who must be responsible for the class of salespeople you engage can make splendid use of Chronicle want ads—for The Chronicle is the "home read" paper of Charlotte.

CASH IN ADVANCE

tentative fashion and soon the whole list was rising.

The sharp rise in stocks yesterday was followed by profit-taking today and sales on this account, together with the lower range of Americans in London, served to depress the market in the morning trading. Speculation narrowed down to well-known issues.

Bonds steady.

Large foreign selling of Steel and Union Pacific lowered them 1/2 and 3/4, respectively, and discouraged attempts to bid up prices elsewhere.

Trading virtually eased in the late afternoon.

Closed heavy. Efforts to force shorts to cover in the final hour did not meet with much success and the traders promptly turned about and sold the list rather freely.

Steel touched its lowest and there also was some active selling of recently strong industrials.

London Stocks.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—Balkan developments caused general selling, and lower prices during the forenoon on the stock exchange, but stocks hardened slightly in the afternoon and closed steadier.

American securities opened easy and a fraction lower. Realizing sales depressed values during the early trading but Wall Street supported the market, which recovered a fraction and closed dull.

NEW YORK PRODUCE

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Butter steady, unchanged; receipts 4,392 tubs.

Cheese firm, unchanged; receipts 1,777 boxes.

Eggs weak; receipts 5,996 cases; fresh gathered dirties 15 to 22; fresh gathered checks 15 to 22.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Cotton opened steady at an advance of 1 to 2 points and sold 5 to 12 points net higher during the first few minutes on covering and a scattering demand inspired by larger English spot sales, and a crop estimate of 33,600 bales by a central belt paper. There was heavy realizing around 12:30 for the spring months, however, and the market later eased off under renewed liquidation.

Rumors that certain prominent bulls had developed a more bullish view of the situation added to the activity of the selling movement later in the forenoon and near months broke to a net loss of 5 to 12 points. Later, the market edged slightly under yesterday's close, but just before noon the market steadied on support from trade sources and rallied 5 or 6 points from the lowest.

Reports of spinners' demand accompanied active buying in the early afternoon and the market sold up to a net gain of 7 to 12 points on active positions. Early sellers seemed to be covering, but the upward movement was checked above 12:30 for March and May and subsequently fluctuations were irregular.

Spot closed steady; middling uplands 12 1/2; middling grade 12 3/4; sales 400 bales.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 22.—Cotton futures opened steady, unchanged to 1/2 points up on good cables. Bulls gave the market supporting orders and called attention to the large amount of rain that fell in Texas overnight. This, it was claimed, would interfere with picking and would reduce the grade of cotton left in the fields. The market had a very steady tone in the early trading with no great amount of cotton offering from the direction. At the end of the first half-hour of business prices were 9 to 10 points up.

It was a small and narrow market during the larger part of the morning session. Around the middle of the morning some weakness was displayed on the pointer to the week's into sight as about three-quarters of a million bales. Shorts increased their offerings on this and prices fell to a level 1 to 2 points under yesterday's close. Longs bought steadily and the market recovered later, standing at noon at a net advance of 5 to 7 points.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—Wheat prices dropped on big Northwestern receipts. Opened 1/4 off to a shade advance. May started at 97 1/2 to 98, a sixteenth lower to a like amount up, and fell to 89 1/2 to 90.

Rain in Argentina helped wheat. Closed steady at 90 1/2 for May, 1/4 to 1/2 under last night.

Perfect weather weakened corn. May varying from a shade decline to a similar advance, sagged to 47 1/2 to 48.

Corn rallied with wheat. Closed easy, a shade net lower for May at 47 1/2.

Oats weak. May opened within a sixteenth either side of yesterday's figures at 32 1/2 to 33 1/2, but receded to 32.

Lower hog prices weakened provisions. First sales were 5 to 10c down, with January at 19 3/4 for pork, 10 7/8 for lard and 10 1/2 for ribs.
