ing time.y views on the sub ect: There is a national organization of this character and many local RATE ADJUSTMENT ones, and that Charlotte may keep in front in progress and all that is for her good it seems that a local or-ganization should be welcomed," said Mr. Abbott.

"The idea," said he, "would be to orm such reasonable rules and regulations for the trade as will raise the tone and dignity of the real estate business through such association.
"In Charlotte we have to pay a quite heavy license to carry on the real estate business, and it is also a fact that many so-ca led curb brokers, having no office, no license to pay and who do no advertising, do a regular jusiness, and at the same time they will cut commissions when necessary p make a deal, and they can afford it since they have no expense to meet,

no office rent or license to pay.
"The first object would be to eliminate this class of brokers, for it is certainly not a fair proposition to alw this class of men to demoral ze he real estate business, while they pay no license for their work.

"In the next place such an organization, I believe, will protect the public because any man who would endeavor to follow dishonorable practices would not be allowed member-will have something to say on the ship in the association, so that this would be a certain degree of rotection to the public in dealing with regular members.

"Another important item, is that such an organization could aid in the building up of Charlotte by some systematic method of advertising the eity abroad which such an organiza-tion could take up and push, and in other ways help forward the inter-

TO BE DISCUSSED BY WATER BOARD

"Water rates," not for shippers but for Charlotte folks who are patrons of the mun'cipal waterworks, will be the subject of discussion at an open meeting of the board of water commissioners to be held next Thursday evening at the city hall. Announcement of this meeting was made today by Commissioner R. K. B'air.

The purpose of the meeting primarily is to ascerta'n if the rates as offered Charlotte citizens and to users living outside the city are on a satisfactory and equitable basis, and any patron of the waterworks or other citizen wishing to have anything to say on the subject will be given opportunity.

This opportunity is offered in order
